2. After a cause of action accrues,

b. If a person entitled to bring such action becomes incapacitated, the time during which he is incapacitated shall not be computed as any part of the period within which the action must be brought, except where a conservator, guardian or committee is appointed for such person in which case an action may be commenced by such conservator, committee or guardian before the expiration of the applicable period of limitation or within one year after his qualification as such, whichever occurs later.

57 B. Effect of death of a party. - The death of a person entitled to bring an action or of a person 58 against whom an action may be brought shall toll the statute of limitations as follows:

59 1. Death of person entitled to bring a personal action. - If a person entitled to bring a personal action 60 dies with no such action pending before the expiration of the limitation period for commencement 61 thereof, then an action may be commenced by the decedent's personal representative before the 62 expiration of the limitation period including the limitation period as provided by subdivision E 3 or 63 within one year after his qualification as personal representative, whichever occurs later.

64 2. Death of person against whom personal action may be brought. - a. If a person against whom a 65 personal action may be brought dies before the commencement of such action and before the expiration 66 of the limitation period for commencement thereof then a claim may be filed against the decedent's 67 estate or an action may be commenced against the decedent's personal representative before the 68 expiration of the applicable limitation period or within one year after the qualification of such personal 69 representative, whichever occurs later.

70 b. If a person against whom a personal action may be brought dies before suit papers naming such 71 person as defendant have been filed with the court, then such suit papers may be amended to substitute 72 the decedent's personal representative as party defendant before the expiration of the applicable 73 limitation period or within two years after the date such suit papers were filed with the court, whichever 74 occurs later, and such suit papers shall be taken as properly filed.

75 3. Effect of death on actions for recovery of realty, or a proceeding for enforcement of certain liens 76 relating to realty. - Upon the death of any person in whose favor or against whom an action for 77 recovery of realty, or a proceeding for enforcement of certain liens relating to realty, may be brought, 78 such right of action shall accrue to or against his successors in interest as provided in Article 2 79 (§ 8.01-236 et seq.) of this chapter.

80 4. Accrual of a personal cause of action against the estate of any person subsequent to such person's 81 death. - If a personal cause of action against a decedent accrues subsequent to his death, an action may 82 be brought against the decedent's personal representative or a claim thereon may be filed against the 83 estate of such decedent before the expiration of the applicable limitation period or within two years after 84 the qualification of the decedent's personal representative, whichever occurs later.

85 5. Accrual of a personal cause of action in favor of decedent. - If a person dies before a personal 86 cause of action which survives would have accrued to him, if he had continued to live, then an action 87 may be commenced by such decedent's personal representative before the expiration of the applicable 88 limitation period or within one year after the qualification of such personal representative, whichever 89 occurs later.

90 6. Delayed qualification of personal representative. - If there is an interval of more than two years 91 between the death of any person in whose favor or against whom a cause of action has accrued or shall 92 subsequently accrue and the qualification of such person's personal representative, such personal 93 representative shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be deemed to have qualified on the last day of such 94 two-year period.

95 C. Suspension during injunctions. - When the commencement of any action is stayed by injunction, 96 the time of the continuance of the injunction shall not be computed as any part of the period within 97 which the action must be brought.

98 D. Obstruction of filing by defendant. - When the filing of an action is obstructed by a defendant's 99 (i) filing a petition in bankruptcy or filing a petition for an extension or arrangement under the United 100 States Bankruptcy Act or (ii) using any other direct or indirect means to obstruct the filing of an action, 101 then the time that such obstruction has continued shall not be counted as any part of the period within 102 which the action must be brought.

103 E. Dismissal, abatement, or nonsuit.

104 1. Except as provided in subdivision 3 of this subsection, if any action is commenced within the 105 prescribed limitation period and for any cause abates or is dismissed without determining the merits, the 106 time such action is pending shall not be computed as part of the period within which such action may 107 be brought, and another action may be brought within the remaining period.

