Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That § 16.1-249 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:§ 16.1-249. Places of confinement for juveniles.

A. If it is ordered that a juvenile remain in detention or shelter care pursuant to § 16.1-248.1, such juvenile may be detained, pending a court hearing, in the following places:

1. An approved foster home or a home otherwise authorized by law to provide such care;

2. A facility operated by a licensed child welfare agency;

3. If a juvenile is alleged to be delinquent, in a detention home or group home approved by the Department;

4. Any other suitable place designated by the court and approved by the Department;

5. To the extent permitted by federal law, a separate juvenile detention facility located upon the site of an adult regional jail facility established by any county, city or any combination thereof constructed after 1994, approved by the Department of Juvenile Justice and certified by the Board of Juvenile Justice for the holding and detention of juveniles.

B. No juvenile shall be detained or confined in any jail or other facility for the detention of adult offenders or persons charged with crime except as provided in subsection D, E, F or G.

C. The official in charge of a jail or other facility for the detention of adult offenders or persons charged with crime shall inform the court immediately when a juvenile who is or appears to be under the age of 18 years is received at the facility, and shall deliver him to the court upon request, or transfer him to a detention facility designated by the court.

D. When a case is transferred to the circuit court in accordance with the provisions of subsection A of § 16.1-269.1 and an order is entered by the circuit court in accordance with § 16.1-269.6, or in accordance with the provisions of § 16.1-270 where the juvenile has waived the jurisdiction of the district court, or when the district court has certified a charge to the grand jury pursuant to subsection B or C of § 16.1-269.1, the juvenile, if in confinement, shall be placed in a juvenile secure facility, unless the court determines that the juvenile is a threat to the security or safety of the other juveniles detained or the staff of the facility, in which case the court may transfer the juvenile to a jail or other facility for the detention of adults, provided that the facility is approved by the State Board of Corrections for the detention of juveniles has the capacity and availability to detain juveniles in accordance with applicable federal and state law.

E. If, in the judgment of the custodian, a juvenile has demonstrated that he is a threat to the security or safety of the other juveniles detained or the staff of the home or facility, the judge shall determine whether such juvenile should be transferred to another juvenile facility or, if the child is 14 years of age or older, a jail or other facility for the detention of adults, provided that (i) the detention is in a room or ward entirely separate and removed from adults, (ii) adequate supervision is provided, and (iii) the facility is approved by the State Board of Corrections for detention of juveniles.

F. If, in the judgment of the custodian, it has been demonstrated that the presence of a juvenile in a facility creates a threat to the security or safety of the other juveniles detained or the staff of the home or facility, the custodian may transfer the juvenile to another juvenile facility, or, if the child is 14 years of age or older, a jail or other facility for the detention of adults pursuant to the limitations of clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of subsection E for a period not to exceed six hours prior to a court hearing and an additional six hours after the court hearing unless a longer period is ordered pursuant to subsection E.

G. If a juvenile 14 years of age or older is charged with an offense which, if committed by an adult, would be a felony or Class 1 misdemeanor, and the judge or intake officer determines that secure detention is needed for the safety of the juvenile or the community, such juvenile may be detained for a period not to exceed six hours prior to a court hearing and six hours after the court hearing in a temporary lock-up room or ward for juveniles while arrangements are completed to transfer the juvenile to a juvenile facility. Such room or ward may be located in a building which also contains a jail or other facility for the detention of adults, provided that (i) such room or ward is totally separate and

59 removed from adults or juveniles transferred to the circuit court pursuant to Article 7 (§ 16.1-269.1 et 60 seq.), (ii) constant supervision is provided, and (iii) the facility is approved by the State Board of 61 Corrections for the detention of juveniles. The State Board of Corrections is authorized and directed to 62 prescribe minimum standards for temporary lock-up rooms and wards based on the requirements set out
63 in this subsection.

64 G1. Any juvenile who has been ordered detained in a secure detention facility pursuant to 65 § 16.1-248.1 may be held incident to a court hearing (i) in a court holding cell for a period not to
66 exceed six hours, provided that the juvenile is entirely separate and removed from detained adults, or (ii)
67 in a nonsecure area, provided that constant supervision is provided.

68 H. If a judge, intake officer or magistrate orders the predispositional detention of persons 18 years of 69 age or older, such detention shall be in an adult facility; however, if the predispositional detention is 70 ordered for a violation of the terms and conditions of release from a juvenile correctional center, the 71 judge, intake officer or magistrate may order such detention be in a juvenile facility.

72 I. The Departments of Corrections, Juvenile Justice and Criminal Justice Services shall assist the 73 localities or combinations thereof in implementing this section and ensuring compliance herewith.
