HOUSE BILL NO. 393

Offered January 11, 2006

Prefiled January 6, 2006

4 A BILL to amend and reenact § 55-79.94 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the Condominium Act;
5 conversion condominiums; rights of certain elderly or disabled persons.

Patron—Englin

Referred to Committee on General Laws

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 55-79.94 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 55-79.94. Conversion condominiums; special provisions.

13 A. Any declarant of a conversion condominium shall include in his public offering statement in 14 addition to the requirements of § 55-79.90 the following:

15 1. A specific statement of the amount of any initial or special condominium fee due from the 16 purchaser on or before settlement of the purchase contract and the basis of such fee;

17 2. Information on the actual expenditures made on all repairs, maintenance, operation or upkeep of 18 the subject building or buildings within the last three years, set forth tabularly with the proposed budget
19 of the condominium, and cumulatively broken down on a per unit basis in proportion to the relative 20 voting strengths allocated to the units by the bylaws. If such building or buildings have not been 21 occupied for a period of three years, then the information shall be set forth for the maximum period
22 such building or buildings have been occupied;

23 3. A description of any provisions made in the budget for reserves for capital expenditures and an 24 explanation of the basis for such reserves, or, if no provision is made for such reserves, a statement to 25 that effect;

4. A statement of the declarant as to the present condition of all structural components and major utility installations in the condominium, which statement shall include the approximate dates of construction, installation, and major repairs, and the expected useful life of each such item, together with the estimated cost (in current dollars) of replacing each of the same;

30 5. If any building included or that may be included in the condominium was substantially completed
31 prior to July 1, 1978, a statement that each such building has been inspected for asbestos in accordance 32 with standards in effect at the time of inspection; or that an asbestos inspection will be conducted; and 33 whether asbestos requiring response actions has been found, and if found, that response actions have 34 been or will be completed in accordance with applicable standards prior to the conveyance of any unit
35 in such building. Any asbestos management program or response action undertaken by the building 36 owner shall comply with the standards promulgated pursuant to § 2.2-1164.

37 B. In the case of a conversion condominium, the declarant shall give at the time specified in 38 subsection C of this section formal notice to each of the tenants of the building or buildings which the 39 declarant has submitted or intends to submit to the provisions of this chapter. This notice shall advise 40 each tenant of (i) the offering price of the unit he occupies, (ii) the projected common expense
41 assessments against that unit for at least the first year of the condominium's operation, (iii) any 42 relocation services or assistance, public or private, of which the declarant is aware, (iv) any measures 43 taken or to be taken by the declarant to reduce the incidence of tenant dislocation, and (v) the details of 44 the relocation plan, if any is provided by the declarant, to assist tenants in relocating. During the first 45 sixty days after such notice is mailed or hand delivered, each of the said tenants shall have the exclusive
46 right to purchase the unit he occupies, but only if such unit is to be retained in the conversion
47 condominium without substantial alteration in its physical layout. If the conversion condominium is 48 subject to a local ordinance that has been adopted pursuant to subsection F, and the tenant is disabled
49 or elderly, and eligible for a lease or lease extension under the provisions of subsection F, the tenant
50 may assign the exclusive right to purchase his unit to a government agency, housing authority, or 51 nonprofit housing corporation, which shall then offer the disabled or elderly tenant a lease following the 52 provisions of subsection F.

53 The notice required above shall be hand delivered or sent by first-class mail, return receipt requested, 54 and shall inform the tenants of the conversion to condominium. Such notice may also constitute the 55 notice to terminate the tenancy as provided for in § 55-222, except that, despite the provisions of 56 § 55-222, a tenancy from month to month may only be terminated upon 120 days' notice when such 57 termination is in regard to the creation of a conversion condominium. If, however, a tenant so notified 58 remains in possession of the unit he occupies after the expiration of the 120-day period with the

