8	Referred to Committee on Science and Technology
9 10	Do it expected by the Concerci Assembly of Virginia
10	Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 18.2-186.6 as follows:
12	§ 18.2-186.6. Notice of breach of information system.
13	A. As used in this section:
14	"Breach of the security of the system" means the unauthorized acquisition of unencrypted
15	computerized data that compromises the security, confidentiality, or integrity of personal information
16	maintained by an individual or a commercial entity. Good faith acquisition of personal information by
17	an employee or agent of an individual or a commercial entity for the purposes of the individual or the
18	commercial entity is not a breach of the security of the system, provided that the personal information is
19 20	not used for or is not subject to further unauthorized disclosure. "Commercial entity" includes corporations, business trusts, estates, trusts, partnerships, limited
20 21	partnerships, limited liability partnerships, limited liability companies, associations, organizations, joint
22	ventures, governments, governmental subdivisions, agencies, instrumentalities, or any other legal entity,
$\overline{23}$	whether for profit or not-for-profit.
24	"Notice" means:
25	1. Written notice;
26	2. Telephonic notice;
27 28	3. Electronic notice, if the notice provided is consistent with the provisions regarding electronic records and signatures set forth in 15 U.S.C. § 7001; or
20 29	4. Substitute notice, if the individual or the commercial entity required to provide notice
30	demonstrates that the cost of providing notice will exceed $250,000, or that the affected class of
31	Virginia residents to be notified exceeds 750,000 residents, or that the individual or the commercial
32	entity does not have sufficient contact information to provide notice. Substitute notice consists of all of
33	the following: (i) e-mail notice if the individual or the commercial entity has e-mail addresses for the
34	members of the affected class of Virginia residents, (ii) conspicuous posting of the notice on the website
35 36	of the individual or the commercial entity if the individual or the commercial entity maintains one, and (iii) notification to major statewide media.
30 37	"Personal information" means a Virginia resident's first name or first initial and last name in
38	combination with any one or more of the following data elements that relate to the resident, when either
39	the name or the data elements are not encrypted:
40	1. Social Security number;
41	2. Driver's license number; or
42 43	3. Account number, or credit or debit card number, in combination with any required security code, access code, or password that would permit access to a resident's financial account.
43 44	The term "personal information" does not include publicly available information that is lawfully
45	made available to the general public from federal, state, or local government records.
46	B. An individual or a commercial entity that conducts business in Virginia and that owns or licenses
47	computerized data that includes personal information about a resident of Virginia shall, when it
48	becomes aware of a breach of the security of the system, conduct in good faith a reasonable and
49	prompt investigation to determine the likelihood that personal information has been or will be misused.
50 51	If the investigation determines that the misuse of information about a Virginia resident has occurred or is reasonably likely to occur the individual or commercial antity shall give notice as soon as possible to 51 52	is reasonably likely to occur, the individual or commercial entity shall give notice as soon as possible to the affected Virginia resident. Notice must be made in the most expedient time possible, and without
52 53	unreasonable delay, consistent with the legitimate needs of law enforcement as provided in subsection D
53 54	of this section and consistent with any measures necessary to determine the scope of the breach and to
55	restore the reasonable integrity of the computerized data system.
56	C. An individual or a commercial entity that maintains computerized data that includes personal
57	information that the individual or the commercial entity does not own or license shall give notice to and
58	cooperate with the owner or licensee of the information of any breach of the security of the system

59 immediately following discovery of a breach, if misuse of personal information about a Virginia resident 60 occurred or is reasonably likely to occur. Cooperation includes sharing with the owner or licensee 61 information relevant to the breach.

D. Notice required by this section may be delayed if a law-enforcement agency determines that the notice will impede a criminal investigation. Notice required by this section must be made in good faith, without unreasonable delay, and as soon as possible after the law-enforcement agency determines that notification will no longer impede the investigation.

E. Under this section, an individual or commercial entity that maintains its own notice procedures as part of an information security policy for the treatment of personal information, and whose procedures are otherwise consistent with the timing requirements of this section is deemed to be in compliance with the notice requirements of this section if the individual or the commercial entity notifies affected
Virginia residents in accordance with its policies in the event of a breach of security of the system.

F. Under this section, an individual or a commercial entity that is regulated by state or federal law and that maintains procedures for a breach of the security of the system pursuant to the laws, rules, regulations, guidances, or guidelines established by its primary or functional state or federal regulator is deemed to be in compliance with this chapter if the individual or the commercial entity notifies affected Virginia residents in accordance with the maintained procedures when a breach occurs.

G. Pursuant to the enforcement duties and powers of the Office of the Attorney General, the Attorney General may bring an action in law or equity to address violations of this chapter and for other relief that may be appropriate to ensure proper compliance with this section or to recover direct economic 79 damages resulting from a violation, or both. The provisions of this chapter are not exclusive and do not

80 relieve an individual or a commercial entity subject to this section from compliance with all other 81 applicable provisions of law.
