6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 8.01-44.5 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 8.01-44.5. Exemplary damages for persons injured by intoxicated drivers.

9 In any action for personal injury or death arising from the operation of a motor vehicle, engine or 10 train, the finder of fact may, in its discretion, award exemplary damages to the plaintiff if the evidence 11 proves that the defendant acted with malice toward the plaintiff or the defendant's conduct was so 12 willful or wanton as to show a conscious disregard for the rights of others.

13 A defendant's conduct shall be deemed sufficiently willful or wanton as to show a conscious 14 disregard for the rights of others when the evidence proves that (i) when the incident causing the injury
15 or death occurred, the defendant had a blood alcohol concentration of 0.15 percent or more by weight 16 by volume or 0.15 grams or more per 210 liters of breath; (ii) at the time the defendant began, or 17 during the time he was, drinking alcohol, he knew that he was going to operate a motor vehicle, engine 18 or train; and (iii) the defendant's intoxication was a proximate cause of the injury to or death of the 19 plaintiff.

20 However, when a defendant has unreasonably refused to submit to a test of his blood alcohol content 21 as required by § 18.2-268.2, a defendant's conduct shall be deemed sufficiently willful or wanton as to 22 show a conscious disregard for the rights of others when the evidence proves that (i) when the incident 23 causing the injury or death occurred the defendant was intoxicated, which may be established by 24 evidence concerning the conduct or condition of the defendant; (ii) at the time the defendant began, or 25 during the time he was, drinking alcohol, he knew that he was going to operate a motor vehicle; and 26 (iii) the defendant's intoxication was a proximate cause of the injury to the plaintiff or death of the 27 plaintiff's decedent. A certified copy of a court's determination of unreasonable refusal pursuant to 28 § 18.2-268.3 shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant unreasonably refused to submit to the test.