108 2. If a judgment or decree is rendered for the plaintiff in any action commenced within the 109 prescribed limitation period and such judgment or decree is arrested or reversed upon a ground which 110 does not preclude a new action for the same cause, or if there is occasion to bring a new action by 111 reason of the loss or destruction of any of the papers or records in a former action which was 112 commenced within the prescribed limitation period, then a new action may be brought within one year 113 after such arrest or reversal or such loss or destruction, but not after.

114 3. If a plaintiff suffers a voluntary nonsuit as prescribed in § 8.01-380, the statute of limitations with 115 respect to such action shall be tolled by the commencement of the nonsuited action, and the plaintiff 116 may recommence his action within six months from the date of the order entered by the court, or within 117 the original period of limitation, or within the limitation period as provided by subdivision B 1,

118 whichever period is longer. This tolling provision shall apply irrespective of whether the action is 119 originally filed in a federal or a state court and recommenced in any other court, and shall apply to all 120 actions irrespective of whether they arise under common law or statute.

121 F. Effect of devise for payment of debts. - No provision in the will of any testator devising his real 122 estate, or any part thereof, subject to the payment of his debts or charging the same therewith, or 123 containing any other provision for the payment of debts, shall prevent this chapter from operating 124 against such debts, unless it plainly appears to be the testator's intent that it shall not so operate.

125 G. Effect of new promise in writing.

126 1. If any person against whom a right of action has accrued on any contract, other than a judgment 127 or recognizance, promises, by writing signed by him or his agent, payment of money on such contract, 128 the person to whom the right has accrued may maintain an action for the money so promised, within 129 such number of years after such promise as it might be maintained if such promise were the original 130 cause of action. An acknowledgment in writing, from which a promise of payment may be implied, 131 shall be deemed to be such promise within the meaning of this subsection.

132 2. The plaintiff may sue on the new promise described in subdivision 1 of this subsection or on the 133 original cause of action, except that when the new promise is of such a nature as to merge the original 134 cause of action then the action shall be only on the new promise.

135 H. Suspension of limitations in creditors' suits. - When an action is commenced as a general 136 creditors' action, or as a general lien creditors' action, or as an action to enforce a mechanics' lien, the 137 running of the statute of limitations shall be suspended as to debts provable in such action from the 138 commencement of the action, provided they are brought in before the commissioner in chancery under 139 the first reference for an account of debts; but as to claims not so brought in the statute shall continue 140 to run, without interruption by reason either of the commencement of the action or of the order for an 141 account, until a later order for an account, under which they do come in, or they are asserted by petition 142 or independent action.

143 In actions not instituted originally either as general creditors' actions, or as general lien creditors' 144 actions, but which become such by subsequent proceedings, the statute of limitations shall be suspended 145 by an order of reference for an account of debts or of liens only as to those creditors who come in and 146 prove their claims under the order. As to creditors who come in afterwards by petition or under an order 147 of recommittal, or a later order of reference for an account, the statute shall continue to run without 148 interruption by reason of previous orders until filing of the petition, or until the date of the reference 149 under which they prove their claims, as the case may be.

150 I. When an action is commenced within a period of thirty days prior to the expiration of the 151 limitation period for commencement thereof and the defending party or parties desire to institute an 152 action as third-party plaintiff against one or more persons not party to the original action, the running of 153 the period of limitation against such action shall be suspended as to such new party for a period of sixty 154 days from the expiration of the applicable limitation period.

155 J. If any award of compensation by the Workers' Compensation Commission pursuant to Chapter 5 156 (§ 65.2-500 et seq.) of Title 65.2 is subsequently found void ab initio, other than an award voided for 157 fraudulent procurement of the award by the claimant, the statute of limitations applicable to any civil 158 action upon the same claim or cause of action in a court of this Commonwealth shall be tolled for that 159 period of time during which compensation payments were made.

