§ 2. Unless Mrs. Russell returns to a position as a psychiatric nurse, she will be entitled to continue receiving her Virginia Retirement System disability retirement benefits. In the event Mrs. Russell returns to a position as a psychiatric nurse, her Virginia Retirement System disability retirement benefits will cease at that time. If Mrs. Russell subsequently retires, she will be entitled to the reinstatement of her Virginia Retirement System disability retirement benefits if it is determined by the majority of a panel of three physicians that she retired from the position as a psychiatric nurse as a result of the same disability for which she originally received disability retirement benefits. The panel shall consist of one physician selected by the Virginia Retirement System Medical Board, one physician selected by Mrs. Russell, and one physician designated by the two selected physicians.
