6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That § 59.1-148.3 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 59.1-148.3. Purchase of handguns of certain officers.

9 A. The Department of State Police, the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries, the Department of 10 Alcoholic Beverage Control, the Marine Resources Commission, the Capitol Police, any sheriff, and any 11 local police department may allow any full-time sworn law-enforcement officer or deputy, a local 12 fire-department may allow any full-time sworn fire marshal, the Department of Motor Vehicles may 13 allow any law-enforcement officer, and any institution of higher learning named in § 23-14 may allow 14 any campus police officer appointed pursuant to Chapter 17 (§ 23-232 et seq.) of Title 23, retiring on or 15 after July 1, 1991, who retires after at least twenty years of service or as a result of a service-incurred
16 disability to purchase the service handgun issued to him by the agency or institution at a price of one 17 dollar for the weapon.

18 B. The agencies listed above may allow any full-time sworn law-enforcement officer who retires with 19 ten or more years of service, but less than twenty, to purchase the service handgun issued to him by the 20 agency at a price equivalent to the weapon's fair market value on the date of the officer's retirement.
21 Any full-time sworn law-enforcement officer employed by any of the agencies listed above who is 22 retired for disability as a result of a nonservice-incurred disability may purchase the service handgun 23 issued to him by the agency at a price equivalent to the weapon's fair market value on the date of the 24 officer's retirement. Determinations of fair market value may be made by reference to a recognized 25 pricing guide.

26 C. The agencies listed above may allow the immediate survivor of any full-time sworn 27 law-enforcement officer (i) who is killed in the line of duty or (ii) who dies in service and has at least 28 twenty years of service to purchase the service handgun issued to the officer by the agency at a price of 29 one dollar for the weapon.

30 D. The governing board of any institution of higher learning named in § 23-14 may allow any 31 campus police officer appointed pursuant to Chapter 17 (§ 23-232 et seq.) of Title 23 who retires on or 32 after July 1, 1991, to purchase the service handgun issued to him at a price equivalent to the weapon's 33 fair market value on the date of the officer's retirement. Determinations of fair market value may be 34 made by reference to a recognized pricing guide.

35 E. The Department of State Police may allow any full-time sworn state police law-enforcement 36 officer who retires as a result of a service-incurred disability and who was on disability leave at the time
37 the Department issued 10-mm semiautomatic handguns to its officers to purchase one of the 10-mm
38 semiautomatic handguns used by the Department of State Police at a price of one dollar.

39 F. The Department of State Police may allow any officer who at the time of his retirement was a 40 full-time sworn law-enforcement officer and who retires after twenty years of state service, even if a 41 portion of his service was with another state agency, to purchase the service handgun issued to him by 42 the Department at a price of one dollar for the weapon.
