60 4. Computer services.

61 "Spam" means unsolicited commercial electronic mail. Spam shall not include commercial electronic 62 mail transmitted to a recipient with whom the sender has an existing business or personal relationship.

63 A person "uses" a computer or computer network when he attempts to cause or causes a computer or 64 computer network to perform or to stop performing computer operations.

65 A person is "without authority" when he knows or reasonably should know that he has no right, 66 agreement, or permission or acts in a manner knowingly exceeding such right, agreement, or permission. § 18.2-152.3:1. Transmission of unsolicited commercial electronic mail (spam); penalty. 67

A. Any person who:

69 1. Uses a computer or computer network with the intent to falsify or forge electronic mail 70 transmission information or other routing information in any manner in connection with the transmission 71 of unsolicited bulk electronic mail spam through or into the computer network of an electronic mail 72 service provider or its subscribers; or

2. Knowingly sells, gives, or otherwise distributes or possesses with the intent to sell, give, or 73 distribute software that (i) is primarily designed or produced for the purpose of facilitating or enabling 74 75 the falsification of electronic mail the transmission information or other routing information of spam; (ii) has only limited commercially significant purpose or use other than to facilitate or enable the 76 falsification of electronic mail the transmission information or other routing information of spam; or (iii) 77 78 is marketed by that person acting alone or with another for use in facilitating or enabling the 79 falsification of electronic mail the transmission information or other routing information of spam is 80 guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

B. A person is guilty of a Class 6 felony if he Any person who commits a violation of subsection 81 82 subdivision A1 and when: (i)

1. The the volume of UBE spam transmitted exceeded 10,000 attempted recipients in any 24-hour 83 84 time period, 100,000 attempted recipients in any 30-day time period, or one million attempted recipients 85 in any one-year time period; or

2. The (ii) revenue generated from a specific UBE transmission of spam exceeded $1,000 or the total 86 87 revenue generated from all UBE spam transmitted to any EMSP exceeded $50,000, is guilty of a Class 88 6 felony.

89 C. A person is guilty of a Class 6 felony if he Any person who knowingly hires, employs, uses, or 90 permits any minor to assist in the transmission of UBE spam in violation of subdivision B 1 or 91 subdivision B 2 subsection B is guilty of a Class 6 felony. 92

§ 18.2-152.12. Civil relief; damages.

93 A. Any person whose property or person is injured by reason of a violation of any provision of this 94 article or by any act of computer trespass set forth in subdivisions A 1 through A 6 of § 18.2-152.4 95 regardless of whether such act is committed with malicious intent may sue therefor and recover for any 96 damages sustained and the costs of suit. Without limiting the generality of the term, "damages" shall 97 include loss of profits.

98 B. If the injury under this article arises from the transmission of unsolicited bulk electronic mail 99 spam in contravention of the authority granted by or in violation of the policies set by the electronic mail service provider where the defendant has knowledge of the authority or policies of the EMSP or 100 where the authority or policies of the EMSP are available on the electronic mail service provider's 101 102 website, the injured person, other than an electronic mail service provider, may also recover attorneys' fees and costs, and may elect, in lieu of actual damages, to recover the lesser of $10 for each and every 103 104 unsolicited bulk electronic mail spam message transmitted in violation of this article, or $25,000 per day. The injured person shall not have a cause of action against the electronic mail service provider that 105 merely transmits the unsolicited bulk electronic mail spam over its computer network. Transmission of 106 107 electronic mail from an organization to its members shall not be deemed to be unsolicited bulk 108 electronic mail spam.

109 C. If the injury under this article arises from the transmission of unsolicited bulk electronic mail 110 spam in contravention of the authority granted by or in violation of the policies set by the electronic mail service provider where the defendant has knowledge of the authority or policies of the EMSP or 111 112 where the authority or policies of the EMSP are available on the electronic mail service provider's website, an injured electronic mail service provider may also recover attorneys' fees and costs, and may 113 114 elect, in lieu of actual damages, to recover $1 for each and every intended recipient of an unsolicited bulk electronic mail a spam message where the intended recipient is an end user of the EMSP or 115 116 $25,000 for each day an attempt is made to transmit an unsolicited bulk electronic mail a spam message to an end user of the EMSP. In calculating the statutory damages under this provision, the court may 117 adjust the amount awarded as necessary, but in doing so shall take into account the number of 118 119 complaints to the EMSP generated by the defendant's messages, the defendant's degree of culpability, the 120 defendant's prior history of such conduct, and the extent of economic gain resulting from the conduct. Transmission of electronic mail from an organization to its members shall not be deemed to be 121

122 unsolicited bulk electronic mail spam.

123 D. At the request of any party to an action brought pursuant to this section, the court may, in its 124 discretion, conduct all legal proceedings in such a way as to protect the secrecy and security of the 125 computer, computer network, computer data, computer program and computer software involved in order 126 to prevent possible recurrence of the same or a similar act by another person and to protect any trade 127 secrets of any party and in such a way as to protect the privacy of nonparties who complain about 128 violations of this section.

E. The provisions of this article shall not be construed to limit any person's right to pursue any additional civil remedy otherwise allowed by law.

F. A civil action under this section must be commenced before expiration of the time period prescribed in § 8.01-40.1. In actions alleging injury arising from the transmission of unsolicited bulk electronic mail spam, personal jurisdiction may be exercised pursuant to § 8.01-328.1.

134 2. Pursuant to § 30-19.1:4, the estimated amount of the necessary appropriation cannot be 135 determined for periods of imprisonment in state adult correctional facilities; therefore, Chapter 136 781 of the 2009 Acts of Assembly requires the Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission to assign 137 a minimum fiscal impact of $50,000. Pursuant to § 30-19.1:4, the estimated amount of the 138 necessary appropriation is $0 for periods of commitment to the custody of the Department of 139 Juvenile Justice.