160 K. Suspension of limitations during criminal proceedings. In any personal action for damages, if a 161 criminal prosecution arising out of the same facts is commenced, the time such prosecution is pending 162 shall not be computed as part of the period within which such a civil action may be brought. For 163 purposes of this subsection, the time during which a prosecution is pending shall be calculated from the 164 date of the issuance of a warrant, summons or capias, the return or filing of an indictment or 165 information, or the defendant's first appearance in any court as an accused in such a prosecution, 166 whichever date occurs first, until the date of the final judgment or order in the trial court, the date of 167 the final disposition of any direct appeal in state court, or the date on which the time for noting an 168 appeal has expired, whichever date occurs last. Thereafter, the civil action may be brought within the 169 remaining period of the statute or within one year, whichever is longer.

170 If a criminal prosecution is commenced and a grand jury indictment is returned or a grand jury 171 indictment is waived after the period within which a civil action arising out of the same set of facts may 172 be brought, a civil action may be brought within one year of the date of the final judgment or order in 173 the trial court, the date of the final disposition of any direct appeal in state court, or the date on which 174 the time for noting an appeal has expired, whichever date occurs last, but no more than ten years after 175 the date of the crime or two years after the cause of action shall have accrued under § 8.01-249, 176 whichever date occurs last.

177 L. Suspension of limitations for torts arising during the course of marriage. If a married person is 178 entitled to bring any personal action against his spouse for damages incurred during the marriage as a

179 result of any intentional physical tort, the time during which the married couple cohabits shall not be 180 counted as any part of the period within which the action must be brought.

482 time. These conditions shall include any one or more of the following:

 496 child, the petitioner must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that such person's probable future 497 conduct would constitute a danger to the life or health of such child, and that there are no less drastic 498 alternatives which could reasonably and adequately protect the child's life or health pending a final 499 determination on the petition.

500 B. A preliminary protective order may be issued ex parte upon motion of any person or the court's 501 own motion in any matter before the court, or upon petition. The motion or petition shall be supported 502 by an affidavit or by sworn testimony in person before the judge or intake officer which establishes that 503 the child would be subjected to an imminent threat to life or health to the extent that delay for the 504 provision of an adversary hearing would be likely to result in serious or irremediable injury to the 505 child's life or health. If an ex parte order is issued without an affidavit being presented, the court, in its 506 order, shall state the basis upon which the order was entered, including a summary of the allegations 507 made and the court's findings. Following the issuance of an ex parte order the court shall provide an 508 adversary hearing to the affected parties within the shortest practicable time not to exceed five business 509 days after the issuance of the order.

510 C. Prior to the hearing required by this section, notice of the hearing shall be given at least 511 twenty-four hours in advance of the hearing to the guardian ad litem for the child, to the parents, 512 guardian, legal custodian, or other person standing in loco parentis of the child, to any other family or 514 she is twelve years of age or older. The notice provided herein shall include (i) the time, date and place 515 for the hearing and (ii) a specific statement of the factual circumstances which allegedly necessitate the 516 issuance of a preliminary protective order.

517 D. All parties to the hearing shall be informed of their right to counsel pursuant to § 16.1-266.

518 E. At the hearing the child, his or her parents, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in 519 loco parentis and any other family or household member of the child to whom notice was given shall 520 have the right to confront and cross-examine all adverse witnesses and evidence and to present evidence 521 on their own behalf.

