SENATE BILL NO. 1148
AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE
 (Proposed by the House Committee for Courts of Justice
 on February 19, 1999)
 (Patron Prior to Substitute—Senator Saslaw)

A BILL to amend and reenact § 34-34 of the Code of Virginia, relating to homestead exemptions; retirement benefit exemptions; individual retirement accounts.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 34-34 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 34-34. Certain retirement benefits exempt.

A. For the purposes of this section:

"Alternate payee" shall have the same meaning as provided under § 206 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). In the case of a retirement plan that is not subject to ERISA, the term "alternate payee" means an individual who has an interest in a retirement plan pursuant to a judgment, decree, or order, including approval of a property settlement agreement, that would be described in § 206 (d) (3) (B) of ERISA if the retirement plan were subject to ERISA.

"Annual benefit" means an amount payable as an annuity for the lifetime of the individual who claims the exemption provided under this section, assuming that annuity payments will commence upon the individual's attainment of age sixty-five or, if the individual attained age sixty-five on or before the exemption provided under this section is claimed, the individual's age on the date that the exemption is claimed.

"Retirement plan" means a plan, account, or arrangement that is intended to satisfy the requirements of United States Internal Revenue Code §§ 401, 403 (a), 403 (b), 408, 408 A, 409 (as in effect prior to repeal by United States P.L. 98-369), or § 457. Whether a plan, account, or arrangement is intended to satisfy the requirements of one of the foregoing provisions shall be determined based on all of the relevant facts and circumstances including, but not limited to, the issuance of a favorable determination letter by the United States Internal Revenue Service, reports or returns filed with United States or state agencies, and communications from the plan sponsor to participants.

B. The interest of an individual under a retirement plan shall be exempt from creditor process to the extent provided under this section. The exemption provided by this section shall be available whether such individual has an interest in the retirement plan as a participant, beneficiary, contingent annuitant, alternate payee, or otherwise.

C. The exemption provided under subsection B shall not apply to the extent that the interest of the individual in the retirement plan would provide an annual benefit in excess of $17,500. If an individual has an interest in more than one retirement plan, the limitation of this subsection C shall be applied as if all such retirement plans constituted a single plan. The amount required to provide an annual benefit of $17,500 shall be determined under the following table:

234 For example, the amount required to provide an annual benefit of $17,500 to an individual who 235 attained age 60 at the time the exemption provided by this section is claimed is $89,512.50 ($17,500 236 times 5.1150).

237 D C. The exemption provided under subsection B shall not apply to amounts contributed to a
 238 retirement plan during the fiscal year of the retirement plan that includes the date on which the 239 individual claims the exemption and for the two preceding fiscal years of the retirement plan other than
 240 amounts that were exempt from creditor process immediately prior to being contributed to the retirement
 241 plan. The exemption provided under subsection B shall not apply to the earnings on contributions
 242 described in this subsection.

243 E D. The exemption provided under subsection B shall not apply to claims made against an 244 individual by the alternate payee of such individual or to claims made against such individual by the 245 Commonwealth in administrative actions pursuant to Chapter 13 (§ 63.1-249 et seq.) of Title 63.1 or any 246 court process to enforce a child or child and spousal support obligation.

247 F E. If two individuals who are married or were married are entitled to claim the exemption
 248 provided under subsection B of an interest under the same retirement plan or plans and such individuals
 249 are jointly subject to creditor process as to the same debt or obligation and the debt or obligation arose
 250 during the marriage, then the exemption provided under subsection B as to such debts or obligations
 251 shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the amount that would provide an annual benefit of $17,500. The 252 maximum amount that may be exempted shall be allocated among such persons in the same proportion
 253 as their respective interests in the retirement plan or plans.

254 G F. The exemption provided under this section must be claimed within the time limits prescribed by 255 § 34-17.
