- 7. Budgetamendmentnecessary:Yes.Item511.
- 8. Fiscalimplications: The bills that were passed in the 2001 Session requiredthebreakin $service to be of a time duration such that the bill be actuarially neutral in cost and that the {\tt time} and {\tt time} an$ provision not place the IRS qualification of the VRS injeopardy. IRS has not is sued specification of the VRS injeopardy and the provision of the VRS injeopardy and the VRS injeoparguidelinesonwhatconstitutesanacceptabl ebreakinservice.VRSsoughttheadviceofbenefits counselrelativetothelatterrequirement. Counselopined that as ix to twelvemonth breakin service was more likely to receive IRS approval than a shorter break. Shorter breaks in service will also affect retirement patterns and increase costs, however, because this bill assumes that the teacher will only return to work for one year, those costs are mitigated. Chapter 1073 of the 2000 Acts of Assembly requires the VRS to conduct actuarial valuations annually. The costs associated with this bill would accrue in FY03 and FY04, but would not be recognized in the employer contribution rates until FY04.

- 9. Specificagencyorpolitical subdivisions affected: VRS and public school divisions.
- 10. Technicalamendmentnecessary:No
- $11. \ Other comments: This bill is the same as HB 1320. The bill is effective when VRS obtains a favorable determination from IRS on the provisions of the bill.$
