6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 24.2-112 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 24.2-112. Assistants to general registrars; employees.

9 The electoral board shall determine the number and set the term for assistant registrars; however,
10 their terms shall not extend beyond the term set by law of the incumbent general registrar. The general
11 registrar shall establish the duties of assistant registrars, appoint assistant registrars, and have authority to 12 remove any assistant registrar who fails to discharge the duties of his office.

13 In any county or city whose population is more than 28,600 but less than 29,000, there shall be at 14 least one full-time assistant registrar who shall serve in the office of the general registrar.

15 In any county or city whose population is over 15,500, there shall be at least one assistant registrar
16 who shall serve at least one day each week in the office of the general registrar.

17 Any county or city whose population is 15,500 or less shall have at least one substitute registrar who
18 is able to take over the duties of the general registrar in an emergency and who shall assist the general
19 registrar when he requests.

20 All assistant registrars shall have the same limitations and qualifications and fulfill the same
21 requirements as the general registrar except that an assistant registrar may be an officer of election.
22 Assistant registrars who agree to serve without pay shall be supervised and trained by the general
23 registrar.

24 All other employees shall be employed by the general registrar. The general registrar may hire
25 additional temporary employees on a part-time basis as needed.

26 The compensation of any assistant registrar, other than those who agree to serve without pay, or any
27 other employee of the general registrar shall be fixed and paid by the local governing body and shall be
28 the equivalent of or exceed the minimum hourly wage established by federal law in 29 U.S.C. § 206 (a)
29 (1), as amended.

30 The general registrar shall not appoint to the office of paid assistant registrar his spouse or any
31 person, or the spouse of any person, who is his parent, grandparent, sibling, child, or grandchild.
