To establish personal identification and residence in Virginia for purposes of this section, a dealer must require any prospective purchaser to present one photo-identification form issued by a governmental agency of the Commonwealth or by the United States Department of Defense that demonstrates that the prospective purchaser resides in Virginia. For the purposes of this section and establishment of residency for firearm purchase, residency of a member of the armed forces shall include both the state in which the member's permanent duty post is located and any nearby state in which the member resides and from which he commutes to the permanent duty post. 2. The State Police shall provide its response to the requesting dealer during the dealer's request, or by return call without delay. If the criminal history record information check indicates the prospective purchaser or transferee has a disqualifying criminal record or has been acquitted by reason of insanity and committed to the custody of the Commissioner of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, the State Police shall have until the end of the dealer's next business day to advise the dealer if its records indicate the buyer or transferee is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm by state or federal law. If not so advised by the end of the dealer's next business day, a dealer who has fulfilled the requirements of subdivision 1 may immediately complete the sale or transfer and shall not be deemed in violation of this section with respect to such sale or transfer. In case of electronic failure or other circumstances beyond the control of the State Police, the dealer shall be advised immediately of the reason for such delay and be given an estimate of the length of such delay. After such notification, the State Police shall, as soon as possible but in no event later than the end of the dealer's next business day, inform the requesting dealer if its records indicate the buyer or transferee is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm by state or federal law. A dealer who fulfills the requirements of subdivision 1 and is told by the State Police that a response will not be available by the end of the dealer's next business day may immediately complete the sale or transfer and shall not be deemed in violation of this section with respect to such sale or transfer.

3. Except as required by subsection D of § 9.1-132, the State Police shall not maintain records longer

183 than 30 days, except for multiple handgun transactions for which records shall be maintained for 12
184 months, from any dealer's request for a criminal history record information check pertaining to a buyer
185 or transferee who is not found to be prohibited from possessing and transporting a firearm under state or 186 federal law. However, the log on requests made may be maintained for a period of 12 months, and such 187 log shall consist of the name of the purchaser, the dealer identification number, the unique approval 188 number and the transaction date.

189 4. On the last day of the week following the sale or transfer of any firearm, the dealer shall mail or 190 deliver the written consent form required by subsection A to the Department of State Police. The State
191 Police shall immediately initiate a search of all available criminal history record information to 192 determine if the purchaser is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm under state or federal 193 law. If the search discloses information indicating that the buyer or transferee is so prohibited from 194 possessing or transporting a firearm, the State Police shall inform the chief law-enforcement officer in 195 the jurisdiction where the sale or transfer occurred and the dealer without delay.

196 5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, rifles and shotguns may be purchased by 197 persons who are citizens of the United States or persons lawfully admitted for permanent residence but 198 residents of other states under the terms of subsections A and B upon furnishing the dealer with one
199 photo-identification form issued by a governmental agency of the person's state of residence and one
200 other form of identification determined to be acceptable by the Department of Criminal Justice Services.

201 6. For the purposes of this subsection, the phrase "dealer's next business day" shall not include
202 December 25.

203 C. No dealer shall sell, rent, trade or transfer from his inventory any firearm, except when the 204 transaction involves a rifle or a shotgun and can be accomplished pursuant to the provisions of 205 subdivision B 5 to any person who is not a resident of Virginia unless he has first obtained from the 206 Department of State Police a report indicating that a search of all available criminal history record
207 information has not disclosed that the person is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm
208 under state or federal law. The dealer shall obtain the required report by mailing or delivering the 209 written consent form required under subsection A to the State Police within 24 hours of its execution. If 210 the dealer has complied with the provisions of this subsection and has not received the required report
211 from the State Police within 10 days from the date the written consent form was mailed to the
212 Department of State Police, he shall not be deemed in violation of this section for thereafter completing 213 the sale or transfer.

214 D. Nothing herein shall prevent a resident of the Commonwealth, at his option, from buying, renting
215 or receiving a firearm from a dealer in Virginia by obtaining a criminal history record information check
216 through the dealer as provided in subsection C.

217 E. If any buyer or transferee is denied the right to purchase a firearm under this section, he may 218 exercise his right of access to and review and correction of criminal history record information under

E. If any applicant is denied employment because of information appearing on the criminal history record and the applicant disputes the information upon which the denial was based, the Central Criminal Records Exchange shall, upon written request, furnish to the applicant the procedures for obtaining a copy of the criminal history record from the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The information provided to the dealer shall not be disseminated except as provided in this section.

F. The applicant shall bear the cost of obtaining the criminal history record unless the dealer, at his option, decides to pay such cost.

G. Upon receipt of the request for a criminal history record information check, the State Police shall establish a unique number for that firearm seller. Beginning September 1, 2001, the firearm seller's signature, firearm seller's number and the dealer's identification number shall be on all firearm transaction forms. The State Police shall void the firearm seller's number when a disqualifying record is discovered. The State Police may suspend a firearm seller's identification number upon the arrest of the firearm seller for a potentially disqualifying crime.

H. This section shall not restrict the transfer of a firearm at any place other than at a dealership or at any event required to be registered as a gun show.