59 permission of the declarant, in order to then terminate the tenancy, such declarant shall give the tenant a 60 further notice as provided in § 55-222. Until the expiration of the 120-day period, the declarant shall 61 have no right of access to the unit except as provided by subsection A of § 55-248.18 and except that,
62 upon 45 days' written notice to the tenant, the declarant may enter the unit in order to make additional 63 repairs, decorations, alterations or improvements, provided (i) the making of the same does not 64 constitute an actual or constructive eviction of the tenant; and (ii) such entry is made either with the 65 consent of the tenant or only at times when the tenant is absent from the unit. The declarant shall also 66 provide general notice to the tenants of the condominium or proposed condominium at the time of 67 application to the agency in addition to the formal notice required by this subsection.

68 C. The declarant of a conversion condominium shall, in addition to the requirements of § 55-79.89,
69 include with the application for registration a copy of the formal notice set forth in subsection B and a
70 certified statement that such notice, fully complying with the provisions of subsection B, shall be, at the 71 time of the registration of such condominium, mailed or delivered to each of the tenants in the building
72 or buildings for which registration is sought. The price and projected common expense assessments for 73 each unit need not be filed with the agency until such notice is mailed to the tenants.

74 D. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 55-79.40 of this chapter, in the case of any conversion
75 condominium created under the provisions of the Horizontal Property Act (§ 55-79.1 et seq.) for which a 76 final report has not been issued by the agency pursuant to § 55-79.21 prior to June 1, 1975, the 77 provisions of subsections A and B of this section shall apply and the declarant shall be required to 78 furnish evidence of full compliance with subsections A and B prior to the issuance by the agency of a 79 final report for such conversion condominium.

80 E. Any county, city or town may require by ordinance that the declarant of a conversion 81 condominium file with that governing body all information which is required by the agency pursuant to 82 § 55-79.89 and a copy of the formal notice required by subsection B. Such information shall be filed 83 with that governing body when the application for registration is filed with the agency, and such copy of 84 the formal notice shall be filed with that governing body. There shall be no fees for such filings.

85 F. The governing body of any county, city or town may enact an ordinance requiring that elderly or 86 disabled tenants occupying as their residence, at the time of issuance of the general notice required by 87 subsection B, apartments or units in a conversion condominium be offered leases or extensions of leases
88 on the apartments or units they then occupied, or on other apartments or units of at least equal size and 89 overall quality. The terms and conditions thereof shall be as agreed upon by the lessor and the lessee, 90 provided that the rent for such apartment or unit shall not be in excess of reasonable rent for 91 comparable apartments or units in the same market area as such conversion condominium and such lease 92 shall include or incorporate by reference the bylaws and/or rules and regulations, if any, of the 93 association. No such ordinance may require that such leases or extensions be offered on more than 94 twenty percent of the apartments or units in such conversion condominium, nor may any such ordinance
95 require that such leases or extensions extend beyond three years from the date of such notice. Such 96 leases or extensions shall not be required, however, in the case of any apartments or units which will, in 97 the course of the conversion, be substantially altered in the physical layout, restricted exclusively to 98 nonresidential use, or be converted in such a manner as to require relocation of the tenant in premises
99 outside of the project being converted.

100 For the purposes of this section:

101 "Elderly" means a person not less than sixty-two years of age.

102 "Disabled" means a person suffering from a severe, chronic physical or mental impairment which 103 results in substantial functional limitations.

104 G. The governing body of any county utilizing the urban county executive form of optional
105 government (§§ 15.2-800 through 15.2-858) or the county manager plan of optional government 106 (§§ 15.2-702 through 15.2-749), or of any city or town adjoining any such county, may require by 107 ordinance that the declarant of any residential condominium converted from multi-family rental use shall 108 reimburse any tenant displaced by the conversion for amounts actually expended to relocate as a result
109 of such dislocation. The reimbursement shall not be required to exceed the amount which the tenant 110 would have been entitled to receive under §§ 25.1-407 and 25.1-415 if the real estate comprising the 111 condominium had been condemned by the Department of Transportation.
