[H 735]

Approved

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 55-225.9, 55-237.1, 55-248.4, 55-248.5, 55-248.9, 55-248.9:1, 55-248.11:1, 55-248.16, 55-248.18, 55-248.18:2, and 55-248.24 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 55-225.9. Relocation of tenant where mold remediation needs to be performed in the dwelling unit.

Where a mold condition in a dwelling unit materially affects the health or safety of any tenant or authorized occupant, the landlord may require the tenant to temporarily vacate the dwelling unit in order for the landlord to perform mold remediation in accordance with professional standards as defined in § 55-225.8 for a period not to exceed 30 days. The landlord shall provide the tenant with either (i) a comparable dwelling unit, as selected by the landlord, at no expense or cost to the tenant, or (ii) a hotel room, as selected by the landlord, at no expense or cost to the tenant. The tenant shall continue to be responsible for payment of rent under the rental agreement during the period of any temporary relocation and for the remainder of the term of the rental agreement following the remediation. Nothing in this section shall be construed as entitling the tenant to a termination of a tenancy where or when the landlord has remediated a mold condition in accordance with professional standards as defined in § 55-225.8. The landlord shall pay all costs of the relocation and the mold remediation, unless the tenant is at fault for the mold condition.

§ 55-237.1. Authority of sheriffs to store and sell personal property removed from premises; recovery of possession by owner; disposition or sale.

Notwithstanding the provisions of § 8.01-156, when personal property is removed from any leased or rented commercial or residential premises pursuant to an action of unlawful detainer or ejection, or pursuant to any other action in which personal property is removed from the premises in order to restore such premises to the person entitled thereto, the sheriff shall oversee the removal of such personal property to be placed into the public way. The tenant shall have the right to remove his personal property from the public way during the 24-hour period after eviction. Upon the expiration of the 24-hour period after eviction, the landlord shall remove, or dispose of, any such personal property remaining in the public way.

At the landlord's request, any personal property removed pursuant to this section shall be placed into a storage area designated by the landlord, which may be the leased or rented premises. The tenant shall have the right to remove his personal property from the landlord's designated storage area at reasonable times during the 24 hours after eviction from the premises or at such other reasonable times until the landlord has disposed of the property as provided herein. During that 24-hour period and until the landlord disposes of the remaining personal property of the tenant, the landlord and the sheriff shall not have any liability for the loss of such personal property. If the landlord fails to allow reasonable access to the tenant to remove his personal property as provided herein, the tenant shall have a right to injunctive relief and such other relief as may be provided by law.

Any property remaining in the landlord's storage area upon the expiration of the 24-hour period after eviction may be disposed of by the landlord as the landlord sees fit or appropriate. If the landlord receives any funds from any sale of such remaining property, the landlord shall pay such funds to the account of the tenant and apply same to any amounts due the landlord by the tenant, including the reasonable costs incurred by the landlord in the eviction process described in this section or the reasonable costs incurred by the landlord in selling or storing such property. If any funds are remaining after application, the remaining funds shall be treated as security deposit under applicable law.

The notice posted by the sheriff setting the date and time of the eviction, pursuant to § 8.01-470, shall provide notice to the tenant of the rights afforded to tenants in this section and shall include in the notice a copy of this statute attached to, or made a part of, this notice.

Nothing herein shall affect the right of a landlord to enforce an inchoate or perfected lien of the landlord on the personal property of a tenant of any leased or rented commercial or residential premises to distress, levy, and seize such personal property as otherwise provided by law.

117 received a verbal notice of it, or from all of the facts and circumstances known to him at the time in 118 question, he has reason to know it exists. A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to 119 another by taking steps reasonably calculated to inform another person whether or not the other person 172 agreement.

 191 The landlord may, in accordance with a written agreement, delegate to a managing agent or other third 192 party the responsibility of providing any written notice required by this chapter.

193 § 55-248.5. Exemptions; exception to exemption; application of chapter to certain occupants.

