HOUSE BILL NO. 1256

House Amendments in [ ] — February 10, 1998

A BILL to amend and reenact § 20-108.2 of the Code of Virginia, relating to child support guidelines.

Patron—Barlow

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:*1. That § 20-108.2 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 20-108.2. Guideline for determination of child support.

A. There shall be a rebuttable presumption in any judicial or administrative proceeding for child support under this title or Title 16.1 or 63.1, including cases involving split custody or shared custody, that the amount of the award which would result from the application of the guidelines set forth in this section is the correct amount of child support to be awarded. In order to rebut the presumption, the court shall make written findings in the order as set out in § 20-108.1, which findings may be incorporated by reference, that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case as determined by relevant evidence pertaining to the factors set out in §§ 20-107.2 and 20-108.1. The Department of Social Services shall set child support at the amount resulting from computations using the guidelines set out in this section pursuant to the authority granted to it in Chapter 13 (§ 63.1-249 et seq.) of Title 63.1 and subject to the provisions of § 63.1-264.2.

B. For purposes of application of the guideline, a basic child support obligation shall be computed using the schedule set out below. For combined monthly gross income amounts falling between amounts shown in the schedule, basic child support obligation amounts shall be extrapolated. However, where the combined monthly gross income is less than $599, the presumptive child support obligation shall be $65 per month. "Number of children" shall mean the number of children for whom the parents share joint legal responsibility and for whom support is being sought.

C. For purposes of this section, "gross income" shall mean all income from all sources, and shall include, but not be limited to, income from salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, capital gains, social security benefits except as listed below, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, veterans' benefits, spousal support, rental income, gifts, prizes or awards.

Gross income shall be subject to deduction of reasonable business expenses for persons with income from self-employment, a partnership, or a closely held business. "Gross income" shall not include benefits from public assistance programs as defined in § 63.1-87, federal supplemental security income benefits, or child support received. For purposes of this subsection, spousal support included in gross income shall be limited to spousal support paid pursuant to a pre-existing order or written agreement and spousal support shall be deducted from the gross income of the payor when paid pursuant to a pre-existing order or written agreement between the parties to the present proceeding.

Gross income shall include benefits from social security [ , private or other ] disability insurance and any benefits payable on behalf of the child or children as a result of the parents' receipt of [ ~~social security~~ such ] disability insurance. However, the amount of benefits payable on behalf of the child or children shall be subtracted from the basic child support obligation of the parent receiving such [ ~~social security~~ ] disability insurance. If the amount of benefits payable on behalf of the child or children is greater than the basic child support obligation of the parent receiving such [ ~~social security~~ ] disability insurance, such parent shall receive no credit towards future child support obligations or for any arrearage.

In cases in which retroactive liability for support is being determined, the court or administrative agency may use the gross monthly income of the parties averaged over the period of retroactivity.

D. Any extraordinary medical and dental expenses for treatment of the child or children shall be added to the basic child support obligation. For purposes of this section, extraordinary medical and dental expenses are uninsured expenses in excess of $100 for a single illness or condition and shall include but not be limited to eyeglasses, prescription medication, prostheses, and mental health services whether provided by a social worker, psychologist, psychiatrist, or counselor.

E. Any costs for health care coverage as defined in § 63.1-250, when actually being paid by a parent, to the extent such costs are directly allocable to the child or children, and which are the extra costs of covering the child or children beyond whatever coverage the parent providing the coverage would otherwise have, shall be added to the basic child support obligation.

F. Any child-care costs incurred on behalf of the child or children due to employment of the custodial parent shall be added to the basic child support obligation. Child-care costs shall not exceed the amount required to provide quality care from a licensed source. Where appropriate, the court shall consider the willingness and availability of the noncustodial parent to provide child care personally in determining whether child-care costs are necessary or excessive.

G. 1. Except in cases involving split custody or shared custody, a total monthly child support obligation shall be established by adding (i) the monthly basic child support obligation, as determined from the schedule contained in subsection B of this section, (ii) all extraordinary medical expenses, (iii) costs for health care coverage to the extent allowable by subsection E, and (iv) work-related child-care costs and taking into consideration all the factors set forth in subsection B of § 20-108.1. The total monthly child support obligation shall be divided between the parents in the same proportion as their monthly gross incomes bear to their monthly combined gross income. The monthly obligation of each parent shall be computed by multiplying each parent's percentage of the parents' monthly combined gross income by the total monthly child support obligation.

However, the monthly obligation of the noncustodial parent shall be reduced by the cost for health care coverage to the extent allowable by subsection E when paid directly by the noncustodial parent.

2. In cases involving split custody, the amount of child support to be paid shall be the difference between the amounts owed by each parent as a noncustodial parent, computed in accordance with subdivision 1 of this subsection, with the noncustodial parent owing the larger amount paying the difference to the other parent.

For the purpose of this section and § 20-108.1, split custody shall be limited to those situations where each parent has physical custody of a child or children born of the parents, born of either parent and adopted by the other parent or adopted by both parents. For the purposes of calculating a child support obligation where split custody exists, a separate family unit exists for each parent, and child support for that family unit shall be calculated upon the number of children in that family unit who are born of the parents, born of either parent and adopted by the other parent or adopted by both parents. Where split custody exists, a parent is a custodial parent to the children in that parent's family unit and 514 is a noncustodial parent to the children in the other parent's family unit.

515 3. In cases involving shared custody, the amount of child support to be paid is the difference
516 between the amounts owed by each parent to the other parent, with the parent owing the larger amount
517 paying the difference to the other parent.

518 To compute the monthly amount to be paid by one parent to the other parent, the following
519 calculations shall be made:

520 (a) The "basic child support obligation" of each parent shall be the "total shared support" multiplied
521 by the other parent's "custody share." The "total shared support" of both parties equals statutory 522 guideline amount determined pursuant to subsection B for the combined income of the parties and the 523 number of shared children multiplied by 1.25. A parent's "custody share" equals the number of days that 524 parent has physical custody of a shared child per year divided by the number of days in the year.

525 (b) To each parent's "basic child support obligation" shall be added the other parent's costs of health
526 care coverage, to the extent allowable by subsection E, and the other parent's work-related child care
527 costs to the extent allowable by subsection F.

528 (c) The obligation of each parent to the other shall be then computed by multiplying each parent's 529 percentage of the parents' monthly combined gross income by the support obligation obtained in 530 subdivision G 3 (b).

531 The shared custody rules set forth herein apply when each parent has physical custody of a child or
532 children born of the parties, born of either parent and adopted by the other parent, or adopted by both
533 parents, for more than 110 days of the year. Any calculation under this subdivision shall not create or 534 reduce a support obligation to an amount which seriously impairs the custodial parent's ability to 535 maintain minimal adequate housing and provide other basic necessities for the child.

536 H. The Secretary of Health and Human Resources shall ensure that the guideline set out in this
537 section is reviewed by July 1, 1990, and every four years thereafter, by a panel which includes
538 representatives of the courts, the executive branch, the General Assembly, the bar, custodial and 539 noncustodial parents and child advocates. The panel shall determine the adequacy of the guideline for 540 the determination of appropriate awards for the support of children by considering current research and
541 data on the cost of and expenditures necessary for rearing children, and any other resources it deems
542 relevant to such review. The panel shall report its findings to the General Assembly before it next 543 convenes following such review.
