HOUSE BILL NO. 1407

Offered January 26, 1998

A BILL to amend and reenact § 18.2-340.33 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the prohibited practices in charitable gaming.

Patron—Joannou

Referred to Committee on General Laws

Be in enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 18.2-340.33 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 18.2-340.33. Prohibited practices.

In addition to those other practices prohibited by this article, the following acts or practices are prohibited:

1. No part of the gross receipts derived by a qualified organization may be used for any purpose other than (i) reasonable and proper operating costs, (ii) publicizing the time and date of charitable gaming, (iii) prizes, (iv) those lawful religious, charitable, community or educational purposes for which the organization is specifically chartered or organized, and (v) expenses relating to the acquisition, construction, maintenance, or repair of any interest in the real property involved in the operation of the organization and used for lawful religious, charitable, community or educational purposes. For the purposes of clause (v), such expenses may include the expenses of a corporation formed for the purpose of serving as the real estate holding entity of a qualified organization, provided (a) such holding entity is qualified as a tax exempt organization under § 501 (c) (3), (7) or (10) of the Internal Revenue Code and (b) the membership of the qualified organization is identical to such holding entity.

2. No qualified organization shall enter into a contract with, or otherwise employ for compensation any person for the purpose of organizing, managing, or conducting any charitable games. However, organizations composed of or for deaf or blind persons may use a part of their gross receipts for costs associated with providing clerical assistance in the conduct of charitable gaming.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not prohibit the joint operation of bingo games held in accordance with § 18.2-340.29.

3. No person shall pay or receive for use of any premises devoted, in whole or in part, to the conduct of any charitable games, any consideration in excess of the current fair market rental value of such property. Fair market rental value consideration shall not be based upon or determined by reference to a percentage of the proceeds derived from the operation of any charitable games or to the number of people in attendance at such charitable games.

4. No building or other premises shall be utilized in whole or in part for the purpose of conducting bingo games more frequently than ~~two~~ four calendar days in any one calendar week. However, no building or other premises owned by (i) a qualified organization which is exempt from taxation pursuant to § 501 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) any county, city or town shall be utilized in whole or in part for the purpose of conducting bingo games more frequently than four calendar days in any one calendar week.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to the playing of bingo games pursuant to a special permit issued in accordance with § 18.2-340.27.

5. No person shall participate in the management, operation or conduct of any charitable game unless such person is and, for a period of at least thirty days immediately preceding such participation, has been a bona fide member of the organization.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to (i) persons employed as clerical assistants by qualified organizations composed of or for deaf or blind persons; (ii) employees of a corporate sponsor of a qualified organization, provided such employees' participation is limited to the management, operation or conduct of no more than one raffle per year; or (iii) the spouse or family member of any such bona fide member of a qualified organization provided at least one bona fide member is present.

6. No person shall receive any remuneration for participating in the management, operation or conduct of any charitable game, except that:

a. Persons employed by organizations composed of or for deaf or blind persons may receive remuneration not to exceed thirty dollars per event for providing clerical assistance in the conduct of charitable games only for such organizations;

b. Persons under the age of nineteen who sell raffle tickets for a qualified organization to raise funds for youth activities in which they participate may receive nonmonetary incentive awards or prizes from the organization;

60 c. Remuneration may be paid to off-duty law-enforcement officers from the jurisdiction in which
61 such bingo games are played for providing uniformed security for such bingo games even if such officer
62 is a member of the sponsoring organization, provided the remuneration paid to such member is in
63 accordance with off-duty law-enforcement personnel work policies approved by the local 64 law-enforcement official and further provided that such member is not otherwise engaged in the 65 management, operation or conduct of the bingo games of that organization; and

66 d. A member of a qualified organization lawfully participating in the management, operation or 67 conduct of a bingo game may be provided food and nonalcoholic beverages by such organization for 68 on-premises consumption during the bingo game provided the food and beverages are provided in 69 accordance with Commission regulations.

70 7. No landlord shall, at bingo games conducted on the landlord's premises, (i) participate in the 71 conduct, management, or operation of any bingo games; (ii) sell, lease or otherwise provide for 72 consideration any bingo supplies, including, but not limited to, bingo cards, instant bingo cards, markers,
73 or other game pieces; or (iii) require as a condition of the lease or by contract that a particular
74 manufacturer, distributor or supplier of bingo supplies or equipment be used by the organization. If
75 equipment or services are included by a landlord in any lease or contract, the lease or contract shall
76 itemize the amount attributable to the rent of the premises, equipment, and each service to be provided
77 by the landlord.

78 The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to any qualified organization conducting bingo
79 games on its own behalf at premises owned by it.

80 8. No qualified organization shall enter into any contract with or otherwise employ or compensate
81 any member of the organization on account of the sale of bingo supplies or equipment.

82 9. No organization shall award any bingo prize money or any merchandise valued in excess of the 83 following amounts:

84 a. No bingo door prize shall exceed $25;

85 b. No regular bingo or special bingo game prize shall exceed $100;

86 c. No instant bingo prize for a single card shall exceed $500; and

87 d. No bingo jackpot of any nature whatsoever shall exceed $1,000, nor shall the total amount of 88 bingo jackpot prizes awarded in any one calendar day exceed $1,000.

89 The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to any bingo game in which all the gross receipts
90 from players for that game, up to $1,000, are paid as prize money back to the players, provided there is
91 no more than one such game per calendar day of play and the prize money from any such game does 92 not exceed $1,000, such games being commonly referred to as "winner-take-all" games.

93 10. No organization shall award any raffle prize valued at more than $100,000.

94 The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to (i) a raffle conducted no more than once per
95 calendar year by a qualified organization qualified as a tax-exempt organization pursuant to § 501 (c) (3)
96 of the Internal Revenue Code for a prize consisting of a lot improved by a residential dwelling where 97 100 percent of the moneys received from such a raffle, less deductions for the fair market value for the
98 cost of acquisition of the land and materials, are donated to lawful religious, charitable, community, or
99 educational organizations specifically chartered or organized under the laws of the chartered or organized
100 under the laws of the Commonwealth and qualified as a § 501 (c) (3) tax-exempt organization or (ii)
101 pull tabs or seal cards when played as permitted in § 18.2-340.26, which prize award for a single card
102 shall not exceed $500.

103 11. No qualified organization composed of or for deaf or blind persons which employs a person not
104 a member to provide clerical assistance in the conduct of any charitable games shall conduct such games
105 unless it has in force fidelity insurance, as defined in § 38.2-120, written by an insurer licensed to do
106 business in the Commonwealth.

107 12. No person shall participate in the management, operation or conduct of any charitable game if,
108 within the preceding five years, he has been convicted of a felony or crime of moral turpitude. In 109 addition, no person shall participate in the management, operation or conduct of any charitable game if 110 that person, within the preceding five years, has participated in the management, operation, or conduct
111 of any charitable game which was found by the Commission or a court of competent jurisdiction to 112 have been operated in violation of state law, local ordinance or Commission regulation.

113 13. Qualified organizations jointly conducting bingo games pursuant to § 18.2-340.29 shall not 114 circumvent any restrictions and prohibitions which would otherwise apply if a single organization were 115 conducting such games. These restrictions and prohibitions shall include, but not be limited to, the 116 frequency with which bingo games may be held, the value of merchandise or money awarded as prizes,
117 or any other practice prohibited under this section.

118 14. A qualified organization shall not purchase any charitable gaming supplies for use in this
119 Commonwealth from any person who is not currently registered with the Commission as a supplier
120 pursuant to § 18.2-340.34.