194 A. Except as specifically made applicable by § 55-248.21:1, the following conditions are not 201 for the benefit of the organization;

217 B. A guest who is an occupant in a hotel, motel, extended stay facility, vacation residential facility, 218 boardinghouse, or similar lodging shall not be construed to be a tenant living in a dwelling unit if such 219 person does not reside in such lodging as his primary residence. Such guest shall be exempt from this 220 chapter and the innkeeper or property owner, or agent thereof, shall have the right to use self-help 221 eviction under Virginia law, without the necessity of the filing of an unlawful detainer action in a court 222 of competent jurisdiction and the execution of a writ of possession issued pursuant thereto, which would 223 otherwise be required under this chapter. For purposes of this chapter, a hotel, motel, extended stay 224 facility, vacation residential facility, boardinghouse, or similar transient lodging shall be exempt from the 225 provisions of this chapter if overnight sleeping accommodations are furnished to a person for 226 consideration if such person does not reside in such lodging as his primary residence.

227 C. If a person resides in a hotel, motel, extended stay facility, vacation residential facility, 228 boardinghouse, or similar transient lodging as his primary residence for fewer than 90 consecutive days, 229 such lodging shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter. However, the owner of such lodging 230 establishment shall give a five-day written notice of nonpayment to a person residing in such lodging 231 and, upon the expiration of the five-day period specified in the notice, may exercise self-help eviction if 232 payment in full has not been received.

233 D. If a person resides in a hotel, motel, extended stay facility, vacation residential facility, 234 boardinghouse, or similar transient lodging as their primary residence for more than 90 consecutive days 235 or is subject to a written lease for more than 90 days, such lodging shall be subject to the provisions of 236 this chapter.

237 E. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection A, the landlord may specifically provide for the 238 applicability of the provisions of this chapter in the rental agreement.

239 § 55-248.9. Prohibited provisions in rental agreements.

240 A. A rental agreement shall not contain provisions that the tenant: 241 1. Agrees to waive or forego rights or remedies under this chapter; 242 2. Agrees to waive or ~~forego~~ forgo rights or remedies pertaining to the 120-day conversion or 243 rehabilitation notice required in the Condominium Act (§ 55-79.39 et seq.), the Virginia Real Estate 244 Cooperative Act (§ 55-424 et seq.) or Chapter 13 (§ 55-217 et seq.) ~~of this title~~, except where the tenant

247 4. Agrees to pay the landlord's attorney's fees except as provided in this chapter; 248 5. Agrees to the exculpation or limitation of any liability of the landlord to the tenant arising under 249 law or to indemnify the landlord for that liability or the costs connected therewith; 250 6. Agrees as a condition of tenancy in public housing to a prohibition or restriction of any lawful 251 possession of a firearm within individual dwelling units unless required by federal law or regulation; or 252 7. Agrees to both the payment of a security deposit and the provision of a bond or commercial 253 insurance policy purchased by the tenant to secure the performance of the terms and conditions of a 254 rental agreement, if the total of the security deposit and the bond or insurance premium exceeds the 255 amount of two months' periodic rent.

256 B. A provision prohibited by subsection A included in a rental agreement is unenforceable. If a 257 landlord brings an action to enforce any of the prohibited provisions, the tenant may recover actual 258 damages sustained by him and reasonable attorney's fees.

259 § 55-248.9:1. Confidentiality of tenant records.

260 A. No landlord or managing agent shall release information about a tenant or prospective tenant in 261 the possession of the landlord to a third party unless:
262 1. The tenant or prospective tenant has given prior written consent; 263 2. The information is a matter of public record as defined in § 2.2-3701; 264 3. The information is a summary of the tenant's rent payment record, including the amount of the 265 tenant's periodic rent payment;
266 4. The information is a copy of a material noncompliance notice that has not been remedied or,
267 termination notice given to the tenant under § 55-248.31 and the tenant did not remain in the premises 268 thereafter;
269 5. The information is requested by a local, state, or federal law-enforcement or public safety official 270 in the performance of his duties;
271 6. The information is requested pursuant to a subpoena in a civil case; 272 7. The information is requested by a local commissioner of the revenue in accordance with 273 § 58.1-3901;
274 8. The information is requested by a contract purchaser of the landlord's property; provided the 275 contract purchaser agrees in writing to maintain the confidentiality of such information; 276 9. The information is requested by a lender of the landlord for financing or refinancing of the 277 property;
278 10. The information is requested by the commanding officer, military housing officer, or military 279 attorney of the tenant;
280 11. The third party is the landlord's attorney or the landlord's collection agency; 281 12. The information is otherwise provided in the case of an emergency; or 282 13. The information is requested by the landlord to be provided to the managing agent, or a 283 successor to the managing agent.

