70 § 54.1-3505. Specific powers and duties of the Board.

71 In addition to the powers granted in § 54.1-2400, the Board shall have the following specific powers 72 and duties:

73 1. To cooperate with and maintain a close liaison with other professional boards and the community
74 to ensure that regulatory systems stay abreast of community and professional needs.

75 2. To conduct inspections to ensure that licensees conduct their practices in a competent manner and 76 in conformance with the relevant regulations.

77 3. To designate specialties within the profession.

78 4. To administer the certification of rehabilitation providers pursuant to Article 2 (§ 54.1-3510 et 79 seq.) of this chapter, including prescribing fees for application processing, examinations, certification and 80 certification renewal.

81 5. [Expired.]

82 6. To promulgate regulations for the qualifications, education, and experience for licensure of 83 marriage and family therapists. The requirements for clinical membership in the American Association 84 for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT), and the professional examination service's national 85 marriage and family therapy examination may be considered by the Board in the promulgation of these 86 regulations. The educational credit hour, clinical experience hour, and clinical supervision hour 87 requirements for marriage and family therapists shall not be less than the educational credit hour, 88 clinical experience hour, and clinical supervision hour requirements for professional counselors.

89 7. To promulgate, subject to the requirements of Article 1.1 (§ 54.1-3507 et seq.) of this chapter, 90 regulations for the qualifications, education, and experience for licensure of licensed substance abuse
91 treatment practitioners and certification of certified substance abuse counselors and certified substance 92 abuse counseling assistants. The requirements for membership in NAADAC: the Association for 93 Addiction Professionals and its national examination may be considered by the Board in the 94 promulgation of these regulations. The Board also may provide for the consideration and use of the 95 accreditation and examination services offered by the Substance Abuse Certification Alliance of Virginia.
96 The educational credit hour, clinical experience hour, and clinical supervision hour requirements for 97 licensed substance abuse treatment practitioners shall not be less than the educational credit hour,
98 clinical experience hour, and clinical supervision hour requirements for licensed professional counselors.
99 Such regulations also shall establish standards and protocols for the clinical supervision of certified 100 substance abuse counselors and the supervision or direction of certified substance abuse counseling 101 assistants, and reasonable access to the persons providing that supervision or direction in settings other 102 than a licensed facility.

103 8. To maintain a registry of persons who meet the requirements for supervision of residents. The 104 Board shall make the registry of approved supervisors available to persons seeking residence status.

105 § 54.1-3506. License required.

106 In order to engage in the practice of counseling or marriage and family therapy or in the independent 107 practice of substance abuse treatment, as defined in this chapter, it shall be necessary to hold a license;
108 however, no license shall be required for the practice of marriage and family therapy or the independent 109 practice of substance abuse treatment until six months after the effective date of regulations governing
110 marriage and family therapy and substance abuse treatment, respectively, promulgated by the Board 111 under subdivisions 6 and 7 of § 54.1-3505 issued by the Board.

112 The Board may issue a license, without examination, for the practice of marriage and family therapy
113 or the independent practice of substance abuse treatment to persons who hold a current and unrestricted 114 license as a professional counselor within the Commonwealth and who meet the clinical and academic 115 requirements for licensure as a marriage and family therapist or licensed substance abuse treatment 116 practitioner, respectively. The applicant for such license shall present satisfactory evidence of 117 qualifications equal to those required of applicants for licensure as marriage and family therapists or 118 licensed substance abuse treatment practitioners, respectively, by examination in the Commonwealth.

119 Any person who renders substance abuse treatment services as defined in this chapter and who is not 120 licensed to do so, other than a person who is exempt pursuant to § 54.1-3501, shall render such services 121 only when he is (i) under the supervision and direction of a person licensed under this chapter who shall 122 be responsible for the services performed by such unlicensed person, or (ii) in compliance with the 123 regulations governing an organization or a facility licensed by the Department of Behavioral Health and 124 Developmental Services.
