Department of Planning and Budget 2015 Fiscal Impact Statement

 for Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) Health System Authorit when the records are in the possession of VCU or the discussion of certa meeting of the Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors. 6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No. 7. No Fiscal Impact: Preliminary. See Line 8. 8. Fiscal Implications: Currently, the Code of Virginia protects certain prof the VCU Health System Authority. This exemption has been in place The language does not, however, clarify that such records may be similar.
 Patron: Peace Committee: General Laws Title: Virginia Freedom of Information Act Summary: The proposed legislation provides that the record and open for Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) Health System Authorit when the records are in the possession of VCU or the discussion of certameeting of the Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors. Budget Amendment Necessary: No. No Fiscal Impact: Preliminary. See Line 8. Fiscal Implications: Currently, the Code of Virginia protects certain prof the VCU Health System Authority. This exemption has been in place. The language does not, however, clarify that such records may be similar.
 Committee: General Laws Title: Virginia Freedom of Information Act Summary: The proposed legislation provides that the record and open for Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) Health System Authority when the records are in the possession of VCU or the discussion of certameeting of the Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors. Budget Amendment Necessary: No. No Fiscal Impact: Preliminary. See Line 8. Fiscal Implications: Currently, the Code of Virginia protects certain prof the VCU Health System Authority. This exemption has been in place The language does not, however, clarify that such records may be similar.
 Title: Virginia Freedom of Information Act Summary: The proposed legislation provides that the record and open for Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) Health System Authority when the records are in the possession of VCU or the discussion of certameeting of the Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors. Budget Amendment Necessary: No. No Fiscal Impact: Preliminary. See Line 8. Fiscal Implications: Currently, the Code of Virginia protects certain prof the VCU Health System Authority. This exemption has been in place. The language does not, however, clarify that such records may be similar.
 Summary: The proposed legislation provides that the record and open for Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) Health System Authority when the records are in the possession of VCU or the discussion of certameeting of the Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors. Budget Amendment Necessary: No. No Fiscal Impact: Preliminary. See Line 8. Fiscal Implications: Currently, the Code of Virginia protects certain profession of the VCU Health System Authority. This exemption has been in placed the Impurage does not, however, clarify that such records may be similar.
 for Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) Health System Authorit when the records are in the possession of VCU or the discussion of certa meeting of the Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors. 6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No. 7. No Fiscal Impact: Preliminary. See Line 8. 8. Fiscal Implications: Currently, the Code of Virginia protects certain prof the VCU Health System Authority. This exemption has been in place The language does not, however, clarify that such records may be similar.
 7. No Fiscal Impact: Preliminary. See Line 8. 8. Fiscal Implications: Currently, the Code of Virginia protects certain profession of the VCU Health System Authority. This exemption has been in place. The language does not, however, clarify that such records may be similar. 	5. Summary: The proposed legislation provides that the record and open meeting exemptions for Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) Health System Authority shall also apply when the records are in the possession of VCU or the discussion of certain matters occur at a meeting of the Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors.
8. Fiscal Implications: Currently, the Code of Virginia protects certain proof the VCU Health System Authority. This exemption has been in place. The language does not, however, clarify that such records may be similar of the VCU Health System Authority. This exemption has been in place. The language does not, however, clarify that such records may be similar in the possession of Virginia Commonwealth University.	ce for several years.

Given the administrative ties between the two entities within the university, documents are necessarily transferred and, therefore, it is important that similar protections be extended across the enterprise. A similar rationale applies to meetings of the VCU Board of Visitors

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected:

where such documents or matters are discussed.

Virginia Commonwealth University Virginia Commonwealth University Health System Authority

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.

11. Other Comments: House Bill 2104 conflicts with House Bill 1722 and Senate Bill 893.