2 An Act to amend and reenact § 8.01-537 of the Code of Virginia, relating to petition for attachment.

3 [S 1067]

4 Approved

5 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:6 1. That § 8.01-537 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:7 § 8.01-537. Petition for attachment; costs, fees and taxes.

8 A. Every attachment shall be commenced by a petition filed before a judge or clerk of a circuit or 9 general district court of, or magistrate serving, the county or city in which venue is given by subdivision
10 11 of § 8.01-261. If it is sought to recover specific personal property, the petition shall state (i) the kind, 11 quantity, and estimated fair market value thereof, (ii) the character of estate therein claimed by the 12 plaintiff, (iii) the plaintiff's claim with such certainty as will give the adverse party reasonable notice of 13 the true nature of the claim and the particulars thereof and (iv) what sum, if any, the plaintiff claims he 14 is entitled an entitlement to recover for its detention. If it is sought to recover a debt or damages for a 15 breach of contract, express or implied, or damages for a wrong, the petition shall set forth (i) the 16 plaintiff's claim with such certainty as will give the adverse party reasonable notice of the true nature of 17 the claim and the particulars thereof, (ii) a sum certain which, at the least, the plaintiff is entitled to, or 18 ought to recover, and (iii) if based on a contract and if the claim is for a debt not then due and payable,
19 at what time or times the same will become due and payable. The petition shall also allege the existence 20 of one or more of the grounds mentioned in § 8.01-534, and shall set forth specific facts in support of 21 the allegation. The petition shall ask for an attachment against the specific personal property mentioned 22 in the petition, or against the estate, real and personal, of one or more of the principal defendants, or 23 against the estate, real and personal, of one or more of the principal defendants, or against both the 24 specific personal property and the estate of such defendants, real or personal. The petition shall state 25 whether the officer is requested to take possession of the attached tangible personal property. The 26 petition shall be sworn to by the plaintiff or his the plaintiff's agent, or some other person cognizant of 27 the facts therein stated.

28 B. The plaintiff praying for an attachment shall, at the time that he files his the petition is filed, pay 29 to the magistrate or clerk of the court to which the return is made the proper costs, fees and taxes, and 30 in the event of his failure the plaintiff fails to do so, the attachment shall not be issued.
