§ 8.01-128. Verdict and judgment; damages.

24 A. If it appears that the plaintiff was forcibly or unlawfully turned out of possession, or that it was 25 unlawfully detained from him, the verdict or judgment shall be for the plaintiff for the premises, or such part thereof as may be found to have been so held or detained. The verdict or judgment shall also be for 26 27 such damages as the plaintiff may prove to have been sustained by him by reason of such forcible or 28 unlawful entry, or unlawful detention, of such premises, and such rent as he may prove to have been 29 owing to him, provided such damages and rent claimed shall not exceed the jurisdictional amount of the court in which the action is tried. 30

If the plaintiff elects to proceed under this 32 33 34 section, the judge shall hear evidence as to the issue of possession on the initial court date and shall 35 hear evidence on the final rent and damages at the hearing set on the continuance date, unless the 36 plaintiff requests otherwise or the judge rules otherwise. Nothing in this section shall preclude a 37 defendant who appears in court at the initial court date from contesting an unlawful detainer action as 38 otherwise provided by law.

39 If under this section an appeal is taken as to possession, the entire case shall be considered appealed. 40 The plaintiff shall, in the instance of a continuance taken under this section, mail to the defendant at the 41 defendant's last known address at least 15 days prior to the continuance date a notice advising of (i) the 42 continuance date; (ii) the amounts of final rent and damages; and (iii) that the plaintiff is seeking 43 judgment for additional sums. A copy of such notice shall be filed with the court.

The owner, manager, or operator of the building may charge and collect from the tenant 73 additional service charges, including, but not limited to, monthly billing fees, account set-up fees or 74 75 account move-out fees, to cover the actual costs of administrative expenses and billing charged to the 76 building owner, manager, or operator by a third-party provider of such services, provided that such charges are agreed to by the building owner and the tenant in the rental agreement or lease. The 77 78 building owner may require the tenant to pay a late charge of up to $5 if the tenant fails to make 79 payment when due, which shall not be less than 15 days following the date of mailing or delivery of the 80 bill sent pursuant to this section.

95 D. Energy allocation equipment shall be tested periodically by the owner, operator or manager of the 96 building. Upon the request by a tenant, the owner shall test the energy allocation equipment without 97 charge. The test conducted without charge to the tenant shall not be conducted more frequently than 98 once in a 24-month period for the same tenant. The tenant or his designated representative may be 99 present during the testing of the energy allocation equipment. A written report of the results of the test 100 shall be made to the tenant within 10 working days after the completion of the test.

 \oplus E. The owner of any building shall maintain adequate records regarding energy submetering 101 102 equipment, water and sewer submetering equipment, energy allocation equipment, or a ratio utility billing system. A tenant may inspect and copy the records for the leased premises during reasonable 103 business hours at a convenient location within the building. The owner of the building may impose and 104 105 collect a reasonable charge for copying documents, reflecting the actual costs of materials and labor for copying, prior to providing copies of the records to the tenant. 106

E F. Notwithstanding any enforcement action undertaken by the State Corporation Commission 107 108 pursuant to its authority under § 56-245.3, tenants and owners shall retain any private right of action 109 resulting from any breach of the rental agreement or lease terms required by this section or § 56-245.3, 110 if applicable, to the same extent as such actions may be maintained for breach of other terms of the rental agreement or lease under Chapter 13 (§ 55-217 et seq.) or Chapter 13.2 (§ 55-248.2 et seq.) of 111 112 this title, if applicable. § 55-248.15:1. Security deposits.

372 A. A landlord may not demand or receive a security deposit, however denominated, in an amount or 373 value in excess of two months' periodic rent. Upon termination of the tenancy, such security deposit, 374 whether it is property or money, plus any accrued interest thereon, held by the landlord as security as 375 hereinafter provided may be applied solely by the landlord (i) to the payment of accrued rent and 376 including the reasonable charges for late payment of rent specified in the rental agreement; (ii) to the payment of the amount of damages which the landlord has suffered by reason of the tenant's 377 378 noncompliance with § 55-248.16, less reasonable wear and tear; or (iii) to other damages or charges as 379 provided in the rental agreement. The security deposit, any accrued interest and any deductions, damages 380 and charges shall be itemized by the landlord in a written notice given to the tenant, together with any 381 amount due the tenant within 45 days after termination of the tenancy and delivery of possession.