522 F. If a petition alleging abuse or neglect of a child has been filed, at the hearing pursuant to this 523 section the court shall determine whether the allegations of abuse or neglect have been proven by a 524 preponderance of the evidence. Any finding of abuse or neglect shall be stated in the court order.
 525 However, if, before such a finding is made, a person responsible for the care and custody of the child, 526 the child's guardian ad litem or the local department of social services objects to a finding being made 527 at the hearing, the court shall schedule an adjudicatory hearing to be held within thirty days of the date 528 of the initial preliminary protective order hearing. The adjudicatory hearing shall be held to determine 529 whether the allegations of abuse and neglect have been proven by a preponderance of the evidence.
 530 Parties who are present at the hearing shall be given notice of the date set for the adjudicatory hearing
 531 and parties who are not present shall be summoned as provided in § 16.1-263. The adjudicatory hearing 532 shall be held and an order may be entered, although a party to the hearing fails to appear and is not 533 represented by counsel, provided personal or substituted service was made on the person, or the court 534 determines that such person cannot be found, after reasonable effort, or in the case of a person who is 535 without the Commonwealth, the person cannot be found or his post office address cannot be ascertained 536 after reasonable effort.

537 Any preliminary protective order issued shall remain in full force and effect pending the adjudicatory 538 hearing.

539 G. If at the preliminary protective order hearing held pursuant to this section the court makes a 540 finding of abuse or neglect and a preliminary protective order is issued, a dispositional hearing shall be 541 held pursuant to § 16.1-278.2. Upon receipt of the order by a local law-enforcement agency for service, 542 the agency shall enter the name of the person subject to the order and other appropriate information
 543 required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network established 544 and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52. Where feasible
 545 and practical, the court may transfer information electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information 546 Network. A copy of a preliminary protective order shall be served as soon as possible on the allegedly 547 abusing person in person as provided in § 16.1-264, and upon service, the agency making service shall

548 enter the date and time of service into the Virginia Criminal Information Network. The preliminary 549 order shall specify a date for the full hearing. The dispositional hearing shall be scheduled at the time 550 of the hearing pursuant to this section, and shall be held within seventy-five days of this hearing. If an 551 adjudicatory hearing is requested pursuant to subsection F, the dispositional hearing shall nonetheless be 552 scheduled at the hearing pursuant to this section. All parties present at the hearing shall be given notice 553 of the date and time scheduled for the dispositional hearing; parties who are not present shall be 554 summoned to appear as provided in § 16.1-263.

555 H. Nothing in this section enables the court to remove a child from the custody of his or her parents, 556 guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis, except as provided in § 16.1-278.2, 557 and no order hereunder shall be entered against a person over whom the court does not have 558 jurisdiction.

562 of time, subjected to family abuse, the court may issue a preliminary protective order against an 563 allegedly abusing person in order to protect the health and safety of the petitioner or any family or 564 household member of the petitioner. The order may be issued in an ex parte proceeding upon good 565 cause shown when the petition is supported by an affidavit or sworn testimony before the judge or 576 property.

578 alone or jointly owned by the parties to the exclusion of the allegedly abusing person; however, no such

584 information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia criminal information network 585 system established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 586 52. Where feasible and practical, the court may transfer information electronically to the Virginia 587 criminal information network system. A copy of a preliminary protective order shall be served as soon 588 as possible on the allegedly abusing person in person as provided in § 16.1-264, and upon service, the 589 agency making service shall enter the date and time of service into the Virginia criminal information 590 network system. The preliminary order shall specify a date for the full hearing. The hearing shall be 591 held within fifteen days of the issuance of the preliminary order. However, upon motion of the 592 respondent and for good cause shown, the court may continue the hearing. The preliminary order shall 593 remain in effect until the hearing. Upon request after the order is issued, the clerk shall provide the 594 petitioner with a copy of the order and information regarding the date and time of service. The order 595 shall further specify that either party may at any time file a motion with the court requesting a hearing 596 to dissolve or modify the order. The hearing on the motion shall be given precedence on the docket of 597 the court.

598 Upon receipt of the return of service or other proof of service pursuant to subsection C of

602 previously entered. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification 603 order shall also be attested, forwarded and entered in the Virginia criminal information network system 604 as described above.

605 C. The preliminary order is effective upon personal service on the allegedly abusing person. Except 606 as otherwise provided in § 16.1-253.2, a violation of the order shall constitute contempt of court.

