Patron—Jones, S.C.

Consent to introduce

Referred to Committee on General Laws

Whereas, the Commonwealth has no official song because "Carry Me Back To Old Virginia," declared the State song in 1940, has become so controversial that it is no longer possible or appropriate to use the song; and

Whereas, the official song should reference the rich history and tradition of the Commonwealth and invoke images of the natural and scenic beauty its citizens celebrate; and

Whereas, the Commonwealth requires an official song that can be sung on all occasions with pride and affection; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That "Virginia is for Lovers," by Thad Williams, be designated the official song of the Commonwealth, the words of which are as follows:

Virginia is for Lovers

As the salty surf breaks on the sand of Virginia's sil'vry shore,

And the tide floods the river and winding creek.

Seagulls screaming in a trawler's wake,

As she meets an oyster boat,

They're port bound on the busy Chesapeake.

From the peanut fields to the rolling hills,

With cotton, wheat, and corn,

The woodland with its lakes and streams,

Is the state where I was born.

Chorus:

Virginia is for lovers!

Lovers of the sea, lovers of the mountains, the arts and history,

Lovers of the farms and hills, the flow'ring dogwood trees,

Virginia is for lovers, and Virginia is for me.

From the smallest country village to the city's busy street,

Colonial towns where once our heroes trod,

Buildings draped in history,

That were built on hallowed ground,

Reflect the works of mortal man and God.

From the Eastern Shore to the Shenandoah,

There's a lot for you to love,

The great Blue Ridge and Natural Bridge

And the southern skies above.

Chorus:

Virginia is for lovers!

Lovers of the sea, lovers of the mountains, the arts and history,

Lovers of the farms and hills, the flow'ring dogwood trees,

Virginia is for lovers, and Virginia is for me.
