HOUSE BILL NO. 2695

Offered January 10, 2007

Prefiled January 10, 2007

A BILL to amend and reenact § 29.1-509 of the Code of Virginia, relating to low-head dams.

Patron—Cline

Referred to Committee on Agriculture, Chesapeake and Natural Resources

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That § 29.1-509 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 29.1-509. Duty of care and liability for damages of landowners to hunters, fishermen, sightseers, etc.

A. For the purpose of this section:

"Fee" means any payment or payments of money to a landowner for use of the premises or in order to engage in any activity described in subsections B and C of this section, but does not include rentals or similar fees received by a landowner from governmental sources or payments received by a landowner from incidental sales of forest products to an individual for his personal use, or any action taken by another to improve the land or access to the land for the purposes set forth in subsections B and C of this section or remedying damage caused by such uses.

"Land" or "premises" means real property, whether rural or urban, waters, boats, private ways, natural growth, trees and any building or structure which might be located on such real property, waters, boats, private ways and natural growth.

"Landowner" means the legal title holder, lessee, occupant or any other person in control of land or premises.

"Low-head dam" means a dam that is built across a river or stream for the purpose of impounding water where the impoundment, at normal flow levels, is completely within the banks, and all flow passes directly over the entire dam structure within the banks, excluding abutments, to a natural channel downstream.

B. A landowner shall owe no duty of care to keep land or premises safe for entry or use by others for hunting, fishing, trapping, camping, participation in water sports, boating, hiking, rock climbing, sightseeing, hang gliding, skydiving, horseback riding, foxhunting, racing, bicycle riding or collecting, gathering, cutting or removing firewood, for any other recreational use, or for use of an easement granted to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof to permit public passage across such land for access to a public park, historic site, or other public recreational area. No landowner shall be required to give any warning of hazardous conditions or uses of, structures on, or activities on such land or premises to any person entering on the land or premises for such purposes, except as provided in subsection D.

C. Any landowner who gives permission, express or implied, to another person to hunt, fish, launch and retrieve boats, swim, ride, foxhunt, trap, camp, hike, rock climb, hang glide, skydive, sightsee, engage in races, to collect, gather, cut or remove forest products upon land or premises for the personal use of such person, or for the use of an easement as set forth in subsection B does not thereby:

1. Impliedly or expressly represent that the premises are safe for such purposes; or

2. Constitute the person to whom such permission has been granted an invitee to whom a duty of care is owed; or

3. Assume responsibility for or incur liability for any intentional or negligent acts of such person or any other person, except as provided in subsection D.

D. Nothing contained in this section, except as provided in subsection E, shall limit the liability of a landowner which may otherwise arise or exist by reason of his gross negligence or willful or malicious failure to guard or warn against a dangerous condition, use, structure, or activity. The provisions of this section shall not limit the liability of a landowner which may otherwise arise or exist when the landowner receives a fee for use of the premises or to engage in any activity described in subsections B and C of this section. Nothing contained in this section shall relieve any sponsor or operator of any sporting event or competition including but not limited to a race or triathlon of the duty to exercise ordinary care in such events. Nothing contained in this section shall limit the liability of an owner of a low-head dam who fails to implement safety measures described in subsection F.

E. For purposes of this section, whenever any person enters into an agreement with, or grants an easement to, the Commonwealth or any agency thereof, any county, city, or town, or with any local or regional authority created by law for public park, historic site or recreational purposes, concerning the

59 use of, or access over, his land by the public for any of the purposes enumerated in subsections B and
60 C of this section, the government, agency, county, city, town, or authority with which the agreement is 61 made shall hold a person harmless from all liability and be responsible for providing, or for paying the 62 cost of, all reasonable legal services required by any person entitled to the benefit of this section as the 63 result of a claim or suit attempting to impose liability. Any action against the Commonwealth, or any 64 agency, thereof, for negligence arising out of a use of land covered by this section shall be subject to 65 the provisions of the Virginia Tort Claims Act (§ 8.01-195.1 et seq.). Any provisions in a lease or other
66 agreement which purports to waive the benefits of this section shall be invalid, and any action against 67 any county, city, town, or local or regional authority shall be subject to the provisions of § 15.2-1809,
68 where applicable.

69 F. Any owner of a low-head dam shall mark the areas above and below the dam and on the banks
70 immediately adjacent to the dam with signs and buoys of a design and content to warn the swimming,
71 fishing, and boating public of the hazards posed by the dam. Any owner of a low-head dam who
72 complies with the requirements of this subsection shall be deemed to have met the duty of care for
73 warning the public of the hazards posed by the dam. Any owner of a low-head dam who fails to comply
74 with the requirements of this subsection shall be presumed not to have met the duty of care for warning
75 the public of the hazards posed by the dam.