607 D. At a full hearing on the petition, the court may issue a protective order pursuant to § 16.1-279.1 if 608 the court finds that the petitioner has proven the allegation of family abuse by a preponderance of the 609 evidence.

1076 modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be attested, forwarded and entered in 1077 the system as described above. Upon request, the clerk shall provide the allegedly stalked person with 1078 information regarding the date and time of service.

1094 the health and safety of the petitioner or any family or household member of the petitioner. The order 1095 may be issued in an ex parte proceeding upon good cause shown when the petition is supported by an 1096 affidavit or sworn testimony before the judge or intake officer. Immediate and present danger of stalking 1097 or evidence sufficient to establish probable cause that stalking has recently occurred shall constitute 1098 good cause.

1118 the order and information regarding the date and time of service. The order shall further specify that 1119 either party may at any time file a motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve or modify the

1121 Upon receipt of the return of service or other proof of service pursuant to subsection C of 1122 § 16.1-264, the clerk shall forward forthwith an attested copy of the preliminary protective order to the 1123 local police department or sheriff's office which shall, on the date of receipt, enter into the Virginia

1126 order shall also be attested, forwarded and entered into the Virginia criminal information network system 1127 as described above.

1129 otherwise provided in § 16.1-253.2, a violation of the order shall constitute contempt of court.

1130 D. At a full hearing on the petition, the court may issue a protective order pursuant to § 19.2-152.10 1131 if the court finds that the petitioner has proven the allegation of stalking by a preponderance of the 1132 evidence.

1133 E. No fees shall be charged for filing or serving petitions pursuant to this section.

1134 F. As used in this section, "copy" includes a facsimile copy.

1152 the Virginia criminal information network system established and maintained by the Department
1153 pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52. Where feasible and practical, the court may transfer 1154 information electronically to the Virginia criminal information network system. If the order is later 1155 dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be attested, forwarded 1156 and entered into the system as described above.

1157 C. Except as otherwise provided, a violation of a protective order issued under this section shall 1158 constitute contempt of court.

1160 of protection has been issued as a result of a full hearing.

1161 E. Any judgment, order or decree, whether permanent or temporary, issued by a court of appropriate 1162 jurisdiction in another state, the United States or any of its territories, possessions or Commonwealths,

1163 the District of Columbia or by any tribal court of appropriate jurisdiction for the purpose of preventing 1164 violent or threatening acts or harassment against or contact or communication with or physical proximity 1165 to another person, including any of the conditions specified in subsection A, shall be accorded full faith
1166 and credit and enforced in the Commonwealth as if it were an order of the Commonwealth, provided 1167 reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard were given by the issuing jurisdiction to the person 1168 against whom the order is sought to be enforced sufficient to protect such person's due process rights 1169 and consistent with federal law. A person entitled to protection under such a foreign order may file the 1170 order in any appropriate district court by filing with the court, an attested or exemplified copy of the 1171 order. Upon such a filing, the clerk shall forward forthwith an attested copy of the order to the local 1172 police department or sheriff's office which shall, on the date of receipt, enter the name of the person 1173 subject to the order and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into 1174 the Virginia criminal information network system established and maintained by the Department 1175 pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52.

1176 Upon inquiry by any law-enforcement agency of the Commonwealth, the clerk shall make a copy
1177 available of any foreign order filed with that court. A law-enforcement officer may, in the performance 1178 of his duties, rely upon a copy of a foreign protective order or other suitable evidence which has been 1179 provided to him by any source and may also rely upon the statement of any person protected by the 1180 order that the order remains in effect.

1181 F. Either party may at any time file a written motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve 1182 or modify the order. Proceedings to modify or dissolve a protective order shall be given precedence on 1183 the docket of the court.

1184 G. No fees shall be charged for filing or serving petitions pursuant to this section.

1185 H. As used in this section, "copy" includes a facsimile copy.

1186 § 19.2-305.1. Restitution for property damage or loss; community services.