382 Nothing in this section shall be construed by a court of law or otherwise as entitling the tenant, upon the termination of the tenancy, to an immediate credit against the tenant's delinquent rent account in the 383 384 amount of the security deposit. The landlord shall apply the security deposit in accordance with this 385 section within the 45-day time period. However, provided the landlord has given prior written notice in 386 accordance with this section, the landlord may withhold a reasonable portion of the security deposit to 387 cover an amount of the balance due on the water, sewer, or other utility account that is an obligation of 388 the tenant to a third-party provider under the rental agreement for the dwelling unit, and upon payment 389 of such obligations the landlord shall provide written confirmation to the tenant within 10 days 390 thereafter, along with payment to the tenant of any balance otherwise due to the tenant. In order to 391 withhold such funds as part of the disposition of the security deposit, the landlord shall have so advised 392 the tenant of his rights and obligations under this section in (i) a termination notice to the tenant in 393 accordance with this chapter, (ii) a vacating notice to the tenant in accordance with this section, or (iii) 394 a separate written notice to the tenant at least 15 days prior to the disposition of the security deposit. 395 Any written notice to the tenant shall be given in accordance with § 55-248.6.

396 The tenant may provide the landlord with written confirmation of the payment of the final water, 397 sewer, or other utility bill for the dwelling unit, in which case the landlord shall refund the security 398 deposit, unless there are other authorized deductions, within the 45-day period, or if the tenant provides 399 such written confirmation after the expiration of the 45-day period, the landlord shall refund any 400 remaining balance of the security deposit held to the tenant within 10 days following the receipt of such 401 written confirmation provided by the tenant. If the landlord otherwise receives confirmation of payment 402 of the final water, sewer, or other utility bill for the dwelling unit, the landlord shall refund the security 403 deposit, unless there are other authorized deductions, within the 45-day period.

404 The landlord shall notify the tenant in writing of any deductions provided by this subsection to be 405 made from the tenant's security deposit during the course of the tenancy. Such notification shall be made 406 within 30 days of the date of the determination of the deduction and shall itemize the reasons in the 407 same manner as provided in subsection B. Such notification shall not be required for deductions made 408 less than 30 days prior to the termination of the rental agreement. If the landlord willfully fails to 409 comply with this section, the court shall order the return of the security deposit and interest thereon to 410 the tenant, together with actual damages and reasonable attorneys' fees, unless the tenant owes rent to 411 the landlord, in which case, the court shall order an amount equal to the security deposit and interest 412 thereon credited against the rent due to the landlord. In the event that damages to the premises exceed 413 the amount of the security deposit and require the services of a third party contractor, the landlord shall 414 give written notice to the tenant advising him of that fact within the 45-day period. If notice is given as 415 prescribed in this paragraph, the landlord shall have an additional 15-day period to provide an 416 itemization of the damages and the cost of repair. This section shall not preclude the landlord or tenant 417 from recovering other damages to which he may be entitled under this chapter. The holder of the 418 landlord's interest in the premises at the time of the termination of the tenancy, regardless of how the 419 interest is acquired or transferred, is bound by this section and shall be required to return any security 420 deposit received by the original landlord and any accrued interest that is duly owed to the tenant, 421 whether or not such security deposit is transferred with the landlord's interest by law or equity, 422 regardless of any contractual agreements between the original landlord and his successors in interest. 423 B. The landlord shall:

424 1. Accrue interest at an annual rate equal to four percentage points below the Federal Reserve Board 425 discount rate as of January 1 of each year on all property or money held as a security deposit. However, 426 no interest shall be due and payable unless the security deposit has been held by the landlord for a 427 period exceeding 13 months after the effective beginning from the commencement date of the rental 428 agreement or after the effective date of any prior written or oral rental agreements with the same tenant,

429 for continuous occupancy of the same dwelling unit until termination of the tenancy and delivery of 430 possession, such security deposit earning interest which begins accruing from the effective date of the 431 rental agreement, and such interest shall be paid only upon termination of the tenancy, delivery of 432 possession and return of the security deposit as provided in subsection A;

433 2. Maintain and itemize records for each tenant of all deductions from security deposits provided for 434 under this section which the landlord has made by reason of a tenant's noncompliance with § 55-248.16 435 during the preceding two years; and 436 3. Permit a tenant or his authorized agent or attorney to inspect such tenant's records of deductions at 437 any time during normal business hours.

438 C. Upon request by the landlord to a tenant to vacate, or within five days after receipt of notice by 439 the landlord of the tenant's intent to vacate, the landlord shall make reasonable efforts to advise the 440 tenant of the tenant's right to be present at the landlord's inspection of the dwelling unit for the purpose 441 of determining the amount of security deposit to be returned. If the tenant desires to be present when the landlord makes the inspection, he shall so advise the landlord in writing who, in turn, shall notify the 442 443 tenant of the time and date of the inspection, which must be made within 72 hours of delivery of 444 possession. Upon completion of the inspection attended by the tenant, the landlord shall furnish the 445 tenant with an itemized list of damages to the dwelling unit known to exist at the time of the inspection. D. If the tenant has any assignee or sublessee, the landlord shall be entitled to hold a security deposit 446

447 from only one party in compliance with the provisions of this section.
