

VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY — CHAPTER

An Act to amend and reenact §§ 8.01-512.4 and 34-4 of the Code of Virginia, relating to homestead exemption.

[H 2559]

Approved

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:*1. That §§ 8.01-512.4 and 34-4 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 8.01-512.4. Notice of exemptions from garnishment.

No summons in garnishment shall be issued or served unless a notice of exemptions and claim for exemption form are attached. The notice shall contain the following statement:

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR*HOW TO CLAIM EXEMPTIONS FROM GARNISHMENT

The attached Summons in Garnishment has been issued on request of a creditor who holds a judgment against you. The Summons may cause your property or wages to be held or taken to pay the judgment.

The law provides that certain property and wages cannot be taken in garnishment. Such property is said to be exempted. A summary of some of the major exemptions is set forth in the request for hearing form. There is no exemption solely because you are having difficulty paying your debts.

If you claim an exemption, you should (i) fill out the claim for exemption form and (ii) deliver or mail the form to the clerk's office of this court. You have a right to a hearing within seven business days from the date you file your claim with the court. If the creditor is asking that your wages be withheld, the method of computing the amount of wages which are exempt from garnishment by law is indicated on the Summons in Garnishment attached. You do not need to file a claim for exemption to receive this exemption, but if you believe the wrong amount is being withheld you may file a claim for exemption.

On the day of the hearing you should come to court ready to explain why your property is exempted, and you should bring any documents which may help you prove your case. If you do not come to court at the designated time and prove that your property is exempt, you may lose some of your rights.

It may be helpful to you to seek the advice of an attorney in this matter.

REQUEST FOR HEARING-GARNISHMENT EXEMPTION CLAIM

I claim that the exemption(s) from garnishment which are checked below apply in this case:

80 § 34-4. Exemption created.

81 Every householder shall be entitled, in addition to the property or estate exempt under §§ 23-38.81,
 82 34-26, 34-27, 34-29, and 64.1-151.3, to hold exempt from creditor process arising out of a debt, real
 83 and personal property, or either, to be selected by the householder, including money and debts due the 84 householder not exceeding $5,000 in value or, if the householder is 65 years of age or older, not
 85 exceeding $10,000 in value. In addition, upon a showing that a householder supports dependents, the
 86 householder shall be entitled to hold exempt from creditor process real and personal property, or either,
 87 selected by the householder, including money or monetary obligations or liabilities due the householder,
 88 not exceeding $500 in value for each dependent.

89 For the purposes of this section, "dependent" means an individual who derives support primarily 90 from the householder and who does not have assets sufficient to support himself, but in no case shall an 91 individual be the dependent of more than one householder.
