116 the operation of any fantasy contest until registration or renewal of registration is issued.

117 E. The Department shall issue such registration within 60 days of receipt of the application for § 59.1-560. Powers and duties of Department.

A. The Department shall have all powers and duties necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The Department may establish procedures deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

B. Whenever it appears to the Department that any person has violated any provision of this chapter, it may apply to the appropriate circuit court for an injunction against such person. The order granting or refusing such injunction shall be subject to appeal as in other cases in equity.

C. Whenever the Department has reasonable cause to believe that a violation of this chapter may have occurred, the Department, upon its own motion or upon complaint of any person, may investigate any fantasy contest operator to determine whether such operator has violated the provisions of this chapter. In the conduct of such investigation, the Department may:

1. Require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the Department determines, as to all facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated; and

2. Administer oaths or affirmations and, upon its own motion or upon request of any party, subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any matter that is relevant to the investigation, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangibles and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts or any other matter reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of material evidence.

D. Any proceedings or hearings by the Department under this chapter, where witnesses are subpoenaed and their attendance is required for evidence to be taken or any matter is to be produced to ascertain material evidence, shall take place within the City of Richmond.

E. Upon failure to obey a subpoena and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the Department may apply to the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond for an order imposing punishment for contempt of the subpoena or compelling compliance.

§ 59.1-561. Suspension or revocation of registration.

A. After a hearing with 15 days' notice, the Department may suspend or revoke any registration or impose on such operator a monetary penalty of not more than $1,000 for each violation of this chapter, not to exceed $50,000, in any case where a violation of this chapter has been shown by a preponderance of the evidence. The Department may revoke a registration if it finds that facts not known by it at the time it considered the application indicate that such registration should not have been issued.

B. The Department may summarily suspend any registration for a period of not more than seven days pending a hearing and final determination by the Department if the Department determines that a violation of this chapter has occurred and emergency action is required to protect the public health, safety, and welfare. The Department shall (i) schedule a hearing within seven business days after the registration is summarily suspended and (ii) notify the registered operator not less than five business days before the hearing of the date, time, and place of the hearing.

C. If any such registration is suspended or revoked, the Department shall state its reasons for doing so, which shall be entered of record. Such action shall be final unless appealed in accordance with § 59.1-562. Suspension or revocation of a registration issued by the Department for any violation shall not preclude civil liability for such violation.

§ 59.1-562. Hearing and appeal.

Any person aggrieved by a denial of the Department to issue a registration, the suspension or revocation of a registration, the imposition of a fine, or any other action of the Department may seek review of such action in accordance with Article 5 (§ 2.2-4025 et seq.) of the Administrative Process Act in the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond. Further appeals shall also be in accordance with Article 5 (§ 2.2-4025 et seq.) of the Administrative Process Act.

§ 59.1-563. Fees and charges.

All fees, charges, and monetary penalties collected by the Department as provided in this chapter shall be paid into a special fund of the state treasury. Such funds shall be used to finance the administration and operation of this chapter.

§ 59.1-564. Department to adjust fees; certain transfer of money collected prohibited.

A. Nongeneral funds generated by fees collected in accordance with this chapter on behalf of the

179 Department and accounted for and deposited into a special fund by the Commissioner of the 180 Department shall be held exclusively to cover the expenses of the Department in administering this 181 chapter and shall not be transferred to any other agency.

182 B. Following the close of any biennium, when the account for the Department maintained under this
 183 chapter shows expenses allocated to it for the past biennium to be more than 10 percent greater or less
 184 than moneys collected on behalf of the Department, it shall revise the fees levied by it for registration
 185 and renewal thereof so that the fees are sufficient but not excessive to cover expenses.

186 § 59.1-565. Public inspection of information filed with Department; charges for production.

187 A. Except as provided in subsection B, registrations required to be filed under this chapter shall be 188 open to the public for inspection at such time and under such conditions as the Department may 189 prescribe. A charge not exceeding $1 per page may be made for any copy of such documents as may be 190 furnished to any person by the Department.

191 B. Reports, data, or documents submitted to the Department pursuant to the audit requirements of 192 § 59.1-559 and records submitted to the Department as part of an application for registration or 193 renewal that contain information about the character or financial responsibility of the operator or its 194 principal stockholders shall be deemed confidential and shall be exempt from disclosure under the 195 Freedom of Information Act (§ 2.2-3700 et seq.).

196 § 59.1-566. Registration not endorsement.

197 No registered operator shall use or exploit the fact of registration under this chapter so as to lead
 198 the public to believe that such registration in any manner constitutes an endorsement or approval by the 199 Commonwealth.

200 § 59.1-567. Acquisition of interest in fantasy contest operator.

201 A. If any person acquires actual control of a registered operator, such person shall register with the 202 Department in accordance with § 59.1-557.

203 B. Where any such acquisition of control is without prior approval of the Department, the 204 Department may suspend any registration it has issued to such operator, order compliance with this
 205 section, or take such other action as may be appropriate within the authority of the Department.

206 § 59.1-568. Civil penalty.

207 In addition to the provisions of § 59.1-561, any person, firm, corporation, association, agent, or 208 employee who knowingly violates any procedure implemented under subsection D of § 59.1-557 or any 209 other provision of this chapter shall be liable for a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such 210 violation. Such amount shall be recovered in a civil action brought by the Department and be paid into 211 the State Literary Fund.

212 § 59.1-569. Fantasy contests conducted under this chapter not illegal gambling.

213 Nothing contained in Article 1 (§ 18.2-325 et seq.) of Chapter 8 of Title 18.2 shall be applicable to a
 214 fantasy contest conducted in accordance with this chapter. The award of any prize money for any 215 fantasy contest shall not be deemed to be part of any gaming contract within the purview of § 11-14.

216 § 59.1-570. Liability imposed by other laws not decreased.

217 Except as provided in § 59.1-569, nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed as making 218 lawful any act or omission that is now unlawful, or as decreasing the liability, civil or criminal, of any 219 person, imposed by existing laws.

220 2. That the initial fee for an application for registration in accordance with this act shall be 221 $50,000. Thereafter, the fee for an application for registration shall be set by the Department of 222 Agriculture and Consumer Services in accordance with § 59.1-564 of the Code of Virginia, as 223 created by this act.