1187 A. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person convicted of a crime in violation of any 1188 provision in Title 18.2, except the provisions of Article 2 (§ 18.2-266 et seq.) of Chapter 7 of Title 18.2, 1189 on or after July 1, 1977, which resulted in property damage or loss, shall be placed on probation or 1190 have his sentence suspended unless such person shall make at least partial restitution for such property 1191 damage or loss, or shall be compelled to perform community services, or both, or shall submit a plan 1192 for doing that which appears to the court to be feasible under the circumstances.

1193 A1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person who, on or after July 1, 1995, commits,
1194 and is convicted of, a crime in violation of any provision in Title 18.2 except the provisions of Article 2
1195 (§ 18.2-266 et seq.) of Chapter 7 of Title 18.2 shall make at least partial restitution for any property 1196 damage or loss caused by the crime or for actual medical expenses incurred by the victim as a result of 1200 restitution submitted by the defendant. The plan shall include the defendant's home address, place of 1201 employment and address, social security number and bank information. If the court finds such plan to be 1202 reasonable and practical under the circumstances, it may consider probation or suspension of whatever 1203 portion of the sentence that it deems appropriate. By order of the court incorporating the defendant's 1204 plan or a reasonable and practical plan devised by the court, the defendant shall make restitution while 1205 he is free on probation or work release or following his release from confinement. Additionally, the 1206 court may order that the defendant make restitution during his confinement, if feasible, based upon both 1207 his earning capacity and net worth as determined by the court at sentencing.

1208 C. At the time of sentencing, the court, ~~in its discretion,~~ shall determine the amount to be repaid by 1209 the defendant and the terms and conditions thereof. If community service work is ordered, the court 1210 shall determine the terms and conditions upon which such work shall be performed. The court shall 1211 include such findings in the judgment order. The order ~~may~~shall specify that sums paid under such 1212 order shall be paid to the clerk, who shall disburse such sums as the court may, by order, direct. Any 1213 court desiring to participate in the Setoff Debt Collection Act (§§ 58.1-520 through 58.1-535) for the 1214 purpose of collecting fines or costs or providing restitution shall, at the time of sentencing, obtain the 1215 social security number of each defendant.

1216 D. Unreasonable failure to execute the plan by the defendant shall result in revocation of the 1217 probation or imposition of the suspended sentence. A hearing shall be held in accordance with the 1218 provisions of this Code relating to revocation of probation or imposition of a suspended sentence before 1219 either such action is taken.

1220 E. If restitution is ordered to be paid by the defendant to the victim of a crime and the victim can no 1221 longer be located or identified, the clerk shall deposit any such restitution collected to the Criminal 1222 Injuries Compensation Fund for the benefit of crime victims. The administrator shall reserve a sum 1223 sufficient in the Fund from which he shall make prompt payment to the victim for any proper claims.
1224 Before making the deposit he shall record the name, last known address and amount of restitution due 1225 each victim appearing from the clerk's report to be entitled to restitution.

1226 § 19.2-387.1. Protective Order Registry; maintenance; access.

1227 A. The Department of State Police shall keep and maintain a Protective Order Registry. The purpose
1228 of the Registry shall be to assist the efforts of law-enforcement agencies to protect their communities
1229 and their citizens. The Department of State Police shall make Registry information available, upon 1230 request, to criminal justice agencies, including local law-enforcement agencies, through the Virginia 1231 Criminal Information Network (VCIN). Registry information provided under this section shall be used 1232 for the purposes of the administration of criminal justice and for the protection of the public in general.

1233 B. No liability shall be imposed upon any law-enforcement official who disseminates information or 1234 fails to disseminate information in good faith compliance with the requirements of this section, but this 1235 provision shall not be construed to grant immunity for gross negligence or willful misconduct.

1236 § 20-124.2. Court-ordered custody and visitation arrangements.

