

2017 SESSION

INTRODUCED

17101444D

HOUSE BILL NO. 1955

Offered January 11, 2017

Prefiled January 10, 2017

A BILL to amend and reenact § 24.2-416 of the Code of Virginia, relating to registration records; deadline extension.

Patron—Kory

Referred to Committee on Privileges and Elections

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 24.2-416 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 24.2-416. Closing registration records before elections.

In any county, city, or town in which an election is being held, the registration records shall be closed for the purpose of registering voters on the election day and during the period in advance of the election as provided in this section. ~~The registration records shall be closed during the twenty-eight days before a primary or general election. Beginning January 1, 2010, the~~ The registration records shall be closed during the 21 days before a primary or general election. If the registration records have not been closed previously for a primary or general election, they shall be closed during the six days before a special election called by the Governor, Speaker of the House of Delegates, or President pro tempore of the Senate, or pursuant to rule or resolution of either house of the General Assembly and during the thirteen days before any other special election.

However, in the event of failure of the Virginia voter registration system that occurs prior to the close of the registration records pursuant to this section, the date for closing the registration records shall be extended for a period of time equal to the amount of time during which the registration system was unavailable for registration activities.

INTRODUCED

HB1955