Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 16.1-241, as it is currently effective and as it may become effective, and §§ 20-124.1 and 63.1-233 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 16.1-241. Jurisdiction.

The judges of the juvenile and domestic relations district court elected or appointed under this law shall be conservators of the peace within the corporate limits of the cities and the boundaries of the counties for which they are respectively chosen and within one mile beyond the limits of such cities and counties. Except as hereinafter provided, each juvenile and domestic relations district court shall have, within the limits of the territory for which it is created, exclusive original jurisdiction, and within one mile beyond the limits of said city or county, concurrent jurisdiction with the juvenile court or courts of the adjoining city or county over all cases, matters and proceedings involving:

A. The custody, visitation, support, control or disposition of a child:

1. Who is alleged to be abused, neglected, in need of services, in need of supervision, a status offender, or delinquent except where the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has been terminated or divested;

2. Who is abandoned by his parent or other custodian or who by reason of the absence or physical or mental incapacity of his parents is without parental care and guardianship;

2a. Who is at risk of being abused or neglected by a parent or custodian who has been adjudicated as having abused or neglected another child in the care of the parent or custodian;

3. Whose custody, visitation or support is a subject of controversy or requires determination. In such cases jurisdiction shall be concurrent with and not exclusive of courts having equity jurisdiction, except as provided in § 16.1-244;

4. Who is the subject of an entrustment agreement entered into pursuant to § 63.1-56 or § 63.1-204 or whose parent or parents for good cause desire to be relieved of his care and custody;

5. Where the termination of residual parental rights and responsibilities is sought. In such cases jurisdiction shall be concurrent with and not exclusive of courts having equity jurisdiction, as provided in § 16.1-244;

6. Who is charged with a traffic infraction as defined in § 46.2-100.

In any case in which the juvenile is alleged to have committed a violent juvenile felony enumerated in subsection B of § 16.1-269.1, and for any charges ancillary thereto, the jurisdiction of the juvenile court shall be limited to conducting a preliminary hearing to determine if there is probable cause to believe that the juvenile committed the act alleged and that the juvenile was fourteen years of age or older at the time of the commission of the alleged offense, and any matters related thereto. In any case in which the juvenile is alleged to have committed a violent juvenile felony enumerated in subsection C of § 16.1-269.1, and for all charges ancillary thereto, if the attorney for the Commonwealth has given notice as provided in subsection C of § 16.1-269.1, the jurisdiction of the juvenile court shall be limited to conducting a preliminary hearing to determine if there is probable cause to believe that the juvenile committed the act alleged and that the juvenile was fourteen years of age or older at the time of the commission of the alleged offense, and any matters related thereto. A determination by the juvenile court following a preliminary hearing pursuant to subsection B or C of § 16.1-269.1 to certify a charge to the grand jury shall divest the juvenile court of jurisdiction over the charge and any ancillary charge. In any case in which a transfer hearing is held pursuant to subsection A of § 16.1-269.1, if the juvenile court determines to transfer the case, jurisdiction of the juvenile court over the case shall be divested as provided in § 16.1-269.6.

In all other cases involving delinquent acts, and in cases in which an ancillary charge remains after a violent juvenile felony charge has been dismissed or a violent juvenile felony has been reduced to a lesser offense not constituting a violent juvenile felony, the jurisdiction of the juvenile court shall not be divested unless there is a transfer pursuant to subsection A of § 16.1-269.1.

The authority of the juvenile court to adjudicate matters involving the custody, visitation, support, control or disposition of a child shall not be limited to the consideration of petitions filed by a mother,

60 father or legal guardian but shall include petitions filed at any time by any party with a legitimate
61 interest therein. A party with a legitimate interest shall be broadly construed and shall include, but not 62 be limited to, grandparents, stepparents, former stepparents, blood relatives and family members. A party
63 with a legitimate interest shall not include any person (i) whose parental rights have been ~~involuntarily~~
64 terminated by court order, either voluntarily or involuntarily, or any other person whose interest in the 65 child derives from or through such person whose parental rights have been so terminated, including but 66 not limited to grandparents, stepparents, former stepparents, blood relatives and family members, if the
67 child subsequently has been legally adopted, or (ii) who has been convicted of a violation of subsection
68 A of § 18.2-61 or subsection B of § 18.2-366 when the child who is the subject of the petition was 69 conceived as a result of such violation. The authority of the juvenile court to consider a petition
70 involving the custody of a child shall not be proscribed or limited where the child has previously been 71 awarded to the custody of a local board of social services.

72 B. The admission of minors for inpatient treatment in a mental health facility in accordance with the 73 provisions of Article 16 (§ 16.1-335 et seq.) of this chapter and the commitment of a mentally ill person
74 or judicial certification of eligibility for admission to a treatment facility of a mentally retarded person
75 in accordance with the provisions of Chapters 1 (§ 37.1-1 et seq.) and 2 (§ 37.1-63 et seq.) of Title 37.1.
76 Jurisdiction of the commitment and certification of adults shall be concurrent with the general district
77 court.

79 require parental consent may be given for a child who has been separated from his parents, guardian,
80 legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis and is in the custody of the court when such 81 consent is required by law.

82 D. Judicial consent for emergency surgical or medical treatment for a child who is neither married
83 nor has ever been married, when the consent of his parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person
84 standing in loco parentis is unobtainable because such parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person
85 standing in loco parentis (i) is not a resident of this Commonwealth, (ii) his whereabouts is unknown,
86 (iii) he cannot be consulted with promptness, reasonable under the circumstances or (iv) fails to give

93 or is otherwise before the court pursuant to subdivision A 4 of this section;

94 3. Who has been adjudicated in need of services, in need of supervision, or delinquent, if the court
95 finds that such person has by overt act or omission induced, caused, encouraged or contributed to the 96 conduct of the child complained of in the petition.

97 G. Petitions filed by or on behalf of a child or such child's parent, guardian, legal custodian or other
98 person standing in loco parentis for the purpose of obtaining treatment, rehabilitation or other services
99 which are required by law to be provided for that child or such child's parent, guardian, legal custodian

116 challenging directly or collaterally the jurisdiction of the court in which the case is tried. For purposes
117 of this subsection, "family or household member," as defined in § 16.1-228, shall also be construed to

The judges of the family court elected or appointed under this law shall be conservators of the peace within the corporate limits of the cities and the boundaries of the counties for which they are respectively chosen and within one mile beyond the limits of such cities and counties. Except as hereinafter provided, each family court shall have, within the limits of the territory for which it is created, exclusive original jurisdiction, and within one mile beyond the limits of said city or county, concurrent jurisdiction with the family court or courts of the adjoining city or county over all cases, matters and proceedings involving:

A. The custody, visitation, support, control or disposition of a child:

202 child subsequently has been legally adopted, or (ii) who has been convicted of a violation of subsection
203 A of § 18.2-61 or subsection B of § 18.2-366 when the child who is the subject of the petition was 204 conceived as a result of such violation. The authority of the family court to consider a petition involving 205 the custody of a child shall not be proscribed or limited where the child has previously been awarded to 206 the custody of a local board of social services.
