Referred to Committee on Education

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:*1. That §§ 22.1-298 and 22.1-299 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 22.1-298. Regulations governing licensure.

A. The Board of Education shall, by regulation, prescribe the requirements for licensure of teachers. Regardless of the authority of any other agency of the Commonwealth to approve educational programs, only the Board of Education shall have the authority to license teachers to be regularly employed by school boards, including those teachers employed to provide nursing education.

B. Such regulations shall include a requirement that:

1. Every teacher seeking initial licensure take a professional teacher's examination prescribed by the Board;

2. Persons seeking licensure on and after July 1, 2000, complete study in attention deficit disorder and gifted education, including the use of multiple criteria to identify gifted students;

3. Persons seeking initial licensure on and after July 1, 2002, complete study in, among other things, (i) methods of improving communication between schools and families; (ii) ways of increasing family involvement in student learning at home and in school; and (iii) the Standards of Learning;

4. Persons seeking licensure with endorsements as teachers of the blind and visually impaired on and after July 1, 2000, demonstrate proficiency in reading and writing Braille;

5. Persons seeking initial licensure on and after July 1, 2003, complete study in instructional methods tailored to promote student academic progress and effective preparation for the Standards of Learning end-of-course and end-of-grade assessments;

6. Persons seeking licensure renewal on and after July 1, 2004, receive training in instructional methods tailored to promote student academic progress and effective preparation for the Standards of Learning end-of-course and end-of-grade assessments; and

7. On and after July 1, 2003, persons seeking initial licensure or license renewal as teachers demonstrate proficiency in the use of educational technology for instruction.

C. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Board may provide for the issuance of a provisional license, valid for a period not to exceed three years, to any person who does not meet the requirements of this section or any other requirement for licensure imposed by law.

CI. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Board shall provide for the issuance of a restricted teaching license to an individual who (i) has not completed a teacher education program and (ii) holds a master's degree or its equivalent in the subject area in which he seeks licensure and endorsement. Such individuals shall not be required to take professional teacher examinations in disciplines other than such the subject area of endorsement. Such restricted license shall only be valid for instructional positions in the relevant area of endorsement.

D. The Board's licensure regulations shall also require that licensure for superintendents and principals, on and after July 1, 2000, be contingent upon acquiring the skills established in the Board's leadership standards.

E. Persons seeking initial licensure who graduate from Virginia institutions of higher education shall, on and after July 1, 2002, only be licensed as instructional personnel by the Board of Education if the endorsement areas offered at such institutions have been assessed by a national accrediting agency or by a state approval process, with final accreditation by the Board of Education.

F. The Board shall prescribe a professional teacher's examination for administration by Virginia's public institutions of higher education as provided in § 23-9.2:3.4 to persons seeking entry into teacher education programs in such public institutions and shall establish a minimum passing score for such examination. The examination shall be sufficiently rigorous and the minimum score set as necessary to ensure that candidates have adequate academic and professional preparation to teach.

Candidates who fail to achieve the minimum score established by the Board shall not be denied entrance into the relevant teacher education programs solely on the basis of such failure and shall have the opportunity to address any deficiencies if enrolled in such program. Before completing any approved

59 teacher education program, candidates must achieve the minimum score on the test prescribed by the 60 Board.

61 The Board of Education, in consultation with the State Council of Higher Education, shall develop
62 guidelines for performance reports to be submitted by the public institutions of higher education
63 pursuant to § 23-9.2:3.4. Such reports shall include annual data on the pass rates, by institution, of 64 graduates of Virginia's institutions of higher education taking the state licensure examination and shall
65 not include any information identifying individual graduates.

66 G. The Board's licensure regulations shall also provide for licensure by reciprocity with comparable
67 endorsement areas for those individuals holding a valid out-of-state teaching license and national
68 certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards or a nationally recognized
69 certification program approved by the Board of Education. The application for such individuals shall
70 require evidence of such valid licensure and national certification and shall not require official student
71 transcripts.

72 H. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section and the Board's authority to license teachers, local 73 school boards shall be authorized to issue valid three-year local eligibility licenses pursuant to 74 § 22.1-299.3.

75 I. Upon the expiration of a three-year local eligibility license, the holder of such license shall be
76 eligible, as appropriate for the degree issued to such person, for a collegiate professional license or a
77 postgraduate professional license to be issued by the Department of Education upon satisfaction of the 78 following conditions: (i) recommendation by the division superintendent and the school board for such
79 licensure; (ii) the completion of three successful years of teaching experience while holding a valid
80 three-year local eligibility license as certified by the division superintendent and school board; (iii)
81 achieving a satisfactory score on the professional teacher's examinations required by the Board; and (iv)
82 such standards as may be prescribed by the Board of Education.

83 § 22.1-299. License required of teachers.

84 No teacher shall be regularly employed by a school board or paid from public funds unless such
85 teacher holds a license or a provisional or restricted license issued by the Board of Education or a
86 three-year local eligibility license issued by a local school board pursuant to § 22.1-299.3. In accordance 87 with regulations prescribed by the Board, a person not meeting the requirements for a license or a
88 provisional or restricted license may be employed and paid from public funds by a school board
89 temporarily as a substitute teacher to meet an emergency.
