

VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY -- 2012 SESSION

CHAPTER 14

An Act to authorize the Department of Conservation and Recreation to divest itself of certain property located in Amherst County.

[H 240]

Approved February 28, 2012

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. § 1. That in accordance with and as evidence of General Assembly approval pursuant to § 10.1-109 of the Code of Virginia, the Department of Conservation and Recreation is hereby authorized to convey to Amherst County, upon terms and conditions that the Department deems proper, and with the approval of the Governor and in a form approved by the Attorney General as required by § 10.1-109 of the Code of Virginia, any right, title, or interest that it may have in 31.153 acres, more or less, lying adjacent to the James River at State Route 1004 in Amherst County, Virginia, as more particularly described by deed recorded in the Clerk's Office of the Amherst County Circuit Court in Deed Book 784, Page 145.

§ 2. Any conveyance shall require that the property be maintained and open to public recreational use, and that if this condition is not met, the property shall revert to the Department.
