

Department of Planning and Budget 2009 Fiscal Impact Statement

1. Bill Number: SB1199

House of Origin	X	Introduced	  	Substitute	  	Engrossed
Second House	  	In Committee	  	Substitute	  	Enrolled

2. Patron: Puckett

3. Committee: Rehabilitation and Social Services

4. Title: Payment of costs associated with prisoner keep.

5. Summary: Increases the fee charged a jail inmate from $1 to $25 per day.

6. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Indeterminate.

7. Budget Amendment Necessary: No.

8. Fiscal Implications: The State Compensation Board does not expect this legislation to have a fiscal impact on the agency or the state. Although some jails might generate additional revenue from this action, other payments to the jail from inmates might suffer. For example, this increased fee might reduce the inmates' ability to make medical co-payments or commissary purchases which generate revenues for the jails.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local and regional jails and State Compensation Board.

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No

11. Other Comments: Similar to HB 1919 and HB 2493.
