A. Any person arrested for a felony who has previously been convicted of a felony, or who is presently on bond for an unrelated arrest in any jurisdiction, or who is on probation or parole, may be released only upon a secure bond. This provision may be waived with the approval of the judicial officer and with the concurrence of the attorney for the Commonwealth or the attorney for the county, city or town. Subject to the foregoing, when a person is arrested for either a felony or a misdemeanor, any judicial officer may impose any one or any combination of the following conditions of release:

Only the actual value of any interest in real estate or personal property owned by the proposed surety shall be considered in determining solvency and solvency shall be found if the value of the proposed surety's equity in the real estate or personal property equals or exceeds the amount of the bond;

3a. Require that the person do any or all of the following: (i) maintain employment or, if unemployed, actively seek employment; (ii) maintain or commence an educational program; (iii) avoid all contact with an alleged victim of the crime and with any potential witness who may testify concerning the offense; (iv) comply with a specified curfew; (v) refrain from possessing a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon; (vi) refrain from excessive use of alcohol, or use of any illegal drug or any controlled substance not prescribed by a health care provider; and (vii) submit to testing for drugs and alcohol until the final disposition of his case;

59 sample, submit to a drug or alcohol screening, or take a breath test for presence of alcohol. A sample
60 may be analyzed for the presence of phencyclidine (PCP), barbiturates, cocaine, opiates or such other 61 drugs as the agency may deem appropriate prior to any hearing to establish bail. The judicial officer and 62 agency shall inform the accused or juvenile being screened or tested that test results shall be used by a 63 judicial officer only at a bail hearing and only to determine appropriate conditions of release or to 64 reconsider the conditions of bail at a subsequent hearing. All screening or test results, and any pretrial
65 investigation report containing the screening or test results, shall be confidential with access thereto
66 limited to judicial officers, the attorney for the Commonwealth, defense counsel, other pretrial service
67 agencies, any criminal justice agency as defined in § 9.1-101 and, in cases where a juvenile is screened
68 or tested, the parents or legal guardian or custodian of such juvenile. However, in no event shall the 69 judicial officer have access to any screening or test result prior to making a bail release determination or 70 to determining the amount of bond, if any. Following this determination, the judicial officer shall 71 consider the screening or test results and the screening or testing agency's report and accompanying 72 recommendations, if any, in setting appropriate conditions of release. In no event shall a decision 73 regarding a release determination be subject to reversal on the sole basis of such screening or test 74 results. Any accused or juvenile whose urine sample has tested positive for such drugs and who is 75 admitted to bail may, as a condition of release, be ordered to refrain from use of alcohol or illegal drugs 76 and may be required to be tested on a periodic basis until final disposition of his case to ensure his 77 compliance with the order. Sanctions for a violation of any condition of release, which violations shall 78 include subsequent positive drug or alcohol test results or failure to report as ordered for testing, may be 79 imposed in the discretion of the judicial officer and may include imposition of more stringent conditions
80 of release, contempt of court proceedings or revocation of release. Any test given under the provisions 81 of this subsection which yields a positive drug or alcohol test result shall be reconfirmed by a second 82 test if the person tested denies or contests the initial drug or alcohol test positive result. The results of 83 any drug or alcohol test conducted pursuant to this subsection shall not be admissible in any judicial 84 proceeding other than for the imposition of sanctions for a violation of a condition of release.

85 C. [Repealed.]

86 D. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent an officer taking a juvenile into custody 87 from releasing that juvenile pursuant to § 16.1-247. If any condition of release imposed under the 88 provisions of this section is violated, a judicial officer may issue a capias or order to show cause why 89 the recognizance should not be revoked.

90 E. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a court from imposing a recognizance or 91 bond designed to secure a spousal or child support obligation pursuant to § 16.1-278.16, Chapter 5
92 (§ 20-61 et seq.) of Title 20, or § 20-114 in addition to any recognizance or bond imposed pursuant to 93 this chapter.
