

VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY — CHAPTER

An Act to amend and reenact § 58.1-2510 of the Code of Virginia, relating to retaliatory costs tax credit.

[S 1359]

Approved

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 58.1-2510 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 58.1-2510. Tax credit for retaliatory costs paid to other states.

A. For license years beginning on and after July 1, 1998, every qualified company shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by § 58.1-2501 in an amount equal to the retaliatory costs incurred during the corresponding taxable year as a result of the difference between other states' lower premium tax rates and other costs and the tax rates and costs imposed by the Commonwealth of Virginia. For license years beginning on and after July 1, 2006, and taxable years ending on and after December 31, 2006, the amount of the credit for those qualified companies not receiving a credit for the taxable year 2000 shall be limited to 60 percent of the retaliatory costs paid to other states for those companies.

B. As used in this section:

"Affiliate" of a specific company or a company "affiliated" with a specific company means a company that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the company specified. A company shall be deemed to control, be controlled by, or be under common control with the company specified if their relationship to each other is such that one company owns at least eighty percent of the voting power of the other company or at least eighty percent of the voting power of all companies is owned by the same interests.

"Affiliated insurance group" means two or more affiliated companies (i) at least one of which is a domestic insurance company and (ii) each of which is in the business of insurance, leasing, financial services, or providing administrative or other support for other members of the group, or is a holding company for the other members of the group.

"Domestic insurance company" means any insurance company incorporated or organized under the laws of this Commonwealth and headquartered within this Commonwealth.

"Permanent full-time position" means a position of an indefinite duration in this Commonwealth requiring a minimum of thirty-five hours of an employee's time a week for the entire normal year of the company's operations, which "normal year" shall consist of at least forty-eight weeks. Seasonal or temporary positions and positions in building and grounds maintenance, security, and other such positions which are ancillary to the principal business of the employer shall not qualify as new, permanent full-time positions.

"Qualified company" means a domestic insurance company that (i) has made a qualified investment in this Commonwealth and (ii) for license years beginning on or after July 1, 1998, maintained the employment level required for a qualified investment, such level to be measured as of December 31 of the corresponding taxable year. The foregoing requirements may be satisfied by either the domestic insurance company or collectively by all the members of the affiliated insurance group of which the qualified company is a member.

"Qualified full-time employee" means an employee filling a permanent full-time position with a domestic insurance company or member of an affiliated insurance group.

"Qualified investment" means an investment in this Commonwealth by a domestic insurance company or any one or more members of an affiliated insurance group that results in (i) an increase as of December 31, 1997, of at least 325 qualified full-time employees above such company's or group's total combined employment level in this Commonwealth on December 31, 1996, or (ii) during any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2001, such company or group having more than 100 qualified full-time employees in this Commonwealth during that entire taxable year.

"Retaliatory cost" means the additional regulatory costs, including any taxes or fees exacted for the privilege of doing business, paid by a Virginia-domiciled insurer to another state pursuant to a law of such state requiring, when an insurer domiciled in such other state is subject to regulatory costs in this Commonwealth that are greater than those imposed by such other state on insurers domiciled in this Commonwealth, the Virginia-domiciled insurer to pay additional regulatory costs to equal the regulatory costs imposed by this Commonwealth on an insurer domiciled in such other state. Such term, however, shall not include penalties or interest for late payment of taxes, fees or other charges, fines or penalties assessed as the result of the violation of laws of such other state, or sums paid in settlement or 57 compromise of alleged violations of such laws.

58 C. Applications for a credit and for a refund of excess taxes may be submitted by a qualified
59 company individually or on behalf of the members of an affiliated insurance group on or before March
60 1 next succeeding the end of the taxable year. Any payment of the tax imposed under § 58.1-2501,
61 including any credit claimed under this section, shall be deemed to have been made with the return filed
62 on March 1 reporting such tax and claiming any credits or on the last day prescribed for the timely
63 filing of such return or, if later, the actual date of payment or notice of denial of any credits claimed
64 hereunder. An amended application or return may be filed, and a credit claimed under this section,
65 within one year of the payment of the tax for such year. Applications shall be submitted with a form
66 approved by the Commission and signed by an independent certified public accountant licensed by the 67 Commonwealth who states that the domestic insurance company or affiliated insurance group, as 68 applicable, is eligible for the credit claimed.

69 D. Any credit provided pursuant to this section shall be taken after all other applicable credits. Any 70 credit not taken by a domestic insurance company may be taken by other members of an affiliated 71 insurance group. Any credit not used to offset tax for the taxable year in which the credit was allowed
72 may be, to the extent not so used, carried forward ~~for the next 10 succeeding~~ to future taxable years
73 until the entire credit amount is used. Unused credits, including credits carried forward from previous 74 years, ~~in an amount not exceeding $800,000 annually~~, exclusive of refunds due to overpayment or other
75 sources, per domestic insurance company or affiliated insurance group, as applicable, shall be refunded
76 to such company, or to the members of such group as they may agree, upon filing a refund application
77 with the Commission, in an amount not exceeding $800,000 annually, except for those qualified
78 companies receiving a credit in taxable year 2000, which may file a refund application with the
79 Commission for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2011, for an amount not exceeding $7
80 million, annually. Refunds for unused credits shall first be applied to reduce the oldest unused credits.
81 Refunds, including refunds based on the application of credits and overpayments of estimated taxes,
82 shall be made after July 1 following the filing of the refund application and paid out of the state
83 treasury on the order of the Commission upon the Comptroller.

84 E. If two or more domestic insurance companies paying retaliatory costs in any year are members of 85 an affiliated insurance group, the total of the retaliatory costs paid may be combined and apportioned
86 among the members of the affiliated insurance group as the members may agree.

87 F. The failure of a domestic insurance company or members of an affiliated insurance group to 88 qualify for a new credit under this section in any year shall not affect its ability to use credits carried 89 over from previous years.
