3. Committee: Committee Referral Pending

4. Title: Budget; conference report to be posted on Internet.

5. Summary: Provides that at least 48 hours prior to the vote of each house of the General Assembly, the Chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations and the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance shall post on the General Assembly's website a copy of the report of the joint committee of conference on a general appropriation bill when the conference committee's work is completed.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Indeterminate

8. Fiscal Implications: The General Assembly currently posts the documents mentioned above on its Web site on the day of their initial release. In order to allow at least 48 hours of review, additional costs may be incurred if the 48-hour review period results in a need to extend the session beyond the scheduled sine die. The estimated cost of extending the Senate session is $7,120 per day and the estimated cost of extending the House session is $17,000 per day, these figures do not include mileage reimbursement, which would be required if the House and Senate were to have a break of any kind during the extension, which allowed the members to travel home. The mileage reimbursement for the House is estimated at $11,400 and the Senate is estimated at $4,473.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: The Virginia General Assembly, The Department of Legislative Automated Services
