2 An Act to amend and reenact § 19.2-163 of the Code of Virginia, relating to compensation of 3 court-appointed counsel.

4 [H 2683]

5 Approved

6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 19.2-163 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 19.2-163. Compensation of court-appointed counsel.

9 Counsel appointed to represent an indigent accused in a criminal case shall be compensated for his 10 services in an amount fixed by each of the courts in which he appears according to the time and effort 11 expended by him in the particular case, not to exceed the amounts specified in the following schedule:

12 1. In a district court, a sum not to exceed $120 or such other amount as may be provided by law;
 13 such amount shall be allowed in any case wherein counsel conducts the defense of a single charge
 14 against the indigent through to its conclusion or a charge of violation of probation at any hearing 15 conducted under § 19.2-306, without a requirement for accounting of time devoted thereto; thereafter, 16 compensation for additional charges against the same accused also conducted by the same counsel shall 17 be allowed on the basis of additional time expended as to such additional charges;

18 2. In a circuit court (i) to defend a felony charge that may be punishable by death an amount 19 deemed reasonable by the court; (ii) to defend a felony charge that may be punishable by confinement 20 in the state correctional facility for a period of more than twenty years, or a charge of violation of 21 probation for such offense, a sum not to exceed $1,235; (iii) to defend any other felony charge, or a 22 charge of violation of probation for such offense, a sum not to exceed $445; and (iv) to defend any 23 misdemeanor charge punishable by confinement in jail or a charge of violation of probation for such 24 offense, a sum not to exceed $158. In the event any case is required to be retried due to a mistrial for 25 any cause or reversed on appeal, the court may allow an additional fee for each case in an amount not 26 to exceed the amounts allowable in the initial trial. In the event counsel is appointed to defend an 27 indigent charged with a felony that may be punishable by death, such counsel shall continue to receive 28 compensation as provided in this paragraph for defending such a felony, regardless of whether the 29 charge is reduced or amended to a felony that may not be punishable by death, prior to final disposition 30 of the case. In the event counsel is appointed to defend an indigent charged with any other felony, such 31 counsel shall receive compensation as provided in this paragraph for defending such a felony, 32 regardless of whether the charge is reduced or amended to a misdemeanor or lesser felony prior to 33 final disposition of the case in either the district court or circuit court.

34 The circuit or district court shall direct the payment of such reasonable expenses incurred by such 35 court-appointed ~~attorney~~, counsel as it deems appropriate under the circumstances of the case. Counsel 36 appointed by the court to represent an indigent charged with repeated violations of the same section of 37 the Code of Virginia, with each of such violations arising out of the same incident, occurrence, or 38 transaction, shall be compensated in an amount not to exceed the fee prescribed for the defense of a 39 single charge, if such offenses are tried as part of the same judicial proceeding. The trial judge shall 40 consider any guidelines established by the Supreme Court but shall have the sole discretion to fix the 41 amount of compensation to be paid counsel appointed by the court to defend a felony charge that may 42 be punishable by death.

43 The circuit or district court shall direct that the foregoing payments shall be paid out by the 44 Commonwealth, if the defendant is charged with a violation of a statute, or by the county, city or town, 45 if the defendant is charged with a violation of a county, city or town ordinance, to the attorney so 46 appointed to defend such person as compensation for such defense.

47 Counsel representing a defendant charged with a Class 1 felony may submit to the court, on a 48 monthly basis, a statement of all costs incurred and fees charged by him in the case during that month.
 49 Whenever the total charges as are deemed reasonable by the court for which payment has not previously 50 been made or requested exceed $1,000, the court may direct that payment be made as otherwise 51 provided in this section.

52 When such directive is entered upon the order book of the court, the Commonwealth, county, city or 53 town, as the case may be, shall provide for the payment out of its treasury of the sum of money so 54 specified. If the defendant is convicted, the amount allowed by the court to the attorney appointed to 55 defend him shall be taxed against the defendant as a part of the costs of prosecution and, if collected, 56 the same shall be paid to the Commonwealth, or the county, city or town, as the case may be. An

57 abstract of such costs shall be docketed in the judgment docket and execution lien book maintained by 58 such court.

59 Any statement submitted by an attorney for payments due him for indigent representation or for 60 representation of a child pursuant to § 16.1-266 shall, after the submission of the statement, be 61 forwarded forthwith by the clerk to the Commonwealth, county, city or town, as the case may be, 62 responsible for payment.

63 For the purposes of this section, the defense of a case may be considered conducted through to its 64 conclusion and an appointed counsel entitled to compensation for his services in the event an indigent 65 accused fails to appear in court subject to a capias for his arrest or a show cause summons for his 66 failure to appear and remains a fugitive from justice for one year following the issuance of the capias or 67 the summons to show cause, and appointed counsel has appeared at a hearing on behalf of the accused.
