4. Title: Banking institutions; reclassification or conversion of shares.

5. Summary: Banking institutions; reclassification or conversion of shares. Authorizes a bank, savings institution, bank holding company, savings and loan holding company, or multiple or diversified savings and loan holding company organized as a stock corporation to reclassify or convert a portion of the shares of its stock from one class or series into another class or series for the purpose of ceasing to be, or avoiding the status of, an institution that is required to file periodic reports under provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, if authorized by its articles of incorporation. Such a reclassification or conversion is exempt from appraisal rights provisions of the Stock Corporation Act if the institution's directors recommend the approval and all shares are reclassified or converted on the same terms.
