10	WHEREAS, this nation has become deeply in debt as its expenditures have exceeded available
11	revenues so that the total federal public debt now exceeds $ [ 47 19 ] trillion and continues to increase,
12	and is of such great proportion that responsibility for its payment, with interest, will be passed to future,
13	unborn generations of Americans to assume without their consent; and
14	WHEREAS, attempts to curtail federal spending, confine expenditures to available revenues, and
15	reduce the annual deficit have not been successful; and
16	WHEREAS, in recent years Congress has mandated the implementation of government programs by
17	the states without providing funding for all such programs and could continue to encroach on state
18 19	budgets as a means of balancing the federal budget; and WHEREAS the Constitution of Virginia provides for a balanced budget, and this provision has
20	WHEREAS, the Constitution of Virginia provides for a balanced budget, and this provision has reinforced the inherent fiscal common sense of spending only funds available and has contributed to the
2 1	Commonwealth's outstanding reputation for sound fiscal management and policy; and
22	WHEREAS, efforts in Congress to amend the United States Constitution to add a balanced budget
23	requirement have not been successful; and
24	WHEREAS, Article V of the United States Constitution grants to the states the right to initiate a
25	process of amending the Constitution through application by the legislatures of two-thirds of the several
26	states to the Congress, calling for an amendment convention; and
27 28	WHEREAS, the Congress is required by Article V to call such a convention upon receipt of such
20 29	applications from two-thirds of the states; now, therefore, be it RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the Commonwealth of Virginia
30	hereby apply to the Congress of the United States to call an amendment convention pursuant to Article
31	V of the United States Constitution for the purpose of proposing an amendment to the United States
32	Constitution that pertains to the subject of balancing the federal budget; and, be it
33	RESOLVED FURTHER, That this application is to be considered as covering the balanced budget
34	amendment provisions of the presently outstanding Article V balanced budget applications from other
35	states, including previously adopted applications from Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware,
36	Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri,
37 38	Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Ohio, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, and Utah, and shall be aggregated with those other applications for the
30 39	purpose of attaining the two-thirds of states necessary to require the calling of a convention; and, be it
40	RESOLVED FURTHER, That the other states be encouraged to make similar applications for an
41	amendment convention pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution; and, be it
42	RESOLVED FURTHER, That this application shall constitute a continuing application for such
43	amendment convention pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution until the legislatures of
44	two-thirds of the states shall have made such applications and such convention shall have been called by
45	the Congress of the United States; and, be it DESOLVED FINALLY . That the Clerk of the House of Delegates transmit conics of this resolution
46 47	RESOLVED FINALLY, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Speaker and the Clerk of the United States House of
48	Representatives, the President and the Clerk of the United States Flouse of the Virginia
49	Congressional Delegation, and the legislatures of each of the several states, attesting the adoption of this
50	resolution by the Virginia General Assembly. [That the provisions of this resolution shall expire on July
51	1, 2026. ]
