When the judge or magistrate considers the issuance of an emergency protective order pursuant to clause (i) of this subsection, he shall presume that there is probable danger of further acts of family abuse against a family or household member by the respondent unless the presumption is rebutted by the allegedly abused person.

C. An emergency protective order issued pursuant to this section shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the third day following issuance. If the expiration occurs on a day that the court is not in session, the emergency protective order shall be extended until 11:59 p.m. on the next day that the juvenile and domestic relations district court is in session. on which the order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information Network the respondent's identifying information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each protected person provided to the court or magistrate. The judge or magistrate who issues an oral order pursuant to an electronic request by a law-enforcement officer shall verify the written order to determine whether the officer who reduced it to writing accurately transcribed the contents of the oral order. The original copy shall be filed with the clerk of the juvenile and domestic relations district court within five business days of the issuance of the order. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be attested, forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders, and upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network as described above and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to the court. Upon request, the clerk shall provide the allegedly abused person with information regarding the date and time of service.

F. The availability of an emergency protective order shall not be affected by the fact that the family or household member left the premises to avoid the danger of family abuse by the respondent.

G. The issuance of an emergency protective order shall not be considered evidence of any wrongdoing by the respondent.

H. As used in this section, a "law-enforcement officer" means any (i) full-time or part-time employee of a police department or sheriff's office which is part of or administered by the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof and who is responsible for the prevention and detection of crime and the enforcement of the penal, traffic or highway laws of the Commonwealth and (ii) member of an auxiliary police force established pursuant to subsection B of § 15.2-1731. Part-time employees are compensated officers who are not full-time employees as defined by the employing police department or sheriff's office.

I. Neither a law-enforcement agency, the attorney for the Commonwealth, a court nor the clerk's office, nor any employee of them, may disclose, except among themselves, the residential address, telephone number, or place of employment of the person protected by the order or that of the family of such person, except to the extent that disclosure is (i) required by law or the Rules of the Supreme Court, (ii) necessary for law-enforcement purposes, or (iii) permitted by the court for good cause.

J. As used in this section, "copy" includes a facsimile copy.

K. No fee shall be charged for filing or serving any petition or order pursuant to this section.

§ 16.1-279.1. Protective order in cases of family abuse.

A. In cases of family abuse, including any case involving an incarcerated or recently incarcerated respondent against whom a preliminary protective order has been issued pursuant to § 16.1-253.1, the court may issue a protective order to protect the health and safety of the petitioner and family or household members of the petitioner. A protective order issued under this section may include any one or more of the following conditions to be imposed on the respondent:

1. Prohibiting acts of family abuse or criminal offenses that result in injury to person or property;
2. Prohibiting such contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or family or household members of the petitioner as the court deems necessary for the health or safety of such persons;
3. Granting the petitioner possession of the residence occupied by the parties to the exclusion of the

429 respondent; however, no such grant of possession shall affect title to any real or personal property;

430 4. Enjoining the respondent from terminating any necessary utility service to the residence to which 431 the petitioner was granted possession pursuant to subdivision 3 or, where appropriate, ordering the 432 respondent to restore utility services to that residence;

433 5. Granting the petitioner temporary possession or use of a motor vehicle owned by the petitioner
434 alone or jointly owned by the parties to the exclusion of the respondent; however, no such grant of 435 possession or use shall affect title to the vehicle;

436 6. Requiring that the respondent provide suitable alternative housing for the petitioner and, if 437 appropriate, any other family or household member and where appropriate, requiring the respondent to 438 pay deposits to connect or restore necessary utility services in the alternative housing provided;

440 deems appropriate; and

441 8. Any other relief necessary for the protection of the petitioner and family or household members of 442 the petitioner, including a provision for temporary custody or visitation of a minor child.

443 A1. If a protective order is issued pursuant to subsection A of this section, the court may also issue a 444 temporary child support order for the support of any children of the petitioner whom the respondent has 445 a legal obligation to support. Such order shall terminate upon the determination of support pursuant to 446 § 20-108.1.