284 B. A tenant may designate a third party to receive duplicate copies of a summons that has been 285 issued pursuant to § 8.01-126 and of written notices from the landlord relating to the tenancy. Where 286 such a third party has been designated by the tenant, the landlord shall mail the duplicate copy of any 287 summons issued pursuant to § 8.01-126 or notice to the designated third party at the same time the 288 summons or notice is mailed to or served upon the tenant. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed 289 to grant standing to any third party designated by the tenant to challenge actions of the landlord in 290 which notice was mailed pursuant to this subsection. The failure of the landlord to give notice to a third 291 party designated by the tenant shall not affect the validity of any judgment entered against the tenant.

292 C. A landlord or managing agent may enter into an agreement with a third-party service provider to 293 maintain tenant records in electronic form or other medium. In such case, the landlord and managing 294 agent shall not be liable under this section in the event of a breach of the electronic data of such 295 third-party service provider, except in the case of gross negligence or intentional act. Nothing herein 296 shall be construed to require a landlord or managing agent to indemnify such third-party service 297 provider.

298 D. A tenant may request a copy of his tenant records in paper or electronic form. If the rental 299 agreement so provides, a landlord may charge a tenant requesting more than one copy of his records 300 the actual costs of preparing copies of such records. However, if the landlord makes available tenant

301 records to each tenant by electronic portal, the tenant shall not be required to pay for access to such 302 portal.

303 § 55-248.11:1. Inspection of premises.

304 The landlord shall, within five days after occupancy of a dwelling unit, submit a written report to the 305 tenant, for his safekeeping, itemizing damages to the dwelling unit existing at the time of occupancy, 306 which record shall be deemed correct unless the tenant objects thereto in writing within five days after 307 receipt thereof. The landlord may adopt a written policy allowing the tenant to prepare the written report 308 of the move-in inspection, in which case the tenant shall submit a copy to the landlord, which record 309 shall be deemed correct unless the landlord objects thereto in writing within five days after receipt 310 thereof. Such written policy adopted by the landlord may also provide for the landlord and the tenant to 311 prepare the written report of the move-in inspection jointly, in which case both the landlord and the 312 tenant shall sign the written report and receive a copy thereof, at which time the inspection record shall 313 be deemed correct. If any damages are reflected on the written report, a landlord is not required to 314 make repairs to address such damages unless required to do so under § 55-248.11:2 or 55-248.13.

315 § 55-248.16. Tenant to maintain dwelling unit.

316 A. In addition to the provisions of the rental agreement, the tenant shall:

317 1. Comply with all obligations primarily imposed upon tenants by applicable provisions of building 318 and housing codes materially affecting health and safety;

319 2. Keep that part of the dwelling unit and the part of the premises that he occupies and uses as clean 320 and safe as the condition of the premises permit;

321 3. Keep that part of the dwelling unit and the part of the premises that he occupies free from insects 322 and pests, as those terms are defined in § 3.2-3900, and to promptly notify the landlord of the existence 323 of any insects or pests;

324 4. Remove from his dwelling unit all ashes, garbage, rubbish and other waste in a clean and safe 325 manner and in the appropriate receptacles provided by the landlord pursuant to § 55-248.13, if such 326 disposal is on the premises;

327 5. Keep all plumbing fixtures in the dwelling unit or used by the tenant as clean as their condition 328 permits;

329 6. Use in a reasonable manner all utilities and all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, 330 air-conditioning and other facilities and appliances including elevators in the premises, and keep all 331 utility services paid for by the tenant to the utility service provider or its agent on at all times during the 332 term of the rental agreement;

333 7. Not deliberately or negligently destroy, deface, damage, impair or remove any part of the premises 334 or permit any person to do so whether known by the tenant or not;

335 8. Not remove or tamper with a properly functioning smoke detector installed by the landlord, 336 including removing any working batteries, so as to render the detector inoperative and shall maintain the 337 smoke detector in accordance with the uniform set of standards for maintenance of smoke detectors 338 established in the Uniform Statewide Building Code (§ 36-97 et seq.);

