2 An Act to amend and reenact § 1-210 of the Code of Virginia, relating to rules of statutory
3 construction; computation of time.

4 [H 1160]

5 Approved

6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 1-210 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 1-210. Computation of time.

9 A. When an act of the General Assembly or rule of court requires that an act be performed a 10 prescribed amount of time before a motion or proceeding, the day of such motion or proceeding shall 11 not be counted against the time allowed, but the day on which such act is performed may be counted as 12 part of the time. When an act of the General Assembly or rule of court requires that an act be 13 performed within a prescribed amount of time after any event or judgment, the day on which the event 14 or judgment occurred shall not be counted against the time allowed.

15 B. When the last day for performing an act during the course of a judicial proceeding falls on a 16 Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday, or any day or part of a day on which the clerk's office is closed as 17 authorized by an act of the General Assembly, the act may be performed on the next day that is not a 18 Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday, or day or part of a day on which the clerk's office is closed as 19 authorized by an act of the General Assembly.

20 C. When an act of the General Assembly specifies a maximum period of time in which a legal 21 action may be brought and the last day of that period falls on a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday, or day
22 or part of a day on which the clerk's office is closed as authorized by an act of the General Assembly,
23 the action may be brought on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday, or day or part 24 of a day on which the clerk's office is closed as authorized by an act of the General Assembly.

25 D. Any court or proceeding authorized to be adjourned from day to day shall not be required to meet 26 on a Sunday or legal holiday.

27 E. When an act of the General Assembly or local governing body, order of the court, or 28 administrative regulation or order requires, either by specification of a date or by a prescribed period of 29 time, that an act be performed or an action be filed on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday or on any 30 day or part of a day on which the state or local government office where the act to be performed or the 31 action to be filed is closed, the act may be performed or the action may be filed on the next business
32 day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday, or day on which the state or local government office 33 is closed.

34 F. For the purposes of this section, any day on which the Governor authorizes the closing of the 35 state government shall be considered a legal holiday.
