Current Law

Virginia allows an individual and corporation income tax subtraction for any income attributable to an investment in certain high technology businesses that is taxed as long-term capital gain or investment services partnership interest income for federal income tax purposes. "Qualified business" means a business that:

- Has annual gross revenues of no more than $3 million in its most recent fiscal year;
- Has its principal office or facility in Virginia;
- Is engaged in business primarily in or does substantially all of its production in Virginia;
- Has not obtained during its existence more than $3 million in aggregate gross cash proceeds from the issuance of its equity or debt investments; and
- Is primarily engaged, or is primarily organized to engage, in certain technology-related fields.

"Qualified business" also includes any other technology business approved by the Secretary of Technology provided that the business has its principal office or facility in Virginia and less than $3 million in annual revenues in the fiscal year prior to the investment.

For an investment to qualify for the subtraction, it must be made between April 1, 2010 and June 30, 2015.

No taxpayer that has claimed the Qualified Equity and Subordinated Debt Investments Tax Credit for an investment in a qualified business may claim the subtraction for income taxed as long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes for an investment in the same business.
