1 HOUSE BILL NO. 108 2 Offered January 8, 2014 3 Prefiled December 16, 2013 4 A BILL to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1, relating to health insurance; carrier business practices; contracts with participating pharmacy providers. 6 Patron—Ware 7 Referred to Committee on Commerce and Labor 9 Referred to Committee on Commerce and Labor 9 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1 as follows: 2 § 38.2-3407.15:1. Carrier contracts with pharmacy providers; required provisions; limit on termination or norneneaul. 14 A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning: "Audit" includes any audit conducted or authorized by a carrier or its intermediary to determine whether the participating pharmacy provider has complied with the terms and conditions for reimbursement under the provider contract. "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or is intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation.<
Offered January 8, 2014 Prefiled December 16, 2013 A BILL to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1, relating to health insurance; carrier business practices; contracts with participating pharmacy providers. Patron—Ware Referred to Committee on Commerce and Labor Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1 as follows: § 38.2-3407.15:1. Carrier contracts with pharmacy providers; required provisions; limit on termination on norneneval. A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning: "Audii" includes any audit conducted or authorized by a carrier or its intermediary to determine whether the participating pharmacy provider has complied with the terms and conditions for reimbursement under the provider contract. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and wilfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Prad" nears a law and regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and wilfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims investigative 4 A BILL to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1, relating to health insurance; carrier business practices; contracts with participating pharmacy providers. Patrom—Ware Referred to Committee on Commerce and Labor Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1 as follows: § 38.2-3407.15:1. Carrier contracts with pharmacy providers; required provisions; limit on termination or nornenewal. A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning: "Audit" includes any audit conducted or authorized by a carrier or its intermediary to determine whether the participating pharmacy provider has complied with the terms and conditions for reimbursement under the provider contract. "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Traud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including applicable law and regulation. "Traudi" means a carrier and its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a carrier and its intermediary. "That macy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including applicable law and regulation. "That meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its insurance; carrier business practices; contracts with participating pharmacy providers. Patron—Ware Referred to Committee on Commerce and Labor Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1 as follows: $ 38.2-3407.15:1. Carrier contracts with pharmacy providers; required provisions; limit on termination or nonrenewal. A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning:
Patron—Ware 7 7 8 7 8 7 8 8 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 10 11 12 13 14 14 15 15 16 16 17 18 19 111 111 112 113 114 115 115 116 117 111 111 1111 1111 1111 1111
Patron—Ware 7 Referred to Committee on Commerce and Labor 9 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11 That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1 as follows: § 38.2-3407.15:1. Carrier contracts with pharmacy providers; required provisions; limit on termination or nonrenewal. A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning: "Audit" includes any audit conducted or authorized by a carrier or its intermediary to determine whether the participating pharmacy provider has complied with the terms and conditions for reimbursement under the provider contract. "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract' has th Referred to Committee on Commerce and Labor Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11 That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1. as follows: $ 38.2-3407.15:1. Carrier contracts with pharmacy providers; required provisions; limit on termination or nonrenewal. 11 A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning: "Multi" includes any audit conducted or authorized by a carrier or its intermediary to determine whether the participating pharmacy provider has complied with the terms and conditions for reimbursement under the provider contract. "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including writen, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15.
