(B) Two commissioners shall represent the political party having the next highest number of members in the Senate of Virginia and shall be appointed by the leader of that political party.

(C) Two commissioners shall represent the political party having the highest number of members in the House of Delegates and shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Delegates.

(D) Two commissioners shall represent the political party having the next highest number of 60 members in the House of Delegates and shall be appointed by the leader of that political party.

61 (2) Eight commissioners shall be citizen members who shall be selected in accordance with the 62 provisions of this subdivision and in the manner determined by the General Assembly by general law.

63 (A) There shall be a Redistricting Commission Selection Committee (the Committee) consisting of five 64 retired judges of the circuit courts of Virginia. By November 15 of the year ending in zero, the Chief 65 Justice of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall certify to the Speaker of the House of Delegates, the 66 leader in the House of Delegates of the political party having the next highest number of members in 67 the House of Delegates, the President pro tempore of the Senate of Virginia, and the leader in the 68 Senate of Virginia of the political party having the next highest number of members in the Senate a list 69 of retired judges of the circuit courts of Virginia who are willing to serve on the Committee, and these 70 members shall each select a judge from the list. The four judges selected to serve on the Committee 71 shall select, by a majority vote, a judge from the list prescribed herein to serve as the fifth member of 72 the Committee and to serve as the chairman of the Committee.

73 (B) By January 1 of the year ending in one, the Speaker of the House of Delegates, the leader in the 74 House of Delegates of the political party having the next highest number of members in the House of 75 Delegates, the President pro tempore of the Senate of Virginia, and the leader in the Senate of the 76 political party having the next highest number of members in the Senate shall each submit to the 77 Committee a list of at least sixteen citizen candidates for service on the Commission. Such citizen 78 candidates shall meet the criteria established by the General Assembly by general law.

79 The Committee shall select, by a majority vote, two citizen members from each list submitted. No
80 member or employee of the Congress of the United States or of the General Assembly shall be eligible 81 to serve as a citizen member.

82 (c) By February 1 of the year ending in one, the Commission shall hold a public meeting at which it 83 shall select a chairman from its membership. The chairman shall be a citizen member and shall be 84 responsible for coordinating the work of the Commission.

86 House of Delegates of the General Assembly no later than 45 days following the receipt of census data 87 and shall submit to the General Assembly plans for districts for the United States House of 88 Representatives no later than 60 days following the receipt of census data or by the first day of July of 89 that year, whichever occurs later.

90 (1) To be submitted as a proposed plan for districts for members of the United States House of 91 Representatives, a plan shall receive affirmative votes of at least six of the eight legislative members and 92 six of the eight citizen members.

93 (2) To be submitted as a proposed plan for districts for members of the Senate, a plan shall receive 94 affirmative votes of at least six of the eight legislative members, including at least three of the four 95 legislative members who are members of the Senate, and at least six of the eight citizen members.

96 (3) To be submitted as a proposed plan for districts for members of the House of Delegates, a plan 97 shall receive affirmative votes of at least six of the eight legislative members, including at least three of 98 the four legislative members who are members of the House of Delegates, and at least six of the eight 99 citizen members.

100 (e) Plans for districts for the Senate and the House of Delegates shall be embodied in and voted on 101 as a single bill. The vote on any bill embodying a plan for districts shall be taken in accordance with 102 the provisions of Article IV, Section 11 of this Constitution, except that no amendments shall be 103 permitted. Such bills shall not be subject to the provisions contained in Article V, Section 6 of this 104 Constitution.

105 (f) Within fifteen days of receipt of a plan for districts, the General Assembly shall take a vote on the 106 bill embodying that plan in accordance with the provisions of subsection (e). If the General Assembly 107 fails to adopt such bill by this deadline, the Commission shall submit a new plan for districts to the 108 General Assembly within fourteen days of the General Assembly's failure to adopt the bill. The General 109 Assembly shall take a vote on the bill embodying such plan within seven days of receipt of the plan. If 110 the General Assembly fails to adopt such bill by this deadline, the districts shall be established by the 111 Supreme Court of Virginia.

112 (g) If the Commission fails to submit a plan for districts by the deadline set forth in subsection (d),
113 the Commission shall have fourteen days following its initial failure to submit a plan to the General 114 Assembly. If the Commission fails to submit a plan for districts to the General Assembly by this 115 deadline, the districts shall be established by the Supreme Court of Virginia.

116 If the Commission submits a plan for districts within fourteen days following its initial failure to 117 submit a plan, the General Assembly shall take a vote on the bill embodying such plan within seven 118 days of its receipt. If the General Assembly fails to adopt such bill by this deadline, the districts shall be 119 established by the Supreme Court of Virginia.

120 (h) All meetings of the Commission shall be open to the public. Prior to proposing any redistricting
121 plans and prior to voting on redistricting plans, the Commission shall hold at least three public

122 hearings in different parts of the Commonwealth to receive and consider comments from the public.
123 (i) All records and documents of the Commission, or any individual or group performing delegated 124 functions of or advising the Commission, related to the Commission's work, including internal 125 communications and communications from outside parties, shall be considered public information.