339 9. Not remove or tamper with a properly functioning carbon monoxide alarm installed by the 340 landlord, including removing any working batteries, so as to render the carbon monoxide detector 341 inoperative and shall maintain the carbon monoxide alarm in accordance with the uniform set of 342 standards for maintenance of carbon monoxide alarms established in the Uniform Statewide Building 343 Code (§ 36-97 et seq.);

344 10. Use reasonable efforts to maintain the dwelling unit and any other part of the premises that he 345 occupies in such a condition as to prevent accumulation of moisture and the growth of mold, and to 346 promptly notify the landlord of any moisture accumulation that occurs or of any visible evidence of 347 mold discovered by the tenant;

348 11. Not paint or disturb painted surfaces or make alterations in the dwelling unit without the prior 349 written approval of the landlord provided (i) the dwelling unit was constructed prior to 1978 and 350 therefore requires the landlord to provide the tenant with lead-based paint disclosures and (ii) the 351 landlord has provided the tenant with such disclosures and the rental agreement provides that the tenant 352 is required to obtain the landlord's prior written approval before painting, disturbing painted surfaces or 353 making alterations in the dwelling unit;

354 12. Be responsible for his conduct and the conduct of other persons on the premises with his consent 355 whether known by the tenant or not, to ensure that his neighbors' peaceful enjoyment of the premises 356 will not be disturbed; and 357 13. Abide by all reasonable rules and regulations imposed by the landlord pursuant to § 55-248.17.

358 B. If the duty imposed by subdivision 1 of subsection A is greater than any duty imposed by any 359 other subdivision of that subsection, the tenant's duty shall be determined by reference to subdivision 1.

360 § 55-248.18. Access; consent; correction of nonemergency conditions; relocation of tenant.

361 A. The tenant shall not unreasonably withhold consent to the landlord to enter into the dwelling unit

362 in order to inspect the premises, make necessary or agreed repairs, decorations, alterations or 363 improvements, supply necessary or agreed services or exhibit the dwelling unit to prospective or actual 364 purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workmen or contractors. If, upon inspection of a dwelling unit during 365 the term of a tenancy, the landlord determines there is a violation by the tenant of § 55-248.16 or the 366 rental agreement materially affecting health and safety that can be remedied by repair, replacement of a 367 damaged item or cleaning in accordance with § 55-248.32, the landlord may make such repairs and 368 send the tenant an invoice for payment. If, upon inspection of the dwelling unit during the term of a 369 tenancy, the landlord discovers a violation of the rental agreement, this chapter, or other applicable
 370 law, the landlord may send a written notice of termination pursuant to § 55-248.31. If the rental 371 agreement so provides and if a tenant without reasonable justification declines to permit the landlord or 372 managing agent to exhibit the dwelling unit for sale or lease, the landlord may recover damages, costs, 373 and reasonable attorney fees against such tenant.

374 The landlord may enter the dwelling unit without consent of the tenant in case of emergency. The 375 landlord shall not abuse the right of access or use it to harass the tenant. Except in case of emergency 376 or if it is impractical to do so, the landlord shall give the tenant notice of his intent to enter and may 377 enter only at reasonable times. Unless impractical to do so, the landlord shall give the tenant at least 378 24-hours' notice of routine maintenance to be performed that has not been requested by the tenant. If the 379 tenant makes a request for maintenance, the landlord is not required to provide notice to the tenant.

380 B. Upon the sole determination by the landlord of the existence of a nonemergency property 381 condition in the dwelling unit that requires the tenant to temporarily vacate the dwelling unit in order 382 for the landlord to properly remedy such property condition, the landlord may, upon at least 30 days' 383 written notice to the tenant, require the tenant to temporarily vacate the dwelling unit for a period not to 384 exceed 30 days to a comparable dwelling unit, as selected by the landlord, and at no expense or cost to 385 the tenant. The landlord and tenant may agree for the tenant to temporarily vacate the dwelling unit in 386 less than 30 days. For purposes of this subsection, "nonemergency property condition" means (i) a 387 condition in the dwelling unit that, in the determination of the landlord, is necessary for the landlord to 388 remedy in order for the landlord to be in compliance with § 55-248.13; (ii) the condition does not need 389 to be remedied within a 24-hour period, with any condition that needs to be remedied within 24 hours 390 being defined as an "emergency condition"; and (iii) the condition can only be effectively remedied by 391 the temporary relocation of the tenant pursuant to the provisions of this subsection.