I. Any person who willfully and intentionally requests, obtains, or seeks to obtain criminal history record information under false pretenses, or who willfully and intentionally disseminates or seeks to disseminate criminal history record information except as authorized by this section and § 18.2-308.2:2, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.

J. Any person willfully and intentionally making a materially false statement on the personal descriptive information required in this section shall be guilty of a Class 5 felony. Any person who offers for transfer any firearm in violation of this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. Any dealer who willfully and knowingly employs or permits a person to act as a firearm seller in violation of this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

K. There is no civil liability for any seller for the actions of any purchaser or subsequent transferee of a firearm lawfully transferred pursuant to this section.

L. The provisions of this section requiring a seller's background check shall not apply to a licensed dealer.

M. Any person who willfully and intentionally makes a false statement in the affidavit as set out in subdivision C 1 shall be guilty of a Class 5 felony.

CHAPTER 9.2.

SUBSTANTIAL RISK ORDERS.

§ 19.2-152.13. Emergency substantial risk order.

A. Upon the petition of an attorney for the Commonwealth or a law-enforcement officer, any judge of a circuit court, upon a finding that there is probable cause to believe that a person poses a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or others in the near future by such person's possession or acquisition of a firearm, shall issue an ex parte emergency substantial risk order. Such order shall prohibit the person who is subject to the order from purchasing, possessing, or transporting a firearm for the duration of the order. In determining whether probable cause for the issuance of an order exists, the judge shall consider any relevant evidence, including any recent act of violence, force, or threat as defined in § 19.2-152.7:1 by such person directed toward another person or toward himself. No petition shall be filed unless an independent investigation has been conducted by law enforcement that determines that probable cause for the petition exists. The order shall contain a statement (i) informing the person who is subject to the order of the requirements and penalties under § 18.2-308.1:6, including that it is unlawful for such person to purchase, possess, or transport a firearm for the duration of the order and that such person is required to surrender his concealed handgun permit if he possesses such permit, and (ii) advising such person to surrender any firearm that has not been taken into custody pursuant to an order issued pursuant to this section to the law-enforcement agency that served the order.

B. The petition for an emergency substantial risk order shall be supported by an affidavit or by sworn testimony before the judge. If an order is issued without an affidavit being presented, the court, in its order, shall state the basis upon which the order was entered, including a summary of the allegations made and the court's findings.

C. An emergency substantial risk order issued pursuant to this section shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the second day following issuance of the order. If the expiration occurs on a day that the court is not in session, the order shall be extended until 11:59 p.m. on the next day that the court that issued the order

429 is in session. The person who is subject to the order may at any time file a motion to dissolve the order.

430 D. An emergency substantial risk order issued pursuant to this section is effective upon personal 431 service on the person who is subject to the order. The order shall be served forthwith after issuance. A
432 copy of the order shall be given to the person who is subject to the order together with a notice
433 informing the person that he has a right to a hearing under § 19.2-152.14 and may be represented by 434 counsel at the hearing.

435 E. The person who is subject to the order shall be informed of the items sought and given the 436 opportunity to voluntarily relinquish any firearm, though voluntary relinquishment shall not preclude the 437 law-enforcement officer from conducting a search if he has reason to believe the person who is subject
438 to the order has not relinquished all firearms in his possession. The law-enforcement officer serving the 439 order shall take custody of any firearm that is in the person's possession or that is owned by the person.
440 The law-enforcement agency that takes into custody a firearm pursuant to the order shall prepare a
441 written receipt containing the name of the person who is subject to the order and the manufacturer,
442 model, and serial number of the firearm and provide a copy to such person.

443 F. The court shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day on which the 444 emergency substantial risk order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the Virginia Criminal 445 Information Network the identifying information of the person who is subject to the order provided to 446 the court. A copy of an order issued pursuant to this section containing any such identifying information 447 shall be forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of 448 the order. Upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith
449 verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate
450 information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network
451 established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52, and 452 the order shall be served forthwith upon the person who is subject to the order and due return made to 453 the court. The clerk of the circuit court shall forthwith forward an attested copy of the order containing 454 the identifying information of the person who is subject to the order provided to the court to the 455 primary law-enforcement agency providing service and entry of the order. Upon receipt of the order by 456 the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall enter the name of the person subject to the order
457 and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal 458 Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et 459 seq.) of Title 52, and the order shall be served forthwith upon the person who is subject to the order.
460 Upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and time of service and other appropriate
461 information required into the Virginia Criminal Information Network and make due return to the court.
462 If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be 463 attested and forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and 464 entry of the order. Upon receipt of the dissolution or modification order by the primary law-enforcement 465 agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying 466 information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the 467 Virginia Criminal Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to 468 Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52, and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to 469 the court.

470 § 19.2-152.14. Substantial risk order.

