HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 858

Celebrating the life of Glenwood Elmo Hankins.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 20, 2015
Agreed to by the Senate, February 25, 2015

WHEREAS, Glenwood Elmo Hankins, a respected World War II veteran and an active member of the Martinsville community who honored the service and sacrifice of his fellow veterans, died on February 7, 2015; and

WHEREAS, a native of Pittsylvania County, Glenwood Hankins graduated from Martinsville High School in 1940 and enlisted in the Virginia National Guard in 1941; he was assigned to Company H, 116th Infantry Regiment of the 29th Infantry Division; and

WHEREAS, joining many of the other young men of his generation in service to his country during World War II, Glenwood Hankins deployed to England for advanced training; he attained the rank of staff sergeant and was placed in command of two 81mm mortar squads; and

WHEREAS, on June 6, 1944, Glenwood Hankins participated in the D-Day invasion of Normandy, France, a turning point of the war and one of the defining moments of the 20th century; he participated in several other campaigns in Europe, earning a Bronze Star and a Purple Heart; and

WHEREAS, after the war, Glenwood Hankins returned to Martinsville and served the community as a postal worker for many years; he married the love of his life, Bernice, in 1949, and the couple proudly raised three children; and

WHEREAS, Glenwood Hankins was one of the last surviving D-Day veterans in the Martinsville area, and he had served as the national commander of the 29th Infantry Division during remembrance ceremonies for the D-Day invasion in 2004; he had also attended anniversary ceremonies in France and received the Legion of Honor from France in 2009; and

WHEREAS, Glenwood Hankins will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his wife of 65 years, Bernice; children, Susan, Jane, and Alan, and their families; and numerous other family members and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of Glenwood Elmo Hankins, a decorated veteran who honored the service and sacrifice of his fellow soldiers and was a respected member of the Martinsville community; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Glenwood Elmo Hankins as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.
