Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 24.2-202, 24.2-203, 24.2-542, 24.2-542.1, 24.2-543, and 24.2-673 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 24.2-202. Electors for President and Vice President.

The qualified voters of the Commonwealth shall choose the Commonwealth's electors for President and Vice President of the United States at the general election in November 1996, and every fourth year thereafter. Each voter shall vote for a number of electors which equals the whole number of senators and representatives to which the Commonwealth at that time is entitled in the Congress of the United States a slate of electors for President and Vice President, including two at-large electors and one congressional district elector for his congressional district.

Receipt by the slate of presidential electors of the highest number of votes in a congressional district shall constitute the election of the congressional district elector of that slate. Receipt by the slate of presidential electors of the highest number of votes in a majority of congressional districts shall constitute the election of the two at-large electors of that slate. In the event no slate of presidential electors receives the highest number of votes in a majority of congressional districts, receipt by the slate of presidential electors of the highest number of votes statewide shall constitute the election of the two at-large electors of that slate.

§ 24.2-203. Convening of electors; filling vacancies; how electors required to vote.

The electors shall convene at the capitol building in the capital city of the Commonwealth at 12:00 noon on the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December following their election. Those electors present shall immediately fill, by ballot and by a plurality of votes, any vacancy due to death, failure or inability to attend, refusal to act, or other cause. When all electors are present, or the vacancies have been filled, they shall proceed to perform the duties required of such electors by the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Electors selected by the state convention of any political party as defined in § 24.2-101 shall be required to vote for the nominees of the national convention to which the state convention elects delegates. Electors named in any petition of qualified voters as provided in § 24.2-543 shall be required to vote for the persons named for President and for Vice President in the petition.

Each congressional district elector shall vote for the candidates for President and Vice President who received the highest number of votes in that congressional district. The at-large presidential electors shall vote for the candidates for President and Vice President who received the highest number of votes in a majority of congressional districts. In the event no candidates for President and Vice President received the highest number of votes in a majority of congressional districts, the at-large electors shall vote for the candidates for President and Vice President that received the highest number of votes statewide.

§ 24.2-542. State Board to be furnished names of electors selected by political parties; oaths of electors.

In elections for President and Vice President of the United States, the appropriate chairman or secretary of each political party shall furnish to the State Board by noon of the seventy-fourth day before the presidential election (i) the names of the at-large and congressional district electors selected by the party at its convention held for that purpose, together with the names of the political party and of the candidates for President and Vice President for whom the electors are required to vote in the Electoral College and (ii) a copy of a subscribed and notarized oath by each elector stating that he will, if elected, cast his ballot for the candidates for President and Vice President nominated by the party that selected the elector, or as the party may direct in the event of death, withdrawal or disqualification of the party nominee. In the event of the death or withdrawal of a candidate of a political party for President or Vice President, that party may substitute the name of a different candidate before the State Board certifies to the county and city electoral boards the form of the official ballots. The State Board shall also be furnished, if it requests, with satisfactory evidence that any person undertaking to act as an

64 Notwithstanding the provisions of § 24.2-542, (i) the state political party chairman of a political party 65 whose national convention has been scheduled to be held after the seventy-fourth day before the 66 presidential election, shall file by noon on the seventy-fourth day before the presidential election, with 67 the certification of its at-large and congressional district electors, a certification of the persons expected
68 to be nominated for President and Vice President at its national convention; (ii) the State Board of 69 Elections shall certify candidates to the local electoral boards and ballot preparation shall proceed based 73 § 24.2-543. How other groups may submit names of electors; oaths of electors.

74 A group of qualified voters, not constituting a political party as defined in § 24.2-101, may have the 75 names of electors selected by them, including one elector residing in each congressional district and two 76 from the Commonwealth at large, printed upon the official ballot to be used in the election of electors
77 for President and Vice President by filing a petition pursuant to this section. The petition shall be filed
78 with the State Board by noon of the seventy-fourth day before the presidential election. The petition 79 shall be signed by at least 10,000 qualified voters and include signatures of at least 400 qualified voters
80 from each congressional district. The petition shall be signed by petitioners on and after January 1 of the 81 year of the presidential election only and contain the residence address of each petitioner. The signature 82 of each petitioner shall be witnessed either by a person who is a constitutionally qualified candidate for 83 President of the United States, who may witness his own petition, or by a person who is a resident of 84 the Commonwealth and who is not a minor or a felon whose voting rights have not been restored and 85 whose affidavit to that effect appears on each page of the petition. The petition shall state the names of 86 the at-large and congressional district electors selected by the petitioners, the party name under which 87 they desire the named electors to be listed on the ballot, and the names of the candidates for President
88 and Vice President for whom the electors are required to vote in the Electoral College. The persons 89 filing the petition shall file with it a copy of a subscribed and notarized oath by each elector stating that 90 he will, if elected, cast his ballot for the candidates for President and Vice President named in the 91 petition, or as the party may direct in the event of death, withdrawal or disqualification of the party
92 nominee. In order to utilize a selected party name on the ballot, the petitioners shall have had a state
93 central committee composed of registered voters from each congressional district of the Commonwealth,
94 a party plan and bylaws, and a duly designated chairman and secretary in existence and holding office
95 for at least six months prior to filing the petition. The State Board may require proof that the petitioners
96 meet these requirements before permitting use of a party name on the ballot. The party name shall not 97 be identical with or substantially similar to the name of any political party qualifying under § 24.2-101
98 and then in existence.

99 In the event of the death or withdrawal of a candidate for President or Vice President qualified to 100 appear on the ballot by party name, that party may substitute the name of a different candidate before 101 the State Board certifies to the county and city electoral boards the form of the official ballots.

102 In the event that a group of qualified voters meets the requirements set forth in this section except 103 that they cannot utilize a party name, the electors selected and the candidates for President and Vice 104 President shall be identified and designated as "Independent" on the ballot. Substitution of a different
105 candidate for Vice President may be made by the candidate for President before the State Board certifies 106 to the county and city electoral boards the form of the official ballot.

107 § 24.2-673. Candidates having highest number of votes to receive certificate of election.

108 Except in the case of a presidential election pursuant to §§ 24.2-202 and 24.2-203 or a recount
109 pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 8 (§ 24.2-800 et seq.) of this title, in all elections for the choice of 110 any officer, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, the person having the highest number of votes for 111 any office shall be deemed to have been elected to such office and shall receive the certificate of 112 election.
