

2013 SESSION

INTRODUCED
REPRINT

13100186D

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 90

Offered January 9, 2013

Prefiled December 20, 2012

Commending Andrew Dalton Rhinehart.

Patrons—O'Quinn, Crockett-Stark, Johnson, Kilgore and Morefield

WHEREAS, Andrew Dalton Rhinehart, while a senior at Virginia High School in Bristol, was awarded first place for the Ninth Congressional District in the 2012 Congressional Art Competition with his piece entitled Where Old and New Worlds Met; and

WHEREAS, the Congressional Art Competition, sponsored by the Congressional Institute, recognizes the artistic talents of students from around the country; and

WHEREAS, students submit artwork to their congressional representative's office, and the artwork is then evaluated by a panel of local artists in each district with the winning piece displayed for one year at the United States Capitol; and

WHEREAS, Dalton Rhinehart, a talented artist who won his first art award while in preschool and has won numerous local and regional awards, submitted a pencil drawing for consideration in the competition; and

WHEREAS, Dalton Rhinehart's piece will hang in the tunnel connecting the Cannon House Office Building and the United States Capitol, where it will be viewed by congressional leaders and visitors; and

WHEREAS, a well-rounded and popular young man, Dalton Rhinehart also played numerous sports throughout his high school career in addition to pursuing his artistic talents in a variety of mediums; and

WHEREAS, now a freshman at Virginia Tech, Dalton Rhinehart is studying bioengineering, combining his love of engineering and art with the goal of designing prosthetics and insulin pumps to help people live their lives with greater ease; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That Andrew Dalton Rhinehart hereby be commended on being selected as the Ninth Congressional District winner in the 2012 Congressional Art Competition; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Andrew Dalton Rhinehart as an expression of the House of Delegates' congratulations and admiration for his artistic talent.

INTRODUCED

HR90