2. Patron: Lingamfelter

3. Committee: Agriculture, Chesapeake and Natural Resources

4. Title: Reciprocal law-enforcement agreements.

5. Summary: This bill allows the Director of the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries to enter into reciprocal agreements with other states to enforce hunting, fishing, and trapping laws across state boundaries.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No.

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Preliminary.

8. Fiscal Implications: It is anticipated that this bill will not result in a fiscal impact to the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries. According to the agency, the types of situations in which reciprocal agreements would be necessary occur infrequently. As such, the agency does not believe the authorization to enter into such agreements will increase administrative expenses.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Department of Game and Inland Fisheries.

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.

11. Other Comments: None.
