HOUSE BILL NO. 291

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE

(Proposed by the House Committee for Courts of Justice on February 16, 1998)

(Patron Prior to Substitute—Delegate Clement)

*A BILL to amend and reenact § 16.1-253.4 of the Code of Virginia as it is currently effective and as it may become effective, relating to protective orders.Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:*1. That § 16.1-253.4 of the Code of Virginia as it is currently effective and as it may become effective is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 16.1-253.4. (For effective date - See notes) Emergency protective orders authorized in cases of family abuse.

A. Any judge of a circuit court, general district court, juvenile and domestic relations district court or magistrate may issue a written or oral ex parte emergency protective order pursuant to this section in order to protect the health or safety of any person. If such person is comatose or incapacitated, the petition may be filed by a law-enforcement officer.

B. When a law-enforcement officer or an allegedly abused person asserts under oath to a judge or magistrate, and on that assertion or other evidence the judge or magistrate finds that (i) a warrant for a violation of § 18.2-57.2 has been issued and there is probable danger of further acts of family abuse against a family or household member by the respondent or (ii) reasonable grounds exist to believe that the respondent has committed family abuse and there is probable danger of a further such offense against a family or household member by the respondent, the judge or magistrate shall issue an ex parte emergency protective order imposing one or more of the following conditions on the respondent:

1. Prohibiting acts of family abuse;

2. Prohibiting such contacts by the respondent with family or household members of the respondent as the judge or magistrate deems necessary to protect the safety of such persons; and

3. Granting the family or household member possession of the premises occupied by the parties to the exclusion of the respondent; however, no such grant of possession shall affect title to any real or personal property.

C. An emergency protective order issued pursuant to this section shall expire at 5 p.m. on the next business day that the juvenile and domestic relations court is in session or seventy-two hours after issuance, whichever is later. The respondent may at any time file a motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve or modify the order. The hearing on the motion shall be given precedence on the docket of the court.

D. A law-enforcement officer may request an emergency protective order pursuant to this section orally, in person or by electronic means, and the judge of a circuit court, general district court, or juvenile and domestic relations district court or a magistrate may issue an oral emergency protective order. An oral emergency protective order issued pursuant to this section shall be reduced to writing, by the law-enforcement officer requesting the order or the magistrate on a preprinted form approved and provided by the Supreme Court of Virginia. The completed form shall include a statement of the grounds for the order asserted by the officer or the allegedly abused person.

E. As soon as practicable after receipt of the order by a local law-enforcement agency for service, the agency shall enter the name of the person subject to the order and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia crime information network system established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52. A copy of an emergency protective order issued pursuant to this section shall be served upon the respondent as soon as possible, and upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and time of service into the Virginia crime information network system. One copy of the order shall be given to the allegedly abused person when it is issued, and one copy shall be filed with the written report required by § 19.2-81.3 C. The original copy shall be forwarded for verification to the judge or magistrate who issued the order and then filed with the clerk of the juvenile and domestic relations district court within five business days of the issuance of the order. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be attested, forwarded and entered in the system as described above. Upon request, the clerk shall provide the allegedly abused person with information regarding the date and time of service.

F. The availability of an emergency protective order shall not be affected by the fact that the family or household member left the premises to avoid the danger of family abuse by the respondent.

G. The issuance of an emergency protective order shall not be considered evidence of any wrongdoing by the respondent.

HOUSE
SUBSTITUTE

HB291H1

60 H. As used in this section, a "law-enforcement officer" means any full-time or part-time employee of
61 a police department or sheriff's office which is part of or administered by the Commonwealth or any
62 political subdivision thereof and who is responsible for the prevention and detection of crime and the
63 enforcement of the penal, traffic or highway laws of the Commonwealth. Part-time employees are
64 compensated officers who are not full-time employees as defined by the employing police department or
65 sheriff's office.

66 § 16.1-253.4. (Delayed effective date - See notes) Emergency protective orders authorized in certain 67 cases; penalty.

68 A. Any judge of a circuit court, general district court, family court or magistrate may issue a written 69 or oral ex parte emergency protective order pursuant to this section in order to protect the health or 70 safety of any person. If such person is comatose or incapacitated, the petition may be filed by a
71 law-enforcement officer.

72 B. When a law-enforcement officer or an allegedly abused person asserts under oath to a judge or 73 magistrate, and on that assertion or other evidence the judge or magistrate finds that (i) a warrant for a
74 violation of § 18.2-57.2 has been issued and there is probable danger of further acts of family abuse
75 against a family or household member by the respondent or (ii) reasonable grounds exist to believe that
76 the respondent has committed family abuse and there is probable danger of a further such offense
77 against a family or household member by the respondent, the judge or magistrate may issue an ex parte
78 emergency protective order imposing one or more of the following conditions on the respondent:

79 1. Prohibiting acts of family abuse;

80 2. Prohibiting such contacts by the respondent with family or household members as the judge or 81 magistrate deems necessary to protect the safety of such persons; and

82 3. Granting the family or household member possession of the premises occupied by the parties to 83 the exclusion of the respondent; however, no such grant of possession shall affect title to any real or 84 personal property.

85 C. An emergency protective order issued pursuant to this section shall expire at 5 p.m. on the next
86 business day that the family court sits in the jurisdiction or seventy-two hours after issuance, whichever
87 is later. The respondent may at any time file a motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve or 88 modify the order. The hearing on the motion shall be given precedence on the docket of the court.

89 D. A law-enforcement officer may request an emergency protective order pursuant to this section
90 orally, in person or by electronic means, and the judge of a circuit court, general district court, or family
91 court or a magistrate may issue an oral emergency protective order. An oral emergency protective order
92 issued pursuant to this section shall be reduced to writing, by the law-enforcement officer requesting the 93 order or by the magistrate, on a preprinted form approved and provided by the Supreme Court of 94 Virginia. The completed form shall include a statement of the grounds for the order asserted by the 95 officer or the allegedly abused person.

96 E. As soon as practicable after receipt of the order by a local law-enforcement agency for service,
97 the agency shall enter the name of the person subject to the order and other appropriate information
98 required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia crime information network system
99 established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52. A 100 copy of an emergency protective order issued pursuant to this section shall be served upon the 101 respondent as soon as possible, and upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and 102 time of service, into the Virginia crime information network system. One copy of the order shall be 103 given to the allegedly abused person when it is issued, and one copy shall be filed with the written 104 report required by § 19.2-81.3 C. The original copy shall be forwarded for verification to the judge or 105 magistrate who issued the order and then filed with the clerk of the family court within five business
106 days of the issuance of the order. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or 107 modification order shall also be attested, forwarded and entered in the system as described above. Upon 108 request, the clerk shall provide the allegedly abused person with information regarding the date and time
109 of service.

110 F. The availability of an emergency protective order shall not be affected by the fact that the family
111 or household member left the premises to avoid the danger of family abuse by the respondent.

112 G. The issuance of an emergency protective order shall not be considered evidence of any 113 wrongdoing by the respondent.

114 H. As used in this section, a "law-enforcement officer" means any full-time or part-time employee of
115 a police department or sheriff's office which is part of or administered by the Commonwealth or any
116 political subdivision thereof and who is responsible for the prevention and detection of crime and the
117 enforcement of the penal, traffic or highway laws of the Commonwealth. Part-time employees are
118 compensated officers who are not full-time employees as defined by the employing police department or 119 sheriff's office.