1237 A. In any case in which custody or visitation of minor children is at issue, whether in a circuit or 1238 district court, the court shall provide prompt adjudication, upon due consideration of all the facts, of 1239 custody and visitation arrangements, including support and maintenance for the children, prior to other 1240 considerations arising in the matter. The court may enter an order pending the suit as provided in 1241 § 20-103. The procedures for determining custody and visitation arrangements shall insofar as practical, 1242 and consistent with the ends of justice, preserve the dignity and resources of family members. Mediation 1243 shall be used as an alternative to litigation where appropriate. When mediation is used in custody and 1244 visitation matters, the goals may include development of a proposal addressing the child's residential 1245 schedule and care arrangements, and how disputes between the parents will be handled in the future.

1246 B. In determining custody, the court shall give primary consideration to the best interests of the 1247 child. The court shall assure minor children of frequent and continuing contact with both parents, when 1248 appropriate, and encourage parents to share in the responsibilities of rearing their children. As between 1249 the parents, there shall be no presumption or inference of law in favor of either. There shall be a 1250 rebuttable presumption that it is not in the best interests of a child for a parent to be awarded custody 1251 who has previously been convicted of a violation of § 18.2-371 or § 18.2-371.1 with regard to that 1252 child. The court shall give due regard to the primacy of the parent-child relationship but may upon a 1253 showing by clear and convincing evidence that the best interest of the child would be served thereby 1254 award custody or visitation to any other person with a legitimate interest. The court may award joint 1255 custody or sole custody.

1256 C. The court may order that support be paid for any child of the parties. The court shall also order 1257 that support will continue to be paid for any child over the age of eighteen who is (i) a full-time high 1258 school student, (ii) not self-supporting, and (iii) living in the home of the party seeking or receiving 1259 child support until such child reaches the age of nineteen or graduates from high school, whichever first 1260 occurs. The court may also order the continuation of support for any child over the age of eighteen who 1261 is (i) severely and permanently mentally or physically disabled, (ii) unable to live independently and 1262 support himself, and (iii) resides in the home of the parent seeking or receiving child support. In 1263 addition, the court may confirm a stipulation or agreement of the parties which extends a support 1264 obligation beyond when it would otherwise terminate as provided by law. The court shall have no 1265 authority to decree support of children payable by the estate of a deceased party. The court may make 1266 such further decree as it shall deem expedient concerning support of the minor children, including an 1267 order that any party provide health care coverage.

1268 The court shall have the continuing authority and jurisdiction to make any additional orders 1269 necessary to effectuate and enforce any order entered pursuant to this section or § 20-103 including the 1270 authority to punish as contempt of court any willful failure of a party to comply with the provisions of 1271 the order.

1272 § 52-35. Witness protection program established.

1273 The Superintendent of State Police may establish and maintain within the Department of State Police 1274 a witness protection program to temporarily relocate or otherwise protect witnesses and their families 1275 who may be in danger because of their cooperation with the investigation and prosecution of serious 1276 violent crimes or, felony violations of § 18.2-248, and violations of §§ 18.2-57.2, 18.2-67.5:1, 1277 18.2-67.5:2, 18.2-67.5:3. The Superintendent may make the services of the program available to 1278 law-enforcement and criminal justice agencies of all counties, cities, and towns, and of the 1279 Commonwealth, pursuant to regulations promulgated by the Superintendent under the Administrative 1280 Process Act. (§ 2.2-4000 et seq.).

1281 (This chapter is effective until January 1, 2003).

1282 CHAPTER 10

1284 The Superintendent shall establish, organize and maintain within the Department of State Police a 1285 Protective Order Registry as a central repository of information regarding outstanding, valid protective

1286 orders. Such information shall be collected, processed, maintained and disseminated by the registry as 1287 accurately and completely as possible to assist in the expedited entry and dissemination of protective 1288 order information.

1289 2. That the Supreme Court shall establish reasonable judicial training regarding domestic violence