392 The tenant shall continue to be responsible for payment of rent under the rental agreement during the 393 period of any temporary relocation. The landlord shall pay all costs of repairs or remediation required to 394 address the property condition. Refusal of the tenant to cooperate with a temporary relocation pursuant 395 to this subsection shall be deemed a breach of the rental agreement, unless the tenant agrees to vacate 396 the unit and terminate the rental agreement within the 30-day notice period. If the landlord properly 397 remedies the nonemergency property condition within the 30-day period, nothing herein shall be 398 construed to entitle the tenant to terminate the rental agreement. Further, nothing herein shall be 399 construed to limit the landlord from taking legal action against the tenant for any noncompliance that 400 occurs during the period of any temporary relocation pursuant to this section.

401 C. The landlord has no other right to access except by court order or that permitted by §§ 55-248.32 402 and 55-248.33 or if the tenant has abandoned or surrendered the premises.

403 D. The tenant may install, within the dwelling unit, new burglary prevention, including chain latch 404 devices approved by the landlord, and fire detection devices, that the tenant may believe necessary to 405 ensure his safety, provided:

- 406 1. Installation does no permanent damage to any part of the dwelling unit.
- 407 2. A duplicate of all keys and instructions of how to operate all devices are given to the landlord.
- 408 3. Upon termination of the tenancy the tenant shall be responsible for payment to the landlord for 409 reasonable costs incurred for the removal of all such devices and repairs to all damaged areas.

410 E. Upon written request of the tenant, the landlord shall install a carbon monoxide alarm in the 411 tenant's dwelling unit within 90 days of such request and may charge the tenant a reasonable fee to 412 recover the costs of such installation. The landlord's installation of a carbon monoxide alarm shall be in 413 compliance with the Uniform Statewide Building Code.

414 § 55-248.18:2. Relocation of tenant where mold remediation needs to be performed in the 415 dwelling unit.

416 Where a mold condition in the dwelling unit materially affects the health or safety of any tenant or 417 authorized occupant, the landlord may require the tenant to temporarily vacate the dwelling unit in order 418 for the landlord to perform mold remediation in accordance with professional standards as defined in 419 § 55-248.4 for a period not to exceed 30 days. The landlord shall provide the tenant with either (i) a 420 comparable dwelling unit, as selected by the landlord, at no expense or cost to the tenant, or (ii) a hotel 421 room, at no expense or cost to the tenant. The tenant shall continue to be responsible for payment of 422 rent under the rental agreement during the period of any temporary relocation and for the remainder of 423 the term of the rental agreement following the remediation. Nothing in this section shall be construed as 424 entitling the tenant to a termination of a tenancy where or when the landlord has remediated a mold 425 condition in accordance with professional standards as defined in § 55-248.4. The landlord shall pay all 426 costs of the relocation and the mold remediation, unless the mold is a result of the tenant's failure to 427 comply with § 55-248.16.

428 § 55-248.24. Fire or casualty damage.

429 If the dwelling unit or premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or casualty to an extent that the 430 tenant's enjoyment of the dwelling unit is substantially impaired or required repairs can only be 431 accomplished if the tenant vacates the dwelling unit, either the tenant or the landlord may terminate the 432 rental agreement. The tenant may terminate the rental agreement by vacating the premises and within 14 433 days thereafter, serve on the landlord a written notice of his intention to terminate the rental agreement, 434 in which case the rental agreement terminates as of the date of vacating; or if continued occupancy is 435 lawful, § 55-226 shall apply.

436 The landlord may terminate the rental agreement by giving the tenant 14 days' notice of his intention 437 to terminate the rental agreement based upon the landlord's determination that such damage requires the 438 removal of the tenant and the use of the premises is substantially impaired, in which case the rental 439 agreement terminates as of the expiration of the notice period.

440 If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord shall return all security deposits in accordance with 441 § 55-248.15:1 and prepaid rent, plus accrued interest, recoverable by law unless the landlord reasonably 442 believes that the tenant, tenant's guests, invitees or authorized occupants were the cause of the damage 443 or casualty, in which case the landlord shall account to the tenant for the security and prepaid rent, plus 444 accrued interest based upon the damage or casualty, and may recover actual damages sustained pursuant 445 to § 55-248.35. Accounting for rent in the event of termination or apportionment shall be made as of the 446 date of the casualty.