447 B. The protective order may be issued for a specified period of time up to a maximum of two years.
448 The protective order shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the last day specified or at 11:59 p.m. on the last day
449 of the two-year period if no date is specified. Prior to the expiration of the protective order, a petitioner
450 may file a written motion requesting a hearing to extend the order. Proceedings to extend a protective 451 order shall be given precedence on the docket of the court. If the petitioner was a member of the 452 respondent's family or household at the time the initial protective order was issued, the court may extend 453 the protective order for a period not longer than two years to protect the health and safety of the 454 petitioner or persons who are family or household members of the petitioner at the time the request for 455 an extension is made. The extension of the protective order shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the last day
456 specified or at 11:59 p.m. on the last day of the two-year period if no date is specified. Nothing herein
457 shall limit the number of extensions that may be requested or issued.

458 C. A copy of the protective order shall be served on the respondent and provided to the petitioner as 459 soon as possible. The court shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day on 460 which the order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information
461 Network the respondent's identifying information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each
462 protected person provided to the court and shall forthwith forward the attested copy of the protective 463 order containing any such identifying information to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for 464 service and entry of protective orders. Upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency,
465 the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information
466 and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal 467 Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et 468 seq.) of Title 52 and the order shall be served forthwith upon the respondent and due return made to the 469 court. However, if the order is issued by the circuit court, the clerk of the circuit court shall forthwith
470 forward an attested copy of the order containing the respondent's identifying information and the name,
471 date of birth, sex, and race of each protected person provided to the court to the primary
472 law-enforcement agency providing service and entry of protective orders and upon receipt of the order,
473 the primary law-enforcement agency shall enter the name of the person subject to the order and other
474 appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal
475 Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et 476 seq.) of Title 52 and the order shall be served forthwith upon the respondent. Upon service, the agency 477 making service shall enter the date and time of service and other appropriate information required by the 478 Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network and make due return to the 479 court. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall 480 also be attested, forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and 481 entry of protective orders, and upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the 482 agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and

484 Information Network as described above and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to 485 the court.

486 D. Except as otherwise provided in § 16.1-253.2, a violation of a protective order issued under this 487 section shall constitute contempt of court.

488 E. The court may assess costs and attorneys' fees against either party regardless of whether an order
489 of protection has been issued as a result of a full hearing.

490 F. Any judgment, order or decree, whether permanent or temporary, issued by a court of appropriate jurisdiction in another state, the United States or any of its territories, possessions or Commonwealths, the District of Columbia or by any tribal court of appropriate jurisdiction for the purpose of preventing violent or threatening acts or harassment against or contact or communication with or physical proximity to another person, including any of the conditions specified in subsection A, shall be accorded full faith and credit and enforced in the Commonwealth as if it were an order of the Commonwealth, provided reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard were given by the issuing jurisdiction to the person against whom the order is sought to be enforced sufficient to protect such person's due process rights and consistent with federal law. A person entitled to protection under such a foreign order may file the order in any juvenile and domestic relations district court by filing with the court an attested or exemplified copy of the order. Upon such a filing, the clerk shall forthwith forward an attested copy of the order to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders which shall, upon receipt, enter the name of the person subject to the order and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52. Where practical, the court may transfer information electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information Network.

Upon inquiry by any law-enforcement agency of the Commonwealth, the clerk shall make a copy available of any foreign order filed with that court. A law-enforcement officer may, in the performance of his duties, rely upon a copy of a foreign protective order or other suitable evidence which has been provided to him by any source and may also rely upon the statement of any person protected by the order that the order remains in effect.

G. Either party may at any time file a written motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve or modify the order. Proceedings to dissolve or modify a protective order shall be given precedence on the docket of the court.

H. As used in this section:

"Copy" includes a facsimile copy; and

A law-enforcement officer having probable cause to believe that a violation of § 18.2-57.2 or 16.1-253.2 has occurred shall arrest and take into custody the person he has probable cause to believe, based on the totality of the circumstances, was the predominant physical aggressor unless there are special circumstances which would dictate a course of action other than an arrest. The standards for determining who is the predominant physical aggressor shall be based on the following considerations: (i) who was the first aggressor, (ii) the protection of the health and safety of family and household members, (iii) prior complaints of family abuse by the allegedly abusing person involving the family or household members, (iv) the relative severity of the injuries inflicted on persons involved in the incident, (v) whether any injuries were inflicted in self-defense, (vi) witness statements, and (vii) other observations.

The officer shall provide the allegedly abused person or the person protected by an order issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.8, 19.2-152.9, or 19.2-152.10, both orally and in writing, information regarding the legal and community resources available to the allegedly abused person or person protected by the order. 675 required.

697 B. The judicial officer shall presume, subject to rebuttal, that no condition or combination of 698 conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the person or the safety of the public if the person is
