5. Summary/Purpose:

HB107 requires every chief judge or other chief administrative officer of every Virginia court, whether not of record or of record, to post prominently in a conspicuous place in each of their courtrooms for all citizens to read the phrase, "In God We Trust," which is the national motto of the United States pursuant to 36 U.S.C. § 186 (1999). In addition, the Office of the Attorney General is required to intervene on behalf of any chief judge or other administrative officer and to provide legal defense of this provision. An enactment clause authorizes the chief judges and chief administrative officers to accept contributions in cash or in-kind from any person (defined to include individuals, companies, organizations, and other legal entities) to defray the cost of implementing this provision.

6. Fiscal impact cannot be determined. See Item 8.

7. Budget amendment necessary: No

8. Fiscal implications: This bill requires the Office of the Attorney General to intervene and provide legal defense if it results in a suit against the chief judges or other chief administrative officers of Virginia courts. The costs associated with these suits cannot be estimated. In addition, the chief judges and chief administrative officers can accept contributions to help defray the cost of this provision.

9. Specific agency or political subdivisions affected: Courts, Office of the Attorney General

10. Technical amendment necessary: No
