15. Member of a local parks and recreation commission.

C. If any governing body member is appointed or elected by the governing body to any office, his qualification in that office shall be void except as provided in subsection B or by other general law.

D. Except as specifically provided in general or special law, no appointed body listed in subsection B shall be comprised of a majority of elected officials as members, nor shall any locality be represented on such appointed body by more than one elected official.

E. For the purposes of this section, "governing body" includes the mayor of a municipality and the county board chairman.

§ 37.2-603. Board of directors; terms; vacancies; removal.

The term of office of each member of the behavioral health authority board of directors shall be for three years from January 1 of the year of appointment or, at the option of the governing body of the city or county, from July 1 of the year of appointment, except that of the members first appointed,

INTRODUCED

HB1802

58 several shall be appointed for terms of one year each, several for terms of two years each, and the 59 remaining members for terms of three years each. The appointment of members for one-year, two-year,
60 and three-year terms shall be as nearly equal as possible with regard to the total number of members. If 61 the governing body has appointed members for terms commencing January 1 or July 1 but desires to 62 change the date on which the terms of office commence, the governing body may, as the terms of the 63 members then in office expire, appoint successors for terms of two and one-half or three and one-half
64 years, so that the terms expire on June 30 or December 31. Vacancies shall be filled for unexpired terms
65 in the same manner as original appointments. No person shall be eligible to serve more than three full 66 consecutive three-year terms; however, persons appointed to fill vacancies may serve three additional full
67 consecutive three-year terms. However, after a one-year period has elapsed since the member's last
68 three-year term, the governing body may reappoint that member. Any member of the board of directors
69 may be removed by the appointing authority for cause, after being given a written statement of the 70 causes and an opportunity to be heard thereon.