 Referred to Committee on Commerce and Labor Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1 as follows: $ 38.2-3407.15:1. Carrier contracts with pharmacy providers; required provisions; limit on termination or nonrenewal. A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning: "Audit" includes any audit conducted or authorized by a carrier or its intermediary to determine whether the participating pharmacy provider has complied with the terms and conditions for reimbursement under the provider contract. "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the carrier has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy provider, shall contain specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud b
 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1 as follows: § 38.2-3407.15:1. Carrier contracts with pharmacy providers; required provisions; limit on termination or nonrenewal. A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning:
 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1 as follows: § 38.2-3407.15:1. Carrier contracts with pharmacy providers; required provisions; limit on termination or nonrenewal. A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning:
 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 38.2-3407.15:1 as follows: § 38.2-3407.15:1. Carrier contracts with pharmacy providers; required provisions; limit on termination or nonrenewal. A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning:
 termination or nonrenewal. A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning: "Audit" includes any audit conducted or authorized by a carrier or its intermediary to determine whether the participating pharmacy provider has complied with the terms and conditions for reimbursement under the provider contract. "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation. "Pravidar means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including writen, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract? between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the intermediary has the carrier provider or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not spec
 A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning: "Audit" includes any audit conducted or authorized by a carrier or its intermediary to determine whether the participating pharmacy provider has complied with the terms and conditions for reimbursement under the provider contract. "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the agerific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: 1. Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods
 "Audit" includes any audit conducted or authorized by a carrier or its intermediary to determined whether the participating pharmacy provider has complied with the terms and conditions for reimbursement under the provider contract. "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract sectific provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the intermediary has the specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the part whether the participating pharmacy provider has complied with the terms and conditions for reimbursement under the provider contract. "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims dat, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider or astistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or reimbursement under the provider contract. "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the intermediary has the specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or "Carrier" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including writen, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier or intermediary provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider;
 "Clerical error" means any clerical or recordkeeping error or omission, such as typographical errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or errors, scrivener's errors, or computer errors, in the keeping, recording, handling, or transcribing of pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier or intermediary provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; pharmacy records that does not result in actual overpayment by a carrier or its intermediary or the dispensing of a prescription in breach of applicable law or regulation. "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier or intermediary provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the same specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or "Fraud" means a knowingly and willfully false misrepresentation evidenced by a review of claims data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or data, evaluation of provider statements, physical review of pharmacy records, or use of similar investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or investigative methods by the carrier or its intermediary. "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the carrier has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, shall contain specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or "Pharmacy record" means a patient record, signature or delivery log, or prescription, including written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the carrier has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, shall contain specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or written, phoned-in, faxed, or electronic prescriptions, whether original or substitute, that complies with applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the intermediary has the carrier has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, shall contain specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or applicable law and regulation. "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the intermediary has the carrier has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, shall contain specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or 29 "Provider contract" has the same meaning ascribed thereto in subsection A of § 38.2-3407.15. 30 B. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the carrier has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, shall contain specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or 31 right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract 32 between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the 33 carrier has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, shall contain 34 specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating 35 pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: 36 1. Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly 37 project an error; 38 2. Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; 39 3. An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the carrier has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, shall contain specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or 33 carrier has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, shall contain 34 specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating 35 pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: 36 1. Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly 37 project an error; 38 2. Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; 39 3. An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the participating pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly project an error; Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or 35 pharmacy provider, from recouping amounts calculated from or arising out of any of the following: 36 1. Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly 37 project an error; 38 2. Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; 39 3. An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or 36 1. Probability sampling, extrapolation, or other mathematical or statistical methods that allegedly 37 project an error; 38 2. Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; 39 3. An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or 37 project an error; 38 2. Clerical errors by the participating pharmacy provider; 39 3. An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or 39 3. An act or omission of the participating pharmacy provider that was not specifically prohibited or 40 required by the provider contract when the claim was adjudicated unless the act or omission was a 41 violation of applicable law or regulation;
42 4. The refusal of a carrier or its intermediary to consider during an audit or audit appeal a 43 pharmacy record in electronic form to validate a claim; 44 5. Dispensing fees or interest on the claim, except in the event of actual overpayment, if the 45 prescription was dispensed in accordance with applicable law or regulation; 46 6. Any claim adjudicated more than 24 months prior to the date of the audit unless the claim is 47 adjusted at the direction of the Commission; 48 7. An alleged breach of auditing requirements if they are not the same as the requirements that the 48 7. An alleged breach of auditing requirements if they are not the same as the requirements that the 49 carrier or intermediary applies to other participating pharmacy providers in the same setting;
50 8. The refusal of the carrier or its intermediary to consider during an audit or audit appeal a 51 pharmacy record, a prescriber or patient verification, or a prescriber record to validate a claim; or 52 9. The alleged failure of the participating pharmacy provider to supply during an audit or audit 53 appeal a pharmacy record not specifically identified in the provider contract.
54 C. Any contract between a carrier and its intermediary, pursuant to which the intermediary has the 55 right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, and any provider contract
 56 between a carrier and a participating pharmacy provider or its contracting agent, pursuant to which the 57 carrier has the right or obligation to conduct audits of participating pharmacy providers, shall contain 58 specific provisions that prohibit the carrier or intermediary, in the absence of fraud by the provider,

HB108

- 59 from terminating or failing to renew the contractual relationship with a participating pharmacy provider
- 60 for invoking its rights under any contractual provision required to be contained in the contract pursuant 61 to subsection B.
- 62 D. The Commission shall have no jurisdiction to adjudicate individual controversies arising out of 63 this section.
- 64 E. This section shall apply with respect to contracts described in subsection B or C entered into, 65 amended, extended, or renewed on or after January 1, 2015.