471 A. Not later than two days after the issuance of an emergency substantial risk order pursuant to 472 § 19.2-152.13, the circuit court for the jurisdiction where the person who is subject to the order resides
473 shall hold a hearing to determine whether a substantial risk order should be entered. The attorney for 474 the Commonwealth for the jurisdiction that issued the emergency substantial risk order shall represent 475 the interests of the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth shall have the burden of proving all material 476 facts by clear and convincing evidence. If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the 477 person poses a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or to other individuals in the near future by 478 such person's possession or acquisition of a firearm, the court shall issue a substantial risk order. Such 479 order shall prohibit the person who is subject to the order from purchasing, possessing, or transporting 480 a firearm for the duration of the order. In determining whether clear and convincing evidence for the 481 issuance of an order exists, the judge shall consider any relevant evidence including any recent act of 482 violence, force, or threat as defined in § 19.2-152.7:1 by such person directed toward another person or 483 toward himself. The order shall contain a statement (i) informing the person who is subject to the order 484 of the requirements and penalties under § 18.2-308.1:6, including that it is unlawful for such person to 485 purchase, possess, or transport a firearm for the duration of the order and that such person is required
486 to surrender his concealed handgun permit if he possesses such permit, and (ii) advising such person to 487 surrender any firearm to the law-enforcement agency that served the order.

488 B. If the court issues a substantial risk order pursuant to subsection A, the court shall order that any 489 firearm taken from the person who is subject to the order pursuant to an order issued pursuant to 490 § 19.2-152.13 continue to be held by the agency that took the firearm for the duration of the order. If the court finds that the person does not pose a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or to other individuals in the near future, the court shall order that any firearm taken be returned to such person in accordance with the provisions of § 19.2-152.15.

C. The substantial risk order may be issued for a specified period of time up to a maximum of 180 days. The order shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the last day specified or at 11:59 p.m. on the last day of the 180-day period if no date is specified. Prior to the expiration of the order, an attorney for the Commonwealth or a law-enforcement officer may file a written motion requesting a hearing to extend the order. Proceedings to extend an order shall be given precedence on the docket of the court. The court may extend the order for a period not longer than 180 days if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person continues to pose a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or to other individuals in the near future by such person's possession or acquisition of a firearm at the time the request for an extension is made. The extension of the order shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the last day specified or at 11:59 p.m. on the last day of the 180-day period if no date is specified. Nothing herein shall limit the number of extensions that may be requested or issued. The person who is subject to the order may file a motion to dissolve the order one time during the duration of the order; however, such motion may not be filed earlier than 30 days from the date the order was issued.

D. Any person whose firearm has been taken pursuant to this section, or such person's legal representative, may transfer the firearm to another individual 21 years of age or older who is not otherwise prohibited by law from possessing such firearm, provided that:

1. The person subject to the order and the transferee appear at the hearing;
2. At the hearing, the court determines that the transferee is not prohibited from possessing a firearm;
3. The transferee does not reside with the person subject to the order;
4. The court informs the transferee of the requirements and penalties under § 18.2-308.2:1; and
5. The court, after considering all relevant factors and any evidence or testimony from the person subject to the order, approves the transfer of the firearm subject to such restrictions as the court deems necessary.

The law-enforcement agency holding the firearm shall deliver the firearm to the transferee within five days of receiving a copy of the court's approval of the transfer.

§ 19.2-152.15. Return or disposal of firearms.

A. Any firearm taken into custody pursuant to an order issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 and held by a law-enforcement agency shall be returned by such agency to the person from whom the firearm was taken upon a court order for the return of the firearm issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.14 or the expiration or dissolution of an order issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14. Such agency shall return the firearm within five days of receiving a written request for the return of the firearm by the person from whom the firearm was taken and a copy of the receipt provided to such person pursuant to § 19.2-152.13. Prior to returning the firearm to such person, the law-enforcement agency holding the firearm shall confirm that such person is no longer subject to an order issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14 and is not otherwise prohibited by law from possessing a firearm.

B. A firearm taken into custody pursuant to an order issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 and held by a law-enforcement agency may be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of § 15.2-1721 if (i) the person from whom the firearm was seized provides written authorization for such disposal to the agency or (ii) the firearm remains in the possession of the agency more than 120 days after such person is no longer subject to an order issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14 and such person has not submitted a request in writing for the return of the firearm.

§ 19.2-152.16. False statement to law-enforcement officer, etc.; penalty.

Any person who knowingly and willfully makes any materially false statement or representation to a law-enforcement officer or attorney for the Commonwealth who is in the course of conducting an investigation undertaken pursuant to this chapter is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

§ 19.2-152.17. Immunity of law-enforcement officers, etc.; chapter not exclusive.

A. An attorney for the Commonwealth or a law-enforcement officer shall be immune from civil liability for any act or omission related to petitioning or declining to petition for a substantial risk order pursuant to this chapter.

B. Any law-enforcement agency or law-enforcement officer that takes into custody, stores, possesses, or transports a firearm pursuant to an order issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14 shall be immune from civil or criminal liability for any damage to or deterioration, loss, or theft of such firearm.

C. Nothing in this chapter precludes a law-enforcement officer from conducting a search for a firearm or removing a firearm from a person under any other lawful authority.

§ 19.2-387.3. Substantial Risk Order Registry; maintenance; access.

A. The Department of State Police shall keep and maintain a computerized Substantial Risk Order Registry (the Registry) for the entry of orders issued pursuant to § 19.2-152.13 or 19.2-152.14. The
