HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 389

Offered February 27, 2014

Celebrating the life of Eldridge Bryan Smith.

Patron—Webert

WHEREAS, Eldridge Bryan Smith of Rectortown in Fauquier County, a loving husband and father, a man of faith, a Scoutmaster, and a community volunteer, died on September 4, 2013; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his many valuable contributions to Fauquier County, Eldridge Smith was honored as the Scott District 2013 Citizen of the Year by the Fauquier County Board of Supervisors; and

WHEREAS, Eldridge Smith, who was a produce worker for many years, was always willing to help; he volunteered in many capacities throughout the community and was a true giver—wise and compassionate; and

WHEREAS, a humanitarian with a steady outlook on life, Eldridge Smith's example and actions were an inspiration to many people; he was a role model who quietly worked for the betterment of his fellow citizens and Fauquier County; and

WHEREAS, a man of faith, Eldridge Smith served graciously at Mount Olive Baptist Church in Rectortown, where he enjoyed fellowship and worship; and

WHEREAS, Eldridge Smith sought nothing in return for his service to others and the impact of his contributions to Fauquier County will be valued and appreciated; and

WHEREAS, Eldridge Smith will be greatly missed and fondly remembered by his wife, Juanita; daughter, Carolyn; and many other family members, friends, and neighbors; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of Eldridge Bryan Smith, a loving husband and father, a man of faith, a Scoutmaster, and a community leader, who resided in Rectortown in the Scott District of Fauquier County; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Eldridge Bryan Smith as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.
