6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 16.1-277.1 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 16.1-277.1. Time limitation.

9 A. When a child is held continuously in secure detention, he shall be released from confinement if 10 there is no adjudicatory or transfer hearing conducted by the court for the matters upon which he was 11 detained within twenty-one days from the date he was first detained.

12 B. If a child is not held in secure detention or is released from same after having been confined, an 13 adjudicatory or transfer hearing on the matters charged in the petition or petitions issued against him
14 shall be conducted within 120 days from the date the petition or petitions are filed.

15 C. When a child is held in secure detention after the completion of his adjudicatory hearing or is 16 detained when the juvenile court has retained jurisdiction as a result of a transfer hearing, he shall be
17 released from such detention if the disposition hearing is not completed within thirty days from the date
18 of the adjudicatory or transfer hearing.

19 D. The time limitations provided for in this section shall be tolled during any period in which (i) the 20 whereabouts of the child are unknown, (ii) the child has escaped from custody, or (iii) the child has 21 failed to appear pursuant to a court order. The limitations also may be extended by the court for a 22 reasonable period of time based upon good cause shown, provided that the basis for such extension is 23 recorded in writing and filed among the papers of the proceedings.
