10 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:
11 1. That § 63.2-301 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:
12 § 63.2-301. Local board appointments and terms of office.
13 The members of each local board first appointed shall be appointed initially for terms of from one to 14 four years so as to provide for the balanced overlapping of the terms of the membership thereon and the 15 members of a local board representing more than one county or city shall be appointed initially for such 16 terms, of not less than one nor more than four years, as may be determined by the governing bodies of 17 their respective counties or cities. Subsequent appointments shall be for a term of four years each, 18 except that appointments to fill vacancies that occur during terms shall be for the remainder of those 19 unexpired terms. Appointments to fill unexpired terms shall not be considered full terms, and such 20 persons shall be eligible to be appointed to two consecutive full terms. No person may serve more than 21 two consecutive full terms; however, this section shall not apply ~~where~~ to a member of a local board 22 who is also a member of the board of supervisors for a county represented by the board, who shall 23 serve at the pleasure of the board of supervisors of which he is a member or until such time as he 24 ceases to be a member of the board of supervisors, or in cases in which a local government official is 25 constituted to be the local board. A member of a local board who serves two consecutive full terms
26 shall be ineligible for reappointment to such local board until the end of an intervening two-year period 27 dating from the expiration of the last of the two consecutive terms.
