6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 24.2-104 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 24.2-104. Requesting assistance for attorney for the Commonwealth; investigative committees.

9 When the State Board is of the opinion that the public interest will be served, it may request the 10 Attorney General, or other attorney designated by the Governor for the purpose, to assist the attorney for 11 the Commonwealth of any jurisdiction in which election laws have been violated. A. The Attorney 12 General, or the other attorney designated by the Governor, shall have full authority to do whatever is 13 necessary or appropriate to enforce the election laws or prosecute violations thereof. When the State 14 Board makes its request pursuant to a unanimous vote of all members, the The Attorney General or 15 other attorney designated by the Governor shall exercise the authority granted by this section to conduct 16 an investigation, prosecute a violation, assure the enforcement of the elections laws, and report the 17 results of the investigation to the State Board.

18 B. When the State Board is of the opinion that the public interest will be served, it may request the 19 Attorney General, or other attorney designated by the Governor for such purpose, to assist the attorney
20 for the Commonwealth of any jurisdiction in which election laws have been violated. When the State
21 Board makes its request pursuant to a unanimous vote of all members, the Attorney General, or other 22 attorney designated by the Governor, shall exercise the authority granted by this section to conduct an 23 investigation, prosecute a violation, assure the enforcement of the election laws, and report the results
24 of the investigation to the State Board.

25 C. The attorney for the Commonwealth or a member of the electoral board of any county or city 26 may make a request, in writing, that the Attorney General appoint a committee to make an immediate 27 investigation of the election practices in that city or county, accompanied by a statement under oath that 28 substantial violations of this title have allegedly occurred which may alter or have altered the outcome
29 of an election. On receipt of the request and statement, the Attorney General shall forthwith appoint a 30 committee of two or more persons qualified to make the investigation. Members, officers, and 31 employees of the Board, local electoral boards, and registrars' offices shall not serve on the committee
32 but may provide assistance to the committee.

33 The Attorney General shall direct the committee to observe, investigate or supervise the election if 34 supervision appears necessary. The committee shall make a preliminary report to the Attorney General 35 within five days of its appointment. If its report shows that violations of this title have occurred, the 36 Attorney General may, notwithstanding any other provision of law, authorize the prosecution of those 37 responsible for the violations.